* The excess of Rs. 59-7-6 represented arrear collections.

A Municipal Bench was established during the year at Tikari, but its working commenced from 19th March last. There were no Municipal Benches in any of the municipalities in the Chota Nagpore and Orissa Divisions.

8. Assessments.—The statement in Appendix D shows the mode of assessment prevailing in each municipality in the province, the rate at which the tax on holdings or on persons according to their circumstances and property within municipal limits was levied, and the result of any revision of assessment made during the year. The tax on holdings was in force in 36 municipalities, and was levied at rates below the maximum ($7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum on the annual value of holdings) in the following 13 places :—

Name of Division.	Name of Municipality	Rate of tax.
Burdwan ...	Hooghly and Chinsurah ...	... $6\frac{1}{4}$
Presidency ...	Krishnaghur ...	... 6
	Ranaghat ...	... $6\frac{1}{4}$
	Santipore ...	... $6\frac{1}{8}$
Rajshahye ...	Darjeeling ...	... 7	The legal maximum in these municipalities is 10 per cent.
Dacca ...	Dacca ...	... 8
	Naraingunge ...	... 6
Patna ...	Sewan ...	... 7
Bhagulpore ...	Monghyr ...	... 6
	Jamalpore ...	... 7
	Bhagulpore ...	... 5
	Purneah ...	... 6
	Sahebgunge ...	... $3\frac{1}{2}$

In regard to the Burdwan Division the Commissioner remarks :—"The maximum rate of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. was levied in all the municipalities in which the tax on holdings was in force, with the exception of Hooghly and Chinsurah, where it was only $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. This town has many sanitary wants, and the full rate might, I think, be levied with advantage to the health of the inhabitants. The people are exceedingly well off, and I see no reason why the rate should be lower in this town than in the others." This observation is applicable to most of the other municipalities specified in the above statement. In the Bhagulpore Division the rate is levied below the maximum in every place where a rate is imposed, and it seems that in both Bhagulpore and Monghyr it should be increased: it is satisfactory to see that in Sahebgunge, where the rate is the lowest in the province, it has been raised to 5 per cent. in the current year. In the Nuddea Municipalities, the rates are still unduly low. It is not too much to say that in all municipal towns in Bengal there is a crying want of funds to meet expenditure which is gradually being forced upon the Commissioners, especially in the direction of improved sanitation. It is equally true that, whether the taxation is based on assessment of holdings, or (as Appendix D will show is more usually the case) on persons according to their circumstances and property, the present rate of taxation is exceedingly low and far from oppressive on the rate-payers. The tax on persons varies at rates from 8 annas to one rupee per cent. on the estimated income of the assessee. The average incidence of municipal taxation throughout Bengal (excluding Calcutta) during the past year was only 11 annas and 11 pies per head of the population, and in no less than 67 municipalities the incidence is so low that it amounts to 8 annas or less per head. The lowest place in the list is taken by Lalgunge in Mozufferpore, where the rate is only two annas and seven pies By way of comparison it may be noted—the figures are taken for the year 1886 87—that the incidence per head of municipal taxation proper (exclusive of Presidency towns) is in Bombay Re. 1-4-5 and in the Punjab Re. 1-2-6. In Madras it is annas 11-11 and in the North-Western Provinces annas 11-1. These figures show how very moderate is the incidence of municipal taxation in India generally; and especially that it is low in Bengal, where the wealth of the people and their standard of comfort are greater than in other provinces. It is obvious therefore that there is scope for some increase in municipal taxation; and unless there is such an increase, it is impossible that reforms can be undertaken. Under sections 88 and 97 of the law the period during which an assessment once made shall continue in force should be three years only. The object of this provision is that the assessment of holdings and of the tax upon persons should be revised periodically as the prosperity of towns increases; but in many cases it is to be feared that the law is overlooked, and the old assessment allowed to continue unchanged for too long a period As an instance of this neglect, the Lieutenant-Governor observes that a general revision of assessment was made during the past year in the Comilla Municipality after so long a period as twelve years. On the other hand, His Honour recognises the signs of more vigorous municipal administration in several important places, and he is glad to take this opportunity of intimating to Municipal Commissioners and the local executive authorities that they will always receive the support of Government in the discharge of the responsible duty of revising assessments. The duty is unfortunately a very invidious one, and in its fulfilment the Commissioners must often, as the reports of the past year sufficiently indicate, expect to incur serious unpopularity and obstruction; but the Lieutenant-Governor has no doubt that as a body they will not shrink from it on this account. The enforcement of proper municipal taxation in order to accomplish municipal improvements, and especially sanitary reform, of which all the towns in Bengal are so greatly in need, is one of of the most distinguishing marks of efficiency and aptitude in local self-government.

9. During the past year assessments were revised either generally or partially in 43 municipalities. The revision resulted in a loss of income in five places, viz., Burdwan (Rs. 469), Raneegunge (Rs. 142), Ramjibanpore (Rs. 7), Tikari (Rs. 1,166), and Behar. In the Durbhunga Municipality the assessment was revised, and, with the sanction of Government, the tax on persons was substituted for the rate on holdings. The tax is fixed at the rate of 1 per cent., and all persons having an income of less then Rs. 6 a month have been exempted. The net increase has not yet been determined, but it was expected to be about Rs. 6,000. The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that this expectation will be realised; but he is concerned to notice an observation in the Commissioner's General Administration Report, that the income of the municipality, "instead of increasing as was estimated, has fallen off, and when the Maharajah resumes possession of his market, which has been decreed to him by order of the Civil Court, there will be a further reduction." The reason of this apparent failure is not explained, but it is presumed that it is due to the opposition of the rate-payers, and is temporary only. Under somewhat similar circumstances the amount of increase obtained by revision of assessments in the Rampore Beauleah Municipality is reported to have been Rs. 2,042. The rate of tax on income of persons was raised from 8 to 12 annas per cent., and is therefore still very low, but the effect of the revision is thus described by the Chairman in his report:—"A hue and cry was raised, in which those whose assessments had not been increased, nay, even those who had been exempted from assessment, joined. The municipal office was literally beseiged with objection petitions. A memorial was sent to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, complaining against the enhancement. A party of men, who affected to pose as friends of the poor, but who really had at heart some grudge against the municipality, actively set about rousing the people against it under this colourable pretext. For nearly two months there was scarcely any collection of house-tax. Everybody refused to pay. It was a time of serious trial of the Municipal Commissioners. By a policy of conciliation and firmness, and by promptly deciding the objections, order was restored." In Santipore, Purulia, Chupra, Monghyr, Cuttack, and Comillah, revisions of assessment led to increase of taxation unaccompanied apparently by any administrative difficulty. But in the petty municipality of Jugdishpore, in the Shahabad district, where the revision resulted only in an increase of Rs 100 in the income, dissensions rose so high that a criminal case was instituted by one Municipal Commissioner against another, and some of the rate-payers who had sided with him, for obstructing him as he was returning from the municipal office after deciding some objections against enhanced assessment, and for threatening to kill him in case the tax was increased. The accused were convicted and sentenced to pay fines, and the sentence was upheld in appeal. A case even more scandalous than this occurred in the Tikari Municipality, where the Chairman was violently assaulted at his house by a gang of hired latthals instigated, according to common report, by an opponent on the Municipal Board, and the Vice-Chairman, who was conspicuous in opposition, was removed from his post.

The year's record shows indeed that the path of duty is strewn with difficulties, which can only be overcome by honest perseverance, consistency, and firmness; but it may be expected that as experience is gained in the benefits derived from municipal improvement, the attitude of the rate-payers, as well as of the more retrograde and obstructive section of Municipal Commissioners, will become, as it has in other portions of the world, more tolerant of necessary taxation.

10. Fresh imposts levied during the year.—The provisions of the Act regarding the levying of a tax upon the annual value of holdings were extended during the year to the new municipalities of Cossipore-Chitpore, Manicktolla, and South Suburbs. Sanction was also accorded to the levy by the Commissioners of the Kurseong, Serampore, Bali, English Bazar, and Khoolna municipalities of fees for the cleansing of private latrines within portions, or entire limits, of the respective municipalities

11. Extension of various provisions of the Municipal Act and Bye-laws sanctioned during the year.—The conservancy and other provisions of Part VI of the Act, or portions of them, were extended during the year to Berhampore, Joynugger, Nasirabad, Naihatty, Jungipore, Kishoregunge, English Bazar, Dinapore Nizamut, and Comillah.

Part IX of the Act, which regulates the construction and cleansing of latrines, was extended to Serampore (Mahesh and Rishra and Connagore wards), Bali (excepting the villages of Belur and Malipanchghara), English Bazar, Khoolna, and a portion of Dinagepore.

Part X, which contains provisions for the regulation of markets, was extended to Soory, Bhagulpore, Bhabuah, and Lalbagh or City Moorshedabad.

Bye-laws were framed by the Commissioners of the following municipalities under section 350 of the Act, and confirmed by Government:—

Dinagepore.	Jamui.	Baxitpore
Purulia.	Netrokona.	Comillah.
Nasirabad.	Gya	Bhagulpore.

Sherepore (district Mymensingh)	Kishoregunge.	Kurseong.
Darjeeling.	Chupra.	Lohardugga.
	Burrisal.	Furreedpore.

Rules for the protection of wild birds and game were framed by the Darjeeling and Cuttack Municipalities under Act XX of 1887, and confirmed by the Local Government.

12. Income and expenditure.—The following table compares the opening balances, income, expenditure and closing balances of municipalities, division by division, for the year 1889-90, and those of the preceding year:—

The large discrepancy between the closing balance of 1888-89 of the municipalities in the Presidency Division and the opening balance for 1889-90, is due to the exclusion from the current accounts of the closing balance of Rs. 62,042 of the late municipality of the Suburbs of Calcutta. The small discrepancies in the other divisions have been explained by the local officers.

13. Income.—The total income of the municipalities in Bengal under Act III (B.C.) of 1884 amounted during the year to Rs. 26,47,502, against Rs. 30,49,764 of the previous year. This large apparent falling off is due to the dismemberment of the Suburban Municipality, and as the entire area included within that municipality has not been excluded from the operation of Act III (B.C.) of 1884, no satisfactory comparison can be made between the municipal accounts of 1889-90 and of previous years. Excluding, however, the income from the municipalities in the Presidency Division, the total income of all other municipalities shows an increase of Rs. 42,499 over the receipts of 1888-89. This increase is too small to be considered satisfactory, and is much less than that of previous years The income from taxation proper is shown, division by division (excluding the Presidency), in the following statement:—

Taxation proper.

	Burdwan.	Rajshahye.	Dacca.	Chittagong.	Patna.	Bhagul-pore.	Orissa.	Chota Nagpore.	Total.

The general result shows some improvement, but it is not so marked as might be expected, looking to the low rate of taxation which prevails, and the urgent need that exists everywhere for increased income to meet necessary expenditure. In regard to the Dacca Division, it is explained that the net decrease is to a large extent nominal, as the collections in 1888-89 included arrears of previous years, and were therefore considerably in excess of the normal realisations In the case of the Chittagong Municipality, it is stated that a decrease of about Rs. 8,000 in the collections is due partly to the same cause as in the Dacca Division, and partly to the fact that for nearly three months the sircars had to attend on the auditor who was examining the accounts, and that in consequence the collections were smaller than ought to have been made. These excuses appear to the Lieutenant-Governor to be insufficient. It is satisfactory that the arrears have been liquidated, but they ought not to have been allowed to accrue. In any case it is to be regretted that the total gross collections show a falling off. It is a too common defect in Bengal municipalities that the executive is in arrear with its collections and it has been lately pointed out in a circular of Government that far greater promptitude must be insisted on in the collection or remission of taxes. Not more than one complete year of arrears should in any case be allowed. Municipalities which, like Ranchi and Kurseong, work in a business-like manner never have more than two quarters' arrears, and very often not more than one; and if municipalities in general avail themselves of the means provided in sections 120 to 129 of the Act, there is no reason why collections should ever be allowed to fall more than 12 months into arrear. As a matter of fact, in many municipalities the accounts are four or five years in arrear, and whenever this is the case it affords the clearest evidence of executive inefficiency.

14. The statement in Appendix E shows the details of income under each head, division by division, as compared with that of the year 1888-89. The total receipts from the municipalities in the eight divisions show an increase under the following heads:—

Heads of Revenue.	Amount of increase.
Taxation—	Rs.
Conservancy cess	29,277
License on trades	7,231
Tax on persons according to their circumstances and property / Tax on houses and lands	10,039
Tax on vehicles and animals	6,654
Tolls on roads and at ferries	3,424

On the other hand, there was a decrease under major head "Miscellaneous" of Rs. 13,000.

15. Conservancy Cess.—A portion of the increase under this head is only apparent, being due to the proper classification of the receipts, and a sum of Rs. 10,437 thus appears under this head against the Patna Municipality and Rs. 7,798 against the municipality of Pooree. The tax was levied for the first time in the municipalities of Bogra (Rs. 1,605), Kurseong (Rs. 870), and Cuttack (Rs. 1,032). There was an increase of income, as compared with 1888-89, of Rs. 2,901 in the Midnapore Municipality, Rs. 1,982 in Rungpore, Rs. 1,777 in Serampore, and Rs. 1,739 in Monghyr. No explanation has been given of the decrease in Howrah, which amounted to Rs. 11,832.

16. License on trades.—The figures under this head are also affected by new classification. The increase in the Howrah Municipality amounted to Rs. 1,111.

17. Tax on persons according to their circumstances and property, and tax on houses and lands.—These two items have to be reviewed together as the receipts were not accurately classified in the previous year. Deducting the income of Rs. 15,442 from the new municipalities noted in the margin, there was actually a falling off of Rs. 4,603 during the year, which was distributed among the Burdwan, Dacca, Chittagong, and Bhagulpore Divisions. There was a large increase of Rs. 3,408 in the Chota Nagpore Division, excluding the income from the new municipalities, with small increases in the Patna, Orissa, and Rajshahye Divisions. The increase of income was largest in Midnapore (Rs. 3,328), Patna (Rs. 3,032), Hooghly (Rs 1,978), Gya (Rs. 1,739), Purulia (Rs. 1,262); and there was a falling off in Dacca (Rs. 4,738), Chittagong (Rs. 8,870), Howrah (Rs. 2,774), Bhagulpore (Rs. 2,590), Revilgunge (Rs. 1,974).

Name of Municipality.	Rs.
Dinapore Nizamut ...	9,562
Kharar ...	2,274
Lohardugga ...	1,897
Daltongunge ...	1,709
Total ...	15,442

18. Tax on vehicles and animals.—The main increase was in the Patna Division, where it amounted to Rs. 6,128, of which Rs. 3,618 occurred in the Gya Municipality. There was also a large increase of Rs. 4,122 in the municipality of Baranagore in the 24-Pergunnahs, and Rs. 3,211 in Howrah. Midnapore shows a falling off of Rs. 1,983.

19. Tolls on roads and at ferries.—No tolls are levied on any roads in any municipality in Bengal. The item therefore refers only to income from ferries. The increase occurred mainly in the Patna Division (Rs 6,980), Chittagong (Rs. 1,700), and Orissa (Rs. 1,121). The Burdwan and Dacca Divisions show a falling off of Rs. 2,982 and Rs. 3,404 respectively. The accounts of the Mozufferpore Municipality show an increase of Rs. 6,670, due to the Victoria Bridge having been damaged by the flood and rendered unfit for traffic. The Chittagong Municipality shows an increase of Rs. 1,468, Cuttack of Rs. 2,386, Balasore of Rs. 1,265, and Lalbagh of Rs. 905.

The decrease in the Burdwan Division occurred in all the municipalities except Utterpara, Baidyabati, and Burdwan, where there was an increase. It was most marked in Hooghly (Rs. 1,398) and Serampore (Rs. 1,245). The decrease, amounting to Rs. 3,150, in the Dacca Municipality is attributed to a change in the system of accounts under which the advance collections have been credited to "Deposits" instead of under "Tolls," and this explanation no doubt accounts for the decrease in other places.

20. The receipts from municipal fines show a falling off from Rs. 32,028 to Rs. 29,992.

21 Water-rates are levied only in Burdwan and Darjeeling. The collections in both places show a small increase, as noted in the margin. The rate at Burdwan was levied at 4½ per cent. as in the preceding year, but the Lieutenant-Governor is glad to observe that, with reference to the necessity of extending the supply of filtered water to all parts of the town, the Municipal Commissioners have raised the rate to 5 per cent. for the current year. The rate at Darjeeling is 2½ per cent. only, and the increase is due to the imposition of the rate for the first time at Goompahar. No water-rate is yet levied in Bhagulpore, but it is, as the Commissioner points out, absolutely necessary either to levy a special rate or to increase the ordinary rate on holdings, if the much-needed extension of the water-works is to be carried out. In Mymensingh and Dacca the munificence of Raja Surjya Kant Acharjya Bahadur and of Nawab Sir Abdul Ghunny, K C.S I., has rendered the imposition of a water-rate unnecessary.

Deoghur ..	904	Rs 300 from the Pilgrims' Lodging-house Fund for general improvement and street-lighting. Details of Rs. 600 have not been given.

23. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with satisfaction the following gifts of money or land, and works of public utility executed, by private individuals:—Rs. 3,000 out of Rs. 6,300 promised by Baboo Kali Krishna Tagore of Calcutta for metalling a road in the Baranagore Municipality was received by the municipality during the year In Santipore a large tank was excavated, at a cost of Rs 3,000, by Rai Ram Kissen Mukerjee Sahib, and another tank by Goondi Moyra, at a cost of Rs 1,200, for the benefit of the inhabitants generally. The Nawab Bahadoor of Moorshedabad and his grandmother, Nawab Raisannessa Begum Shaheba, contributed Rs. 1,500 and Rs. 500 respectively towards protective works to save the people of the town from floods. In the South Barrackpore Municipality Baboo Behary Lal Pyne made a gift of Rs. 1,000 for the purpose of establishing a public burning-ghât at Sukchar. In the Soory Municipality Raja Ram Ranjan Chakravarty, Bahadoor, of Hetampore, made a donation of Rs. 1,000 towards the support of the indoor ward of the local charitable dispensary. A donation of Rs 5,000 was made to the Rampore Beauleah Municipality by the Dighapattia Wards' Estate, in commemoration of the marriage of the two elder wards, to be expended on some work of public utility. It has been decided that the money should be spent on the construction of an underground masonry drainage channel for the most insanitary portion of the town. Another gift of Rs. 920 was made to this municipality by Baboo Girish Chandra Dutta, zemindar of Goalkandi, for the excavation of a tank. The Rungpore Municipality received from Raja Govind Lal Roy a gift of a plot of land for public burial purposes. In Furreedpore a sum of Rs. 1,391 was formally made over by the local Jubilee Committee and credited to the Municipal Fund for excavating a tank. Mir Ali Ahmed Chowdhury made a gift of Rs. 1,814 to the Burrisal Municipality for the construction of a cross road connecting the Katpatti road with the Police Line road and a pucca ghât on the east bank of the Police Line tank. Baboo Bishnu Perkash Narain Singh, of Madhubani in Chumparun, contributed a sum of Rs. 6,600 to the municipality for the construction of a serai, of a building for the municipal middle English and vernacular school, and of a municipal garden. In Bettiah, the Maharaja gave a plot of land for the site of a slaughter house and a public latrine. At Chaibassa Colonel Samuells, the late Deputy Commissioner of Singbhoom, made a donation of Rs. 1,100 for clearing the lake near which the town stands and for repairing the bathing-ghât on it.

24. Expenditure.—The total municipal expenditure of the province was Rs. 26,77,511 during 1890-91, against Rs 30,42,900 in the preceding year, and the year under report closed with a balance of Rs. 3,16,393, against Rs. 4,14,654 in 1888-89. The following comparative statement shows the percentage of the municipal income spent in each division under each of the principal heads of expenditure during the last two years :—

25. Here also the fact that the entire area of the late Suburban Municipality has not been excluded from the operation of Act III (B.C.) of 1884 prevents the institution of any accurate comparison between the accounts of 1889-90 and those of the previous year. The statement in Appendix F shows the details of expenditure under each head, division by division. The largest expenditure is incurred on conservancy (Rs. 4,69,867), public works including maintanance and repairs of streets (Rs. 4,57,191), general establishment (Rs. 3,07,495), medical institutions (Rs. 2,30,241), and road-cleaning establishment (Rs. 1,92,741). The chief differences in expenditure, as compared with that of the year 1888-89, in the eight divisions (exccluding the Presidency Division) are the following :—

Increase.

Heads of Expenditure.	Amount of increase.
	Rs.
General establishment, including collection charges ...	6,124
Establishment and appliances for extinguishing fires ...	4,491
Street lighting	6,198
Buildings and other works	12,938
Maintenance of medical institutions	5,034
Water-works	49,984
Road watering	4,554
Conservancy and road-cleaning establishment	10,693
Other measures (establishments for markets, slaughter-houses, &c)	13,851
Survey of lands	10,707

Decrease.

	Amount of decrease.

Drainage works	4,070
Public instruction	5,741
Public works (establishment, new works and repairs) ...	27,835

26. The table above shows that the Municipal Commissioners increased their expenditure on works of general utility. As regards the first item, General establishment, deducting Rs. 3,022 on account of the newly-established municipalities which came into operation during the year, there was on the whole a net increase of Rs. 3,102 in the eight divisions taken together. The percentage of charges under this head to the total income of the year in each division is shown in the margin. It is evident that no standard is followed by the different municipalities in fixing the scale or pay of their establishments, and although for obvious reasons one fixed scale cannot conveniently be employed in all parts of the province, it is incumbent on the Commissioners to try and restrict the expenditure on this item as much as possible. The Lieutenant-Governor desires to take this opportunity to invite attention to the following remarks recorded on this subject by the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division:—

"The examination of the budgets of the municipalities in this Division for the current year brought to light a marked tendency on the part of Municipal Commissioners to give occasional increases of salary to members of the establishments, instead of laying down a fixed scale (with periodical increases, if necessary) and adhering to it. This practice is one which should, in my opinion, be consistently and firmly discouraged, as being unfair to the tax-payers and demoralizing to the recipients. The funds of all the municipalities are very limited in comparison with their wants, and any increase allowed to establishments must necessarily decrease, pro tanto, the surplus available for works of general utility. In most cases the proposed increase was disallowed, and the Municipal Commissioners were asked to consider what their requirements were as regards the strength and pay of their establishments, to lay down a scale once for all, and to adhere to it for the future. The spectacle of a municipal subordinate canvassing the Commissioners to vote for an increase to his pay (not fixed by any scale) is not one that is consistent with a proper discharge of his duties."

These observations of Mr. Toynbee are very pertinent, and should be put into practical application in the case of all municipalities.

27. Street lighting.—Fifty-nine municipalities, distributed in the divisions noted in the margin, incur no expenditure on this item. In the Rajshahye Division alone all the municipalities have made some attempt at lighting the streets, however inadequate the results may be. Year after year the Inspector-General of Police brings to the notice of Government the disadvantage at which the Town Police have to work owing to the streets in municipal towns being insufficiently lighted or not lighted at all, and there is no doubt that crime is greatly facilitated and much difficulty caused to efficient police supervision by this omission.

28. Maintenance of hospitals and dispensaries and vaccination.—The statement in Appendix G shows the establishment employed and cost incurred by the municipalities on account of vaccination and the results of the vaccine operations. The total municipal expenditure on this item amounted to Rs. 16,847, against Rs. 18,047 of the previous year, out of which latter sum Rs. 3,064 represents the expenditure incurred by the late Suburban Municipality during 1888-89. The provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, 1880, are in force in 130 municipalities, and the total number of persons vaccinated or revaccinated during the year amounted to 98,567, of whom 89,753 were successful cases.

One hundred and twenty municipalities maintained 127 dispensaries (including one temporary institution) during the year. The total cost incurred on account of "Medical institutions" was Rs. 2,30,241, against Rs. 2,29,810 of the previous year. The expenditure on this account increased in the Patna Division from Rs. 58,488 in 1888-89 to Rs 62,433 during 1889-90, and in Chota Nagpore from Rs. 8,276 to Rs. 10,815. There were increases also in Rajshahye (Rs. 1,310) and Dacca. In Burdwan there was a falling off of Rs. 3,216, in the Presidency Division Rs. 4,603, and in Orissa Rs. 802. In the Sooree Municipality one-half of the cost of maintaining the dispensary was borne by the District Board of Beerbhoom, and hence the reduction of expenditure.

29. Female Medical education.—The Municipal Commissioners of Burdwan made a provision of Rs. 240 per annum for the education of one girl in the Campbell Medical School in Calcutta; but as no one availed herself of this offer, it was resolved to utilise the allotment in training a nurse at the Burdwan Charitable Dispensary. Their choice fell upon one Srimati Hemangini Chatterjea, who refused, however, to accept the appointment. They are now trying to secure another duly qualified and trained nurse. In the Pubna district two midwives were appointed, paid partly from the municipal and partly from the district funds. It is stated that, whilst other municipalities in the Division were ready to incur expenditure on this account, no female students came forward for help, and consequently no help was given. In Burrisal the Municipal Commissioners employed a midwife for the female hospital. There is a female hospital attached to the Bankipore Dispensary, where a trained nurse is employed to look after female patients. Although stipends had been provided for by the municipalities in the Sarun district for female medical students attending the Temple Medical School, no candidates have yet come forward to attend the institution; but the Magistrate reports that the matter has his best attention, and that every endeavour will be made to make the scheme successful. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets that the results should be so discouraging They corroborate what has come to the notice of Government from other sources, that less interest is evinced in Bengal than in other provinces in India in the furtherance of female medical aid to women. Sir Steuart Bayley hopes, however, that both District Boards and Municipalities will persevere in their efforts to extend female medical enterprise in India.

30. Water-works —The increase under this head occurred mainly in Dacca (Rs. 10,372) and Bhagulpore Rs (43,939) The Howrah Municipality reduced its expenditure from Rs 2,471 to Rs. 413. In Dacca the increased expenditure was due to the extension of the water-works in that town, for which a loan of Rs. 1,25,000 has been sanctioned by Government.

31. Drainage Works.—The following municipalities show an increase or decrease of expenditure on this item as compared with the previous year:—

Municipality.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs	Rs.
Burdwan	4,255
Serampore	2,735	...
Darjeeling	...	7,429
Dinagepore	...	7,911

Dacca	3,383	...
Naraingunge	1,060	...
Patna	...	3,144
Revilgunge	2,343	.
Lalbagh	2,110	...

The decrease in the Darjeeling Municipality is due to the approaching completion of the flagging of its drains, while in Dinagepore the falling off was on account of the large expenditure on drains in 1888-89 owing to the munificence of the Maharajah.

32. Public instruction.—The statement in Appendix J shows, division by division, the class and number of schools maintained or aided by municipalities, the number of pupils receiving instruction at them, and the expenditure incurred on them; and also the number and class of other schools within municipal limits It has been compiled in some cases from figures furnished by Commissioners of Divisions, and in others, where this could not be done, or only incomplete information was furnished, from figures obtained from the Education Department. According to the separate report furnished by the Director of Public Instruction, the total expenditure from Municipal funds on education during the year was Rs 83,000, against an expenditure of Rs. 86,000 during 1888-89. The details are shown in the margin, and betray the fact, which was already well known to Government, that the Municipal grants are still devoted as a rule to the maintenance of English education, and that very little assistance is given to primary schools. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to notice, however, that there is some improvement in this respect, and that Commissioners of Divisions have not been slow to check the tendency of Municipal Commissioners to aid English education at the cost of the rate payers generally, while only a few of the well-to-do class profit by the schools There are apparently serious difficulties in the way of making the figures furnished by municipalities to the Education Department correspond with those supplied by them to Government; but the matter has received attention, and it is to be hoped that in next year's reports the municipal and Departmental figures will be wholly reconciled.

33. Vital statistics.—Under this head the Lieutenant Governor deems it advisable to reproduce the remarks he has already recorded in reviewing the report of the Sanitary Commissioner for 1889, as follows :—

"Births are now registered in 137 municipal towns with an aggregate census population of 2,422,994. The ratio of registered births is only 22·76 per thousand, the ratio of male births being 12·05, against female births 10·70. Dr. Gregg observes that the supposed standard of birth-rate in India is 40 per thousand, and it is probably even higher than this. There are indeed six municipalities in Bengal in which the statistics of birth exceed this ratio; but there are no less than 15 in which the statistics are so imperfectly recorded that the ratio is less than 10 per thousand. Among these is South Suburban Municipality, where the ratio is 7·47. In four municipalities—Muktagacha, Jhalokati, Goberdanga, and Nasirabad—the ratio is less than 5 per thousand. In a large and wealthy municipality like Patna the ratio is only 12·98, in Buxar it is 14·71, in Purneah it is 15·45, in Midnapore it is 15·73, in Jessore it is 16·71, in Dacca it is 17·71, in Cuttack it is 17·83, in Berhampore it is 18·89, and in Krishnaghur it is 19·68. When the registration in important municipalities, at the head-quarters of districts, is still so defective, it appears to be hopeless to attempt registration with any approximation to accuracy in rural areas. It is true that the registration for 1889 show a slight improvement over that of 1888, when the ratio of births was only 20·63 ; but the result is still very discouraging, and shows that municipalities as a body do not pay attention to this elementary and very necessary portion of their duties The Lieutenant-Governor has observed that during the current year, according to the statements published weekly in the Gazette, birth registration is still extremely deficient.

Births.

The same remarks are applicable to the registration of deaths in municipalities. The registered mortality in 1889 was 25·03 per thousand, against 24 86 per thousand in 1888. The statistics recorded vary very widely in different municipalities, as the following figures will show :—

The small improvement effected in the registration as a whole during the past year may be attributed to the special circular issued by Government on the subject, and to the action taken by the Sanitary Commissioner in supplementing the instructions then promulgated ; but the registration in many municipalities is still deplorably defective. There can be no reason why, under proper administrative arrangements, the registration should not be as complete at Patna and Arrah as it is at Gya, for instance, or in Ranaghat and Santipore as it is in Serampore and Utterpara. The South Suburban town is again conspicuous for its imperfect registration. The two newly-created municipalities of Cossipore-Chitpore and Manicktollah, where in the former case, a mortality is registered of 38 9 per thousand, and in the latter only 14 5 per thousand, afford a marked illustration of good and bad work in adjoining localities. It is obvious that these figures supply very little scope for any observation on the comparative health of municipalities during the year."

34. Sir Steuart Bayley is well aware that attention is now being devoted to the registration of these statistics, and he is confident that every year will show further improvement. But the point is one of real importance on which it is necessary to lay special stress; for the efficiency of municipal administration must always be judged in a large measure by the success which attends the accurate registration of births and deaths, which are the very basis of sanitary enterprise, and in all civilised countries are recorded with the greatest accuracy.

35. Loans and Sanitation.—The policy of Government in regard to loans was fully stated in last year's Resolution, and every encouragement is now offered to municipalities to apply for loans for the execution of well-considered schemes of improvement. The following applications have been sanctioned within or immediately after the close of the year :—

(a) Dacca.—The municipality applied for a loan of Rs. 1,25,000 for extending the water-works to some parts of the town which were not hitherto supplied with filtered water. Rs. 30,000 was advanced during the year, and the balance will be advanced during the current year.

(b) Dinagepore.—In March 1890 orders were issued sanctioning the grant of a loan of Rs. 10,000 to the Dinagepore Municipality for the completion of the drainage works in that town.

(c) Rampore Beauleah.—In April 1890 sanction was accorded to the grant of a loan of Rs 15,000 applied for by the Rampore Beauleah Municipality for the construction of drainage works.

(d) Bankoora.—A loan of Rs. 5,000 was applied for and sanctioned to the Bankoora Municipality in June 1890 for improving the water-supply in that town by sinking six wells and acquiring and excavating a big tank in the centre of the town.

(e) Pooree.—The municipality applied for a loan of Rs. 25,000 for the improvement of the drainage of that town. But as the scheme submitted by the municipality was not approved by the Public Works Department of Government and has to be revised in that Department, the application for the loan has been held in abeyance.

(f) Sooree.—The Sooree Municipality obtained a loan of Rs. 1,000, repayable in four years without interest, from Raja Ram Ranjan Chakrabartty, Bahadoor, of Hetampore, for establishing a municipal market called the "Jubilee Market."

Proposals for loans to the Midnapore, Chupra, and Mozufferpore Municipalities for the improvement of the drainage of those towns have been under consideration, but as the schemes were not matured in any of these places, no final orders have been passed. The Serampore Municipality applied for a loan of Rs. 30,000 for improving drainage, and a notification was published in May 1890, as required by the rules, declaring the intention of the Lieutenant-Governor to sanction the application; but up to the present time no further action has been taken. The Commissioner of the Chota Nagpore Division reports that Rajah Nilmoni Singh Deo of Pachet offered a contribution of Rs. 5,000 towards the cost of improving the water-supply of the town of Purulia, and has since the close of the year paid up Rs. 1,000 as part of his donation. As, however, a larger provision of funds will be necessary for the works, the Municipal Commissioners contemplate borrowing a sum of Rs. 10,000 from Government. The scheme for the Howrah water-works is still under the consideration of Government and it is probable that for this undertaking a comparatively large loan amounting to not less than ten lakhs of rupees will be necessary.

36. Upon the whole, the Lieutenant-Governor is not disappointed with the manner in which municipalities have availed themselves of the more liberal policy inaugurated by Government, and he is quite sure that a very profitable use is being made of the loans already granted. But he would be glad to see the larger municipalities, especially those in Behar, more forward to appreciate the necessity of capital expenditure. He has no doubt that in a short time there will be greater willingness in this direction. It must not be forgotten that municipal administration in Bengal is still in its infancy, and that the Commissioners generally have had no opportunity of appreciating the enormous benefits which result from capital outlay on sanitary and other works. The total expenditure incurred on sanitation in municipalities in Bengal last year (excluding Calcutta) was only Rs. 12,81,031, and the total of loans which had been raised by these municipalities for purposes of sanitary improvement up to the close of the year was less than three lakhs of rupees. By way of comparison it may be mentioned that the single town of Liverpool expended on sanitary improvement during the year 1887-88 the sum of £1,102,004; that the outstanding loans of the Liverpool urban sanitary authority at the close of that year were £8,284,984; that the expenditure in that year of 271 municipal boroughs in England acting as urban sanitary authorities was £15,894,457, and that the amount of outstanding loans of extra metropolitan municipalities was £152,557,155. Of course it is out of question for Bengal Municipalities to expend anything approaching to these vast sums on sanitary improvement, but the figures are quoted as being calculated to impress the imagination with the contrast in municipal development between India and Europe; and although the beginnings in Bengal are very small, it may be hoped that they will rapidly increase, and that improvements in one town will not fail to stimulate other municipalities to rival its success.

37. Enforcement of section 63 of the Act.—The provisions of the section empowering the Commissioner of the Division and the Magistrate of the district to suspend the execution of any resolution or order, or prohibit the doing of any act by the Commissioners of a municipality, when such resolution or order or act is in excess of the powers conferred by the law, or is likely to lead to serious breach of the peace, or to cause serious injury or annoyance to the public or to any class or body of persons, were enforced in three municipalities during the year, viz., Dacca, Colgong, and Arrah. The circumstances were unimportant in all cases, and need not be especially noticed.

38. Miscellaneous.—The tramway in the town of Patna was completed and was in working order during the year. The length of the tramway is nearly seven miles with 11 sidings to enable cars to cross each other. The total number of passengers carried up to 31st March last was 151,260. There was only one serious accident during the year.

There were serious outbreaks of fire in the municipalities of Nattore, Bogra, and Rungpore, attended with loss of property, but no lives were lost. Great damage was done to the roads by the high floods in Coomarkholly, Nuddea, and Santipore. In Moorshedabad there was an unusual flood during the year, and considerable portions of Lalbagh and Azimgunge were under water. The Nawab Bahadoor of Moorshedabad contributed about Rs. 3,000 for giving relief to the poor in Lalbagh, and Rai Dhunput Singh, Bahadoor, and Rai Bepin Chand and Rai Budh Singh Dudhuria, Bahadoor, subscribed Rs. 500 and 100 respectively for relief of the Azimgunge people who suffered from the flood. In the Manicktollah Municipality a fire occured, causing damage to the extent of about Rs. 40,000.

In April 1889 a tornado passed over some of the villages within and about the Tangail Municipality. Its duration was very short, and it extended over a distance of five miles. It is reported that 139 human lives were lost and 242 persos seriously wounded. The loss of property was estimated at Rs. 19,000. A sudden somewhat similar blast of wind also visited the town of Nalchitti on the night of the 27th October 1889. Its duration was a few minutes only, and it extended over an area of about a mile. Some damage to property was caused, but no lives are reported to have been lost.

39. Working of the Porters and Dandiwallas Act, V (B.C.) of 1883, in Darjeeling.—The Act did not work satisfactorily during the year, and the table of rates for the hire of porters and dandiwallas was revised. Seventeen prosecutions were instituted and 15 convictions obtained. Three hundred and forty-seven dandiwallas and 229 porters were registered and 494 badges were issued. The cost incurred in the working of the Act was Rs. 170.

40. Working of the Pilgrims' Lodging-house Act IV (B.C.) of 1871.—In Pooree the total receipts during the year, including the opening balance of Rs. 3,983-5-2, amounted to Rs. 12,443-14-11, and the expenditure to Rs. 11,255-11-4, against Rs. 18,176-11-4 and Rs. 14,193-6-2 respectively of the preceding year. Excluding the opening balance, the receipts show an increase of nearly Rs. 3,000 over the preceding year. The sum of Rs. 5,000 was paid to the municipality for the cost of conservancy and sanitary improvement of the town. The number of lodging-houses increased from 194, capable of accommodating 5,433 lodgers, to 417, capable of accommodating 11,170 lodgers. Sixty-two pucka drains and 363 pucka latrines were constructed within house premises, and in 408 houses the rooms were provided with suitable windows. The total amount of fines realised amounted to Rs. 911-2-6, against Rs. 1,074-9 in the previous year. Besides contributing largely to the pilgrim hospital in the town of Pooree, the Lodging-house Committee continued to maintain the Pipli and aid the Balianta dispensaries. Altogether the Act worked satisfactorily.

41. The total receipts of the Gya Lodging-house Fund amounted to Rs. 18,400-7-2 (including the balance of the previous year), and the total expenditure was Rs. 13,193-2-11, leaving a balance of Rs. 5,207-4-3. The number of new certificates issued under the Act was 12, against 27 in the preceding year. Four hundred and five licenses were issued, against 476 of 1888-89, and the number of lodgers was 11,659, against 13,485. Altogether 63 prosecutions were instituted, all of which were disposed of, 57 cases ending in conviction and 6 in acquittal. The total amount of fines imposed was Rs. 211, against Rs. 240. A further sum of Rs. 4,181-4-10 was spent in completing the cholera hospital. The hospital was formally opened in September last for the treatment of sick pilgrims in the old town of Gya. Forty-five cases were treated, of which 27 were cholera cases. There was no epidemic in the lodging-houses. They were kept in good order, and measures were adopted to keep them clean. All the houses are reported to have been regularly inspected by the Health Officer during the pilgrim season. The working of the Act appears, on the whole, to have been satisfactory.

42. In Raneegunge the Act could not be brought into working order, and the town has eventually been withdrawn from its operation after the close of the year.

43. At Chandbally the income of the year, including the opening balance, was Rs. 921 and the expenditure Rs. 655. Two pucca urinals were constructed, a tank was improved, and a large pucca well was sunk at the cost of the Lodging-house Fund. A sufficient number of sweepers was employed to sweep the streets and keep the urinals and public latrines in good order. The Act is reported to be working satisfactorily, and the difficulty which used to be felt in inducing the lodging-house keepers to apply for licenses has passed away.

44. The working of the Lodging-house Act in the town of Garbetta was transferred during the year to the District Board of Midnapore, the special committee under the Act being abolished. The District Board has also been entrusted with the working of the Act at Dantoon, another town on the Jagannath road in the Midnapore district.

45. General working of the Municipal Act, III (B.C.) of 1884.—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division observes:—

Burdwan Division.

"Great credit is due to Rai Nalinaksha Basu, Bahadoor, and to Baboos Eshan Chandra Mitter and Siv Narain Mukerjea, Chairmen of the Burdwan, Hooghly, and Utterpara Municipalities respectively, for their successful administration during the past year. Other Chairmen have also done good work, and so have many of the Vice-Chairmen and members of various municipalities, but their names are too numerous for detailed mention within the limits of this report. On the whole I consider that, in spite of many faults of omission and commission, the municipalities in this Division have worked successfully and have made good use of the funds at their disposal. They are more suited to consultative than to outdoor executive work, and are chiefly dependent for the latter on their Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and subordinates. If no great progress has been made in sanitary and other improvements, it has been due to the want of means rather than to the want of will. The weakest point in the administration of the various municipalities is, I consider, the want of effective outdoor supervision."

46. The Commissioner of the Presidency Division remarks:—"The Act, on the whole, worked well. Both the elected and nominated Commissioners continue generally to take interest in their duties, and the work has been carried on smoothly. I agree with Mr. Forbes in thinking that the party dissensions which so frequently interfered in certain municipalities with the unanimity of their proceedings during the first years of the new system seem to be gradually abating."

Presidency.

47. Speaking of the municipalities in Rajshahye, the Magistrate writes:—

Rajshahye.

"The Beauleah Corporation has discharged its duties very satisfactorily. The relation between me and the Corporation has always been cordial, the Commissioners always showing their willingness to consider the suggestions made by me, and proving themselves always amenable to reason and friendly advice. The Nattore Municipality has also worked very ably. But I would like to see more coherence in the members; they should lay aside all party spirit and work in harmony for the public good. It would be well also if they tried to enlist, not only the sympathies, but the active co-operation of the local zemindars and the people in the introduction of the very many sanitary improvements which the town is sadly in need of." The Magistrate of Rungpore writes:—"The Chairman and Vice-Chairman are both pleaders, busy men, and unable to give their attention to outdoor work. They do their best, and the town is greatly indebted to them for their public spirit. It is, however, much to be wished that, in case of vacancy in either office, it may be filled by a non-professional resident, able to give more time and attention to inspection." The Deputy Commissioner of Julpigoree, who is also the Chairman of the local municipality, writes thus:—"The provisions of the Act have worked well and without friction throughout the year, though it was found necessary to sacrifice somewhat the interest of municipal funds with regard to the registration of carts owing to the peculiar relation the town bore to the surrounding district. Hundreds of carts passed through the municipality, but as they were shown not to ply habitually, they were exempted from paying registration fees. The Commissioners have evinced great interest in the welfare of the municipality, as evidenced by the interest and trouble they took in the registration of births and deaths. It would be invidious to point out any individual while all have shown such interest, but the names of Baboos Nilmony Pal, Kedarnath Mookerjee, and Moonshee Abdul Hamed require special mention."

The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division writes:—"The Rampore Beauleah Commissioners showed a want of firmness in dealing with the opposition encountered in the attempt to revise the tax, but from what I have seen of the working of the municipalities as a whole, I have had reason to be very well satisfied with the manner in which the Commissioners have discharged their duties."

48. The Magistrate of Dacca has recorded the following opinion of the working of the Act in his district:—"I have no remarks to make except to regret that more has not been done to keep the principal roads in better repair. The bad condition of the Naraingunge road within municipal area has been repeatedly brought to the notice of the municipality for the last three years, but with no effect. The year has in many respects been one of fairly successful administration." The Magistrate of Backergunge writes as follows:—"In all the municipalities improvements have been effected and the Committees have worked smoothly. In Burisal in particular the members take an interest in their duties and work for the public good." The Magistrate of Mymensingh writes:—"I had not the opportunity of seeing the practical working of the municipalities during the year under review, but from what I have seen of them since I joined the district, and from a perusal of the papers, I am of opinion that the working was, on the whole, satisfactory. The Municipal Commissioners generally take a great deal of interest in their work and spend much of their time for the welfare of their towns. There are certainly some grave shortcomings which require to be repeatedly pointed out and pressed on their attention in order to be remedied. As will be seen from the statements in the appendix, many of the municipalities devote unduly large portions of their income to high education, which generally benefit a small and comparatively well-to-do minority; and the Municipal Commissioners often forget that they should spend most part of their income for the greatest good of the greatest number, and that in this alone lies the justification of municipal taxation. The drainage and sanitation of most of the municipalities require to be better looked after and improved. Many of the Municipal Commissioners have neither the leisure nor the inclination to look to practical details, and often there is not that close supervision over the work of clerks, overseers, and their underlings which is essential to efficiency."

Dacca.

The Commissioner of the Division observes:—"My own acquaintance with these municipalities dates from the current year only. I feel it would be unsafe to generalise on the subject, but I cannot refrain from noticing that the formation of small municipalities which contain merely the nucleus or germ of a town, surrounded by villages whose inhabitants, whatever be their means of livelihood, possess genuine agricultural instincts, was not foreseen, and is not altogether advantageous. Where such conditions prevail, something in the nature of a plebiscite to determine whether a township shall be formed or not is much to be recommended."

In Mr. Power's objection to the establishment of very petty municipalities and to the inclusion in them of agricultural villages the Lieutenant-Governor entirely concurs.

49. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division writes:—"Generally I do not think progress is being made. Want of funds is the great difficulty which cannot be got over. There has been much good individual work, but there has also been great laxness, particularly in the accounts of the Chittagong Municipality. There has been, as usual in almost every town, one or more personal matters which seem to cause much more interest than more important public matters."

Patna.

50. The Commissioner of the Patna Division writes thus with reference to the municipalities in his Division:—"In the Gya Municipality the working of the Act III (B.C.) of 1884 was hardly satisfactory. The Commissioners took some interest in the matter which came before them for discussion, but only held eight meetings. The affairs of the Tikari Municipality form the subject of separate correspondence. The Commissioners of the Arrah Municipality evince an amount of energy which at times is injudicious and has to be checked. The troubles at Jugdispore have already been noticed. The working of the other municipalities in the district is reported to be satisfactory, but I fear they are not what they should be. The Magistrate of Sarun writes that the municipalities in his district have worked much as usual. Those of Revilgunge and Sewan are very poor and cannot do much, but according to their lights and up to the limited extent of their powers they worked well The affairs of the Chupra Municipality were unsatisfactory till Mr. Bourdillon was elected Chairman, when, with the help of the Sub-Committees, something has been done to remedy the defects, and a fair measure of success has been achieved. The Commissioners of the Durbhunga and Madhubani Municipalities are said to take a fair amount of interest in their work; party feeling is, however, strong among them. In Roserah, which is beyond the pale of immediate official supervision, much time is lost in petty disputes over trifles, while no attention is paid to the interests of the rate-payers. In Chumparun the Municipal Commissioners are said to have as a body worked well, and both the Vice-Chairmen of the Motihari and Bettiah Municipalities take much interest in their work. The working of the Patna Municipality shows no improvement. In the last year's report Mr. Boxwell remarked that the features are 'inadequate conservancy and latrine arrangements, almost absolute absence of supervision, conservancy staff both inadequate and idle, watering and lighting insufficiently supervised, and the drainage of the whole municipality abominably bad.' No effective steps were taken during the year to remove these defects and shortcomings."

Bhagulpore.

51. The Commissioner of the Bhagulpore Division writes:—"As I only joined the Division at the close of the year, I cannot offer any general remarks based on personal knowledge of the working of the municipalities in this Division during its course; but I gather from what I have since observed, as well as from the several annual reports, that the administration of municipal affairs has been on the whole satisfactory, and that the general body of Commissioners have shown a fair amount of interest in the duties entrusted to them, though the real work has in most cases been performed by a few members only. Monghyr, under the superintendence of its non-official Chairman, appears to be a model municipality; and Bhagulpore, which has also at present an energetic non-official Chairman, has shown its enterprise in carrying out the water-supply scheme. No water rate, however, has yet been levied, and in its absence the ordinary rate on holdings should certainly be raised, so as to cover the large additional expenditure which prevents full justice being done to the other requirements of the town."

Orissa.

52. The Commissioner of the Orissa Division writes:—"The Chairman of the Cuttack Municipality quotes the following passage from a letter from the Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal to show what improvement has been effected in the sanitation and conservancy of the town:—'I was, however, well pleased with the cleanliness of the town and with what I saw and heard as to the manner in which the Municipal Commissioners were performing the duties of their trust. They deserve credit for the good work they have done, and I hope that when I have an opportunity of visiting the town again I will find things in as satisfactory a condition as they were in February last.' The sanitary and conservancy arrangements in the town of Pooree have also improved. The Magistrate remarks:—'There has been substantial improvement and good work done in all these matters. The Municipial Commissioners have adopted many of the Health Officer's suggestions and worked them out honestly. Except in some low parts in the outskirts, there are few Indian towns where there is less that is offensive to sight and smell than in Pooree, always, of course, excepting crowded pilgrim seasons.' The Balasore Municipality is under the management of Dr. Zorab, the Civil Surgeon, who is Chairman, and of Rajah Boikuntanath Dé, Bahadoor, both of whom take great interest in municipal matters. The Chairman acknowledges the valuable services rendered by the Vice Chairman, and mentions the construction at his own cost of 225 feet road-side drain in a part of the town where it was very much wanted, and also the excavation of a tank in Soonhat. Dr. Zorab remarks:—'Daily some progress towards sanitation is being made in the municipality, which is, doubtless, the outcome of the great cordiality which exists among the Commissioners. Our means are small, and advance in consequence tardy, but there is no doubt such advancement is secured by their faith in the belief that union is strength.' No remarks were made by the Magistrate on the working of the Kendrapara and Jajpore Municipalities. The Chairman of the Jajpore Municipality remarks that all the Commissioners do not take an active interest in their work, but four or five of them, including the Vice-Chairman, rendered much valuable assistance. There has been some improvement in both these towns."

Chota Nagpore.

53. The Commissioner of the Chota Nagpore Division has recorded the following remarks:—"The Deputy Commissioner of Hazaribagh says that the Municipal Commissioners in his district generally took great interest in their duties and expended the funds available to the best advantage. The Deputy Commissioner of Lohardugga reports that the Act worked well in the Ranchi Municipality. The Municipal Commissioners here worked as a rule in complete harmony and union, and were guided by a commendable spirit of independence and intelligence. The presence in the Municipal Committee here of the Civil Surgeon, who looks after a great deal of the sanitary matters of the town, and of the District Engineer, who assists the municipality with his professional advice, has had a salutary effect. The efficiency of the Committee is also greatly due to the active interest taken by its Vice-Chairman, Babu Saroda Kumar Aikat, a member of the local bar. The Municipal Act worked fairly well in the town of Lohardugga, considering that it has been in actual operation there since the commencement of the past year. The Commissioners here, with one or two exceptions, took interest in the affairs of the municipality, but its usefulness is principally due to the exertion of its Chairman, the Revd. Mr. F. Hahn. In Daltongunge, the absence of a Chairman for the greater portion of the year, the want of experience among the Commissioners, and the apathy of the people generally, made the work of the year a trying one, but it is hoped that in time the municipality here will be a useful institution. In Manbhoom the Purulia Municipality was, on the whole, managed well. The Commissioners, with few exceptions, took interest in their duties and, besides the business at meetings, assisted in the execution of work of the different wards. In Jhalda things were not satisfactory. The former Chairman, the Tehsildar of the Jhaldah Ward's Estate, was dismissed for fraud from the service of the Court of Wards and was required to vacate his municipal appointment. When in December last the late Deputy Commissioner visited the town, he found considerable dissatisfaction prevalent at the proceedings of the Vice-Chairman and some other Commissioners. He took steps to set matters right. The Raghunathpur Municipality is settling down to its work. Its fund, however, is scanty, and it has not therefore been able to do much. The Chaibassa Municipality worked fairly well during the past year. Its Chairman, Dr. S. J. Manook, took great interest in its affairs."

54. The Lieutenant-Governor has reproduced these remarks at length, as he considers they afford the best general commentary on the administration of municipalities during the year. It will be seen that the opinion of local officers is upon the whole favourable, although it does not fail to notice defects and probe the weak points of the system. Sir Steuart Bayley in this Resolution also has not hesitated to indicate many important matters in regard to which there is urgent need of improvement. But he has also been at pains to make it clear that the past year has been characterised by much good work and honest devotion to public duty. In several municipalities credit is due to the Chairmen and Vice-Chairmen for their energetic administration under very difficult conditions. The thanks of Government are emphatically accorded to these gentlemen, and also to the district officers and divisional Commissioners to whose kindly and sympathetic co-operation and guidance much of the success attained must justly be attributed. The Lieutenant-Governor desires also to acknowledge the general excellence of the reports received from Commissioners, and especially that submitted by Mr. Toynbee, the Officiating Commissioner of Burdwan.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J S. COTTON,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

The following works are specially noted:—

Public Buildings.—Babu Ram Chunder Gowku contributed Rs. 16,000 for an alms house at Deoghur, and contributions for similar works at Kaziwolichak and Chowliaganj, amounting to Rs. 10,000 and Rs. 8,000, were made respectively by Torul Mull Marwari and Lalla Chand Dilsukraj. A hospital was constructed in the town of Cuttack by Rajah Badyanath Pundit at a cost of Rs. 6,000, and Dr. Kalipodo Gupta, F.R.C.S., spent a further sum of Rs. 1,750 during the year in completing the charitable dispensary at Halishahar in the 24-Pergunnahs. The balance of the total amount of Rs. 45,082 contributed under this head is made up of three donations of Rs. 1,000 each and one below Rs. 500.

Roads.—The contributions, amounting to Rs. 21,610, under this head show a considerable increase when compared with the figures of 1888. Babu Nrisingha Nath Addy contributed Rs. 15,000 for a metalled road from Bandarhati to the Haripal railway station, and Rs. 4,020 were given by Rajah Baikunthanath De Bahadur for a metalled road from Balasore to Nulkool. His Highness the Maharajah of Cooch Behar contributed Rs. 1,050 for repairs to certain roads in the Julpigoree district.

Bridges.—The total contributions amounted to Rs. 13,446. Rajah Joti Prosad Gorga of Maisadal contributed Rs. 7,000 for a masonry bridge on the khal near Gewkhali, and His Highness the Maharajah of Cooch Behar spent Rs. 6,196 on bridges on the Patgram road.

Embankments or Bunds.—Of the sum of Rs. 21,833 contributed, Rs 16,793 were spent by the Durbhunga Raj on 30 bunds in the Bhagulpore district.

Ghâts.—Babu Shib Chundra Chattopadhyaya contributed Rs. 2,000 for a masonry ghât on the river Hooghly at Bellore, and Dr. Kalipodo Gupta, F.R.C.S., spent Rs. 1,000 in completing a masonry ghât at Halishahar in the 24-Pergunnahs. The total expenditure on ghâts amounted to Rs. 4,950.

Tanks.—The number of tanks constructed and re-excavated during the year was very large: the expenditure on these works amounted to Rs. 4,10,684.

The Maharajah of Durbhunga contributed Rs. 8,604 for four tanks in the Mozufferpore district, and Mussomut Rajbunsi Koer contributed Rs. 7,050 and Shaikh Sakhawat Rs. 4,000 for tanks in the same district. Babu Lachmi Narain Singh spent Rs. 5,500 on two tanks. Babus Jadab Chandra Saha and Krishna Behari Rai contributed Rs. 3,000 each; Babu Raghu Das Rs. 2,700; Babu Shib Charan Sahoo and others Rs. 2,538; Babu Kakra Mandal and others Rs. 2,357; Manorath Khawas Rs. 2,200; Babu Lalla Jha Rs. 2,100; Sheik Kanahri Rs. 2,050; Kumar Jogendra Nath Rai, Babu Gobinda Nath Saha Choudhury, Hari Kristo Poddar, Babu Gulab Misser, Tilak Mandar, Babu Ramlal Choudhri and Jahnabi Choudhurani Rs. 2,000 each; Hira Sahoo Rs. 1,951; Jhoomen Mandar and others Rs. 1,905; Jhanti Mandar and others Rs. 1,830; Somman Mandal and others Rs. 1,613; Aghari Mian, Sitai Munder and Ajarject and Totai Mandar Rs. 1,600 each; Jhoomuk Das and others Rs. 1,576; Shyam Mandar and Kasi Mandar Rs. 1,574; Karman Mandal and others Rs. 1,525; Babus Krishna Chandra Chatterjee, Damodar Mandal, Adyait Chandra Pal, Fatoori Missir, Mussomath Lalit Kuar, Dana Thakur, Jairam Shah, Mushai Mahto, Mohunt Shia, Ram Das, Ramdin Das, Bishun Pergash Singh and the wife of Chulahi Teli Rs. 1,500 each; Nathroo Mander and others and Brojo Sundari Debya Rs. 1,400 each; Harihar Pathuk and others Rs. 1,305; Palat Sah, Dharam Chund Shah, Hari Nath Biswas and others and Goolab Mandar Koiri Rs. 1,300 each; Burmi Kamat and Bhorosi Mandal Rs. 1,242; Babus Jadu Nath Parial, Jorip Pramanick, Iswar Chandra Ghosh, Gauri Naik, Bhangi Jha, Gopal Jha, Butun Sahoo, Janordhan Singh, Lal Sahoo Teli, Birbhadra Sarangi and Srimati Sonamoni Kamarni Rs. 1,200 each; Purno Shaha, Jamir Karigar, Hira Nath Mandar and Colonel W. L. Samuells Rs. 1,100 each; and Prosad Missir Rs. 1,033.

Wells.—One hundred and six wells were constructed at a cost of Rs. 32,145. None of the contributions on this account were large.

Miscellaneous.—The sum of Rs. 8,525, contributed under this head, was spent chiefly on the excavation of water channels Srimati Kamini Sundari Dasi and Babu Harimohun Chackraverty spent Rs. 3,500 and Rs. 1,500 respectively on the construction of khals at Jogoti and Gogia in the Nuddea district, and Babu Taralukhya Nath Biswas and others Rs. 1,624 on the re-excavation of the Shreerakole khal in the 24-Pergunnahs.

RESOLUTION.—The Lieutenant-Governor notices with satisfaction that there has been a considerable increase during the year under review, both in the number of works of public utility constructed and the amount contributed for them, and His Honour desires that the thanks of the Government for their public spirit and liberality may be conveyed to those who have supplied the means wherewith the numerous works entered in the statement have been constructed.

Letters of acknowledgment will be forwarded by the Government to those who have constructed works costing over Rs. 500. The rest will receive the usual acknowledgment from the Commissioner or the Magistrate of the Division.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution, and of the statement, be forwarded to the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, and to all Commissioners of Divisions; to the Commissioner of Chota Nagpore and to all Superintending Engineers of Public Works Circles in Bengal for information.

Ordered also that a copy of this Resolution, and of the statement, be forwarded to the Revenue and Judicial Departments of this Government for information.

Ordered also that this Resolution and the statement be published in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

E. J. MARTIN,

Joint-Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the Crops.

Statement showing Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the Crops in the different districts of Bengal, as reported to Government, during the week ending the 22nd November 1890.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL.
	Western Districts.
BURDWAN DIVN. 1	Burdwan Nov. 22, '90	Nil	Weather—bright and cold. Prospects of crops excellent. All agricultural operations in progress to the fullest extent. Price of common rice 16 seers per rupee on an average.
2	Bankoora „ 22, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Nuan dhan is being reaped. Amun dhan is ripening. Rubbi sowings still continue. Sugarcane doing well. Yesterday (21st) at about 1 P M a large swarm of winged locusts alighted at the Sudder station and many miles round it, doing much injury to the young rubbi plants, but, as far as known, none to rice. Report as to extent of damage not yet received. Common rice selling at 20 seers per rupee both at Sudder and Bissenpore.
3	Birbhum „ 22, '90	Nil	Clear and fine weather. Prospects of crops continue to be excellent. Price of rice from 17 to 20 seers per rupee.
4	Midnapur „ 22, '90	Nil	Weather—dry; winds northerly. Rice being cut in some places. In Ghatal rain would improve rubbi crops. Prices of common rice :— Sudder ... ... 16 Tumlook ... ... 16 Ghatal ... ... 16 Contai ... ... 19 (Srs. per rupee.)
5	Hooghly „ 22, '90	Nil	Weather—cold, especially at night. Prospects of all crops good. Harvesting of rice commenced. Prices of common rice :— Sudder ... ... 13 Serampore ... ... 13 Jehanabad .. .. 16¼ (Srs. per rupee.)
	Howrah „ 22, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Amun crop doing well. Prospects good. Price of common rice 14 to 14½ seers per rupee.
	Central Districts.
PRESIDENCY DIVN. 6	24-Pergha. Nov 25, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of amun crop excellent. Ploughing going on for winter crops. On the 18th there was a flight of locusts over the Bussirhat subdivisional head-quarters. The insects passed from north-west to south-east direction and did slight damage to rubbi crops Prices stationary.
7	Nuddea „ 22, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of amun and sowing of winter crops still going on. Prospects of crops good.

* Mean of five days. | † Mean of six days.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the last
The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as percentage, saturated air being presented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The numbers are the numerical means or average of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional station for the period in question during the past stations in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

for the week ending Friday, the 21st of November 1890.

CALCUTTA, the 25th November 1890.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 21st OF NOVEMBER 1890.

FINE weather has continued throughout the week, both in Bengal and over the Bay, with high pressure, and temperature generally below the normal. At the commencement of the week the pressure distribution was about normal with slight gradients from west to east, the usual faint wind circulation and cloudless skies. Though a steady rise of pressure went on from the 15th till the 18th, the general conditions underwent no change, except that the defect in temperature began to disappear in the eastern districts. On the 19th pressure fell very slowly in Behar, while the rise continued elsewhere, and from being westerly, wind directions became first irregular, and afterwards east over the whole of the northern half of the province. With this change temperature rose slowly on the 19th in all districts, and on the 20th at all except the stations in East Bengal and part of North Bengal, where excess was almost general, and ranged up to 3·7° at Rampore Beauleah. North-easterly winds were still blowing on Friday, the last day of the week, in North Bengal, North Behar, and parts of South-West and East Bengal, and temperature was generally rising, but otherwise ordinary weather prevailed. In the south of the Bay, however, conditions were beginning to be unsettled; pressure from being very high was falling, and indraught to a low-pressure area in the extreme south was more distinct.

Pressure, as stated above, has been very high throughout the week, especially in the south of the Bay, and the distribution more uniform than usual. Means for the week are all considerably above the normal, excess varying from a twentieth of an inch in Behar and North Bengal to a tenth in the south of Orissa.

Temperature, as compared with the normal, was lowest in the early part of the week, the lowest minimum readings occurring between the 16th and 18th at all except a few stations in East and North Bengal. The highest maximum temperature, however, was generally recorded on the 15th, the first day of the week. In the table giving temperatures at representative stations it will be seen that mean defect during the day has been less than at night at all except Purneah and Darjeeling, where the mean maximum temperature is below and the mean minimum above the normal. For the large divisions means are below the normal by ·5° or less, except in South-West Bengal and South Behar, where defect is 1·1° and 1·4° respectively, and in North Bengal, where there is excess of ·8°.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

MEMORANDUM.

Weekly review of births and deaths in twenty-seven of the principal towns of Bengal for the week ending with Saturday, the 1st November 1890.

BIRTHS.

THE births registered during the week ending with Saturday, the 1st November 1890, in twenty-seven principal towns of Bengal correspond to an annual rate of 29·1 per 1,000 of the aggregate population of those towns, which is 1,061,574. This rate is 4·2 higher than the average rate of the corresponding week of the past five years, and is also higher than the rate of the corresponding week of any of the past five years with which comparison is instituted—vide the figures below—

	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.	1889.	Weekly average of five years, 1885-89.	1890.

It will be seen that last week the highest birth-rate was returned from Naraingani (66·2) and the lowest from Purneah (3·4). No births were registered during the week in Jessore and Darjiling towns.

DEATHS.

The deaths registered during the week under review correspond to an annual rate of 23·7 per 1,000 of the population. The rate of the week is 7·4 below the average rate of the corresponding week of the past five years, and also below the rate of the corresponding week of any of the past five years except 1887—vide the figures below—

General remarks on the fluctuation of principal staples carried over the East Indian Railway during the month ended 25th October 1890.

INCREASES.

Coal and coke, up and down.—In the upward traffic there was an increase in the weight carried, attended with a decrease in earnings. The former was due to despatches of short distance Umaria coal from viâ Katni to Jubbulpore for the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, and the decrease in earnings to smaller despatches for the Bombay-Baroda and Central India and the North-Western Railways. The downward traffic showed an advance partly for export to coast ports.

Turmeric.—The increase in this commodity occurred chiefly in despatches from Howrah to Patna, Cawnpore and other up-country stations.

Rice (husked and unhusked).—Due to heavier despatches from the loop line stations to stations on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway, where the crop was damaged by heavy rains, and to Howrah.

Other rain and spring crops.—The increase was chiefly in Indian-corn and other cheap food-grains from stations on the "R" district to stations on the "B" district, and the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway.

Government stores.— huefly in despatches of ammunition from Howrah and Bhadreswar ghât to Allahabad and Agra, and in ordnance stores from Allahabad Fort and Cawnpore to Agra, Delhi, and stations on the North-Western Railway.

Iron.—Consisted chiefly of iron pipes from Howrah for the Allahabad and Agra water-works.

Ghee.—The improvement in this staple was chiefly in despatches from stations in the North-Western Provinces to Howrah, owing to a good demand in Calcutta for the Doorga Poojah holidays.

Salt.—Chiefly in despatches of imported salt from Howrah to the Bengal and North-Western Railway and to the Tirhoot State Railway.

Sugar (refined and unrefined).—The increase was chiefly in imported sugar from Howrah to up-country stations.

DECREASES.

Cotton.—The decrease was chiefly in despatches from Cawnpore and other cotton despatching stations in the "D" district owing to last season having been early.

Piece-goods, European.—There was an increase in the weight carried, attended with a decrease in earnings, due to heavy short distance despatches from Howrah to stations on the "A" and "R" districts, owing to a good demand for the Doorga Poojah holidays. Despatches to Cawnpore and Delhi show a serious falling off.

Indigo.—The decrease was in despatches from the North-Western Provinces; the crop suffered much from heavy rains in July and August last.

Jute, raw.—The falling off was chiefly in receipts from the Eastern Bengal State Railway vid Naihati and Sahebgunge.

Gunny.—Chiefly in despatches from Howrah and neighbouring stations, owing to the state of the export produce trade.

Gram and pulses.—The improvement in the weight carried was in short lead traffic from stations on the loop line to Patna and stations above, and the decrease in earnings was in long distance traffic from stations on the "D" district.

Railway materials, foreign.—Chiefly in heavier despatches of permanent-way material sent last year from Howrah for the Delhi-Umballa-Kalka Railway.

Seeds.—Chiefly in mustard and other oil seeds from Patna and the Bengal and North-Western and Tirhoot Railways.

Flashing light on Cape Usu (Otchishi saki.)

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 606 of 1890) that on 15th October 1890 a light would be exhibited from a light-house recently erected on cape Usu (Otchishi saki), east coast of Yezo island:—

Cape Usu light is a flashing white light, showing a flash every thirty seconds, and visible through an arc of 223°, or from the bearing of N. 75° E., through north, to S. 32° W. A sector of red light is shown from the bearing of N. 53° E. to N. 75° E., covering the sunken rocks Konbu se; also from S. 59° W. to S. 65° W., covering the sunken rock Tatsumino. The light is elevated 168 feet above the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 18 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors of the second order.

The light-house, 50 feet high, constructed of iron, and circular in shape, is painted white and black in horizontal bands.

Approximate position on Admiralty Charts, lat. 43° 10′ N., long. 145° 31′ E.

NOTE.—The sunken rocks, Konbu se, above mentioned, extend about 3 miles in an E. by N. and W. by S. direction; the eastern rock lies with cape Usu bearing N. E. by E. ½ E., distant about 3 miles.

TORRES STRAIT, PRINCE OF WALES CHANNEL.

Beresford shoals—possibly less depth than charted.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 580 of 1890) that from the report of a Court of Inquiry, held at Thursday island, into the loss of the British ship Volga, drawing 21½ feet, on 6th August 1890—there appear some grounds for supposing that that ship may have struck on the Beresford shoals, at the eastern approach to Prince of Wales channel, Torres strait, afterwards foundering near the western extreme of North-west reef:—

The position of the Volga when she struck was very doubtful, but the great difficulty of sounding closely in the locality, in consequence of the strong tides and winds, renders it very possible that there may be a patch of less water on Beresford shoals than was found during the survey in 1881.

Position of sunken wreck of Volga, lat. 10° 31′ 10″ S., long. 142° 9′ 5″ E.

HIGH COURT NOTICES.

CIRCULAR ORDER ISSUED BY THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT FORT WILLIAM IN BENGAL.

CIVIL.

No. 11*A., dated the* 30*th August* 1890.

AFTER Rule 5, Clause (d), Chapter I, at page 7 of the General Rules and Circular Orders (Civil), insert the following :—

5*A*. [Chapter XIX, Civil Procedure Code. Execution of decrees.—C. O. No. 11*A. of* 30*th August* 1890].—The High Court has much reason to believe that the Civil Courts not infrequently "strike of" cases relating to the execution of decrees more for the sake of causing the disappearance of a particular case from periodical returns of pending cases than as a proper order putting an end to an application for execution. It has also been found that such cases are not infrequently restored to the files without any special reason, except as an acknowledgment that the former order was merely formal. Such a practice cannot but be regarded as an attempt to misrepresent the state of business before a Court, and will subject any officer to punishment. The Judges are aware that, from pressure of business in the trial of original suits, Subordinate Judicial Officers are in great difficulty in keeping their execution files under proper control, but the High Court must insist upon greater regularity in dealing with cases of execution for which one day in every week should be specially reserved.

Proceedings connected with the execution of a decree should be dealt with under the same procedure as original suits, and cannot be put an end to or revived save under the procedure expressly laid down by law.

The following are the conditions of sale :—

1.—The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2.—The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3.—The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M.; but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or, if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4.—Each lot shall contain five chests.

5.—A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M. in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.
And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional, to the extent of Rs. 400.

6.—The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7.—The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M. if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8.—No tender of money, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the fifth day following the day of sale will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9.—The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10.—Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots, or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests originally required to be included in each certificate or order.

12.—The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or Government Securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13.—With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14.—The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15.—In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16.—The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue:—No. 1, certificate of the opium advertised for sale; No. 2, report of the examination of such opium.

17.—The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazeepore Factory for the year 1889-90, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at the Patna and Ghazeepore Factories and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue.

18.—Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

C. E. BUCKLAND,
For Offg. Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM, the 27th November 1890.

No. 1796B.

NOTICE is hereby given that the First Sale of Opium, the Provision of 1888-89, will be held at the Government Opium Sale-room, No. 2, Bankshall-street, on Monday the 5th January 1891, at 11 A.M., and will comprise 4,750 chests, viz.—

Hooghly Collectorate, the 6th November 1890. MAHOMED ISRAIL, For Collector.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below, to the undermentioned estate, situate in the district of Moorshedabad, will be put up to sale at the Berhampore Collectorate on the 12th day of January 1891, corresponding with the 29th day of Pous 1297 B. S.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale :—

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1*st.*—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price, which will be fixed by the Collector at the time of sale. The purchaser of this estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, subject to the revenue fixed in perpetuity.

2*nd.*—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings, and by the laws in force, and purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3*rd.*—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount to be paid down at once.

4*th.*—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale—

License for Catching Elephants in the Hill Tracts of Chittagong.

UNDER sanction of Government, the Commissioner of Chittagong is authorized to receive tenders for the catching of elephants in the above Hill Tracts during the cold-weather of 1890-91 and up to the end of April 1891.

2. The tenders should state what number of kunkies and men the tenderer proposes to employ, and under whose management the khedda will be.

3. Government reserves the right of choosing one elephant out of every three caught; Government taking the first choice, the lessee the second and third, Government the fourth, and so on. The Superintendent of Kheddas, or any officer nominated by him, will represent Government, and the tenderer should state where he will collect the elephants for inspection.

4. Elephants may be captured under the license either by khedda or mela shikar, but in no other way.

5. The right will not extend eastward beyond the present boundary of the Hill Tracts, or include the reserved forests, but will include the right to catch any elephants which have come down from the hills into the Regulation District.

6. Elephants are very numerous, and have done much damage, and intending tenderers will be supplied with all information regarding the places where most damage has been done on application to the Commissioner of Chittagong or the Deputy Commissioner, Hill Tracts.

7. The Commissioner reserves the entire right to choose the tender which seems likely to secure the capture of the largest number of elephants, and to demand such security as may appear necessary.

8. Tenders may be submitted up to and including the 8th December to the Commissioner of Chittagong.

D. R. LYALL, Commissioner.
Chittagong, the 18th November 1890.

Notification

IT is hereby notified for general information that Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal Deo, late proprietor of the entire pergunnah of Ambicanagore, in the district of Bankoora, has, by an ejarah lease executed in 1884, conveyed for 31 years whatever rights and interests he had in the minerals and metals of the entire pergunnah of Ambicanagore in the district of Bankoora, excepting a few villages which he has kept in his kash possession, to the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom in the district of Singbhoom.

As the entire estate of the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom, including pergunnah Ambicanagore, is now managed by the Revenue authorities of the Chota Nagpore Division under the provisions of the Chota Nagpore Encumbered Estates' Act, the Manager of the Dhalbhoom Estate alone, acting under the orders of the Commissioner of the Chota Nagpore Division, has the power of giving a lease of the minerals and metals of the pergunnah.

The lease recently executed by Rajah Sir Sourendra Mohan Tagore, KT., C.I.E., as purchaser of the proprietary rights of the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal, in favour of Mr. Palmer of Calcutta of the mineral rights in the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore is null and void, inasmuch as the said Rajah Sir Sourendra Mohan Tagore has purchased the proprietary rights of the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal in the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore long after the execution of the ejarah lease in favour of the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom. Instructions have accordingly been issued on the Manager of the Dhalbhoom Estate to take the necessary steps to oppose by all constitutional means any attempt that may be made by the aforesaid Mr R. G. Palmer to take possession of the minerals of the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore, or to begin mining operations within it. The Dhalbhoom Estate not only holds the aforesaid pergunnah of Ambicanagore by virtue of the ejarah lease referred to above, but also under a deed of mortgage executed by the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhabal, simultaneously with the ejarah lease.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

BY DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first three volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses, both chemical and industrial; trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributions have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and G in 534 pages. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in six volumes by 1891; but a seventh volume may also be issued consisting of an index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary; and this as a work of reference, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India Rs. 30 and in England 2 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set. An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings respectively will be charged extra for the whole sets.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England, exclusive of packing and postage.

The Indian Law Reports

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1889 the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

OFFER OF RANI MANOMOHINI DEBI OF PUTIYA, IN RAJSHAHYE, TO CONSTRUCT WELLS TO IMPROVE THE SUPPLY OF WATER FOR DRINKING AND BATHING PURPOSES IN THE DISTRICT.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

Calcutta, the 29th November, 1890.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

A memorandum from the Commissioner of Rajshahye, No. 135P.W., dated the 27th August, 1890; also No. 94P.W.Ct., dated the 7th November, 1890.

RANI MANOMOHINI DEBI of Putiya, in the district of Rajshahye, having offered to construct a number of wells, at an estimated expenditure of Rs. 10,000 to Rs. 12,000 per annum for four or five years, with a view to improving the supply of water for drinking and bathing purposes throughout the district, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to accept this offer, and tenders his thanks to the Rani for her public spirit and liberality.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to the Commissioner of Rajshahye for information and for communication to the Rani.

Ordered also that a copy of this Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

RESOLUTION REVIEWING THE REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF DISTRICT BOARDS DURING THE YEAR 1889-90.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

Calcutta, the 25th November, 1890.

READ—

The reports from the several Commissioners of Divisions on the working of District Boards during the year 1889-90.

Read again—

The Resolution on the working of District Boards in Bengal during the year 1888-89.

The present reports, which are prepared in accordance with the instructions issued in Government Circular No. 21, dated the 1st November 1889, furnish full information on the working of District Boards during the past year, and under separate orders copies have been liberally supplied to those whom they concern. They are a great improvement on the reports submitted in previous years, and in particular the report of Mr. Toynbee, the Officiating Commissioner of Burdwan, deserves commendation. The statistics which accompany them are given in forms recently prescribed by the Government of India, which were only circulated in July last, and it is largely due to the late arrival of these forms, and the difficulty of substituting them in so short a time for those already in use, that delay has occurred in the submission of the reports.

Constitution of Boards.

2. Form I appended to this Resolution contains particulars regarding the constitution of the District and Local Boards in Bengal, the number of meetings held by the Boards, and the average attendance at meetings. There were during the year 38 District Boards and 106 Local Boards; the area comprised within their jurisdiction was 109,391 square miles, and the total population, according to the census of 1881, was 57,185,307.

3. The total number of members of District Boards, including the Chairmen, was 797, of whom 460 were appointed by Government and 337 were elected. Of the total number of members, 243 were officials and 584 non-officials. The number of Europeans or Eurasians and natives of India respectively was 186 and 611. The average number of members of each District Board was 20·97. It was suggested, in paragraph 7 of the Resolution on the working of District Boards for 1888-89, that the number of members of the District Boards of Bhagulpore, Midnapore, Rungpore, and Sarun might be reduced, and the number of members of the Bhagulpore and Midnapore District Boards now consists of 30 and 24, while a proposal to reduce the number of members of the Rungpore District Board to 26 is under consideration. As in the previous year, the Magistrate of the District was in every instance re-appointed Chairman of the District Board on the expiry of his term of office, under section 24 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act.

4. The total number of members of Local Boards was 1,203, of whom 768 were nominated by Government and 435 were elected. The elective system is in force in 58 Local Boards. Of the total number of members of Local Boards, 163 were officials and 1,040 non-officials. The number of Europeans or Eurasians and natives of India on the Boards was 97 and 1,106 respectively. The average number of members of each Local Board was 11·35. Midnapore (36) and Arrah (30) head the list in point of numbers, but it has been decided to reduce the numerical strength of these Boards on the expiry of the term of office of the existing incumbents.

5. The statements do not in all cases furnish the professional occupation of the members of Boards. This is, however, a very important point, and instructions will separately issue calling for information under this head in future years as well for District and Local Boards as for Municipal Committees. It was found, on occasion of the first elections in 1887, that the proportion of zemindars elected to the District Boards was about 30 per cent., of pleaders 26·4 per cent., and of Government servants 17·7 per cent., and it is not likely that the proportion has materially changed. Generally speaking the members of District and Local Boards consist of zemindars and talookdars, pleaders and Government servants, with a somewhat larger proportion of medical practitioners and mooktears in the case of Local Boards, and in districts where they are to be found, indigo and tea planters, railway employés and managers of European firms always enjoy a fair share of representation.

General elections.

6. The year under report witnessed the second general election of members of District and Local Boards which had completed their three years' term of existence, and the elections were on the whole successfully conducted. The following are the remarks recorded by the Divisional Commissioners on the subject.

The Commissioner of Burdwan writes:—

"The second general elections took place during the year under report and new Boards were formed before its close in every district except Midnapore, where the number of members was reduced and the issue of the necessary revised Government notifications took up much time. The elections were, as a rule, successfully conducted, and, with a very few exceptions, fairly suitable and representative members were elected. The pleader element was, perhaps, considering the amount of landed property they possess, disproportionately successful. The educated classes took considerable interest in the elections, but in no case was any general public interest or enthusiasm evoked.

"The elections only failed in one thannah of Burdwan, three of Hooghly, and in one of Beerbhoom. The failures were due in one case to the absence of voters, and in the three others to the absence of timely nominations * * * * *

"The inhabitants of thannahs remote from the head-quarters of districts appear to take more interest in the election of representatives than the urban and semi-urban population."

The Commissioner of the Presidency Division writes:—

"The second general elections took place during the year under report, and new Local Boards were formed in every district before the close of the year. The new District Boards, however, were not constituted till after the close of the year. The elections were on the whole successfully conducted, and, with a few exceptions, fairly suitable and representative members were elected.

"In Jessore and Khulna there was no failure of election in any of the thannahs. In the 24-Pergunnahs there were no elections held in thannah Canning (Sudder) or Harwa (Bussirhat), and out of two and four members for election in thannahs Hasnabad and Dum-Dum respectively, only one was elected for each thannah. In Nuddea the elections failed in thannah Chapra in the Sudder, as 10 per cent. of the registered voters were not present, and in thannahs Gangni and Tehatta in the Meherpore sub-division, as the electors failed to nominate candidates under Rules 28 and 29. In Moorshedabad there were no elections in thannahs Sujagunge, Gorabazar, Doulatabad, Nowada, and Barna in the Sudder sub-division, Sagardighi, Assanpore, Manullabazar, and Shahnagur in the Lalbag sub-division, and Kandi and Khurgram in the Kandi sub-division, in consequence of the omission of the electors to nominate candidates beforehand under Rule 29 All these vacancies were therefore filled up by appointment under section 10 of the Local Self-Government Act."

The Commissioner of Rajshahye states:—

"A general election of members for the Local Boards took place in Rajshahye in December and in Pubna in September last.

"The Magistrate of Rajshahye, who was present at thannahs Puttea, Charghat, Beauleah, and Godagari, states that at each of these places the voters displayed the greatest interest in the proceedings. A Deputy Magistrate was present at Bagmara, and he reports that the voters were animated by the greatest enthusiasm in securing the election of their candidates. The Sub-divisional Officer of Nowgong and the Sub-Deputy Collector of that place, who were present at the thannahs of Nowgong Local Board, state that the voters elected the members with shouts of acclamation and manifestation of the greatest delight.

"The Chairman of the Pubna District Board writes that the dates for the elections having fallen at a season when the flood was at its highest (and the floods of the year were higher than any within recent years), the attendance of the voters was not so large as it would have otherwise been.

"On the whole it appears that a very fair amount of interest was taken in the elections."

The Commissioner of Dacca remarks—

"The second general election of the members of the several Local Boards in the districts of Dacca and Furreedpore was held in the latter part of September 1889.

"It is satisfactory to note that in no case did the elections fail owing to the non-attendance of a sufficient number of voters. In Dacca it is reported that the electors generally displayed considerable interest in the proceedings, and that in several thannahs the excitement was great and the elections were warmly contested. In Furreedpore the paucity of attendance at the polling stations, specially in those of Bhanga, Baliakandi, Palong, and Kotalipara, is attributed to the unusually heavy floods of last year which prevented many voters from attending."

The Commissioner of Patna writes—

"The Patna District Board completed its three years' term in September 1889; and although arrangements for its reconstitution were commenced early, the new Board, which consists of 24 members, composed of the official and non-official Europeans and Natives in the same proportion as its predecessor, did not assemble till 10th March. The Local Board elections which were held in the Patna District were fairly successful. Out of 28, the total number of members to be elected, 23 were elected, leaving only 5 to be appointed by Government."

Meetings of Boards.

7. Taken together, the total number of meetings held by District Boards was 448, giving an average of 11·79 meetings for each Board. The greatest number of meetings was held in Dinagepore (18), Tipperah (18), Sarun (18), Burdwan (17), Gya (17), Furreedpore (16), and Durbhunga (16), while the least number was held in Hooghly (8), Mymensingh (8), Mozufferpore (8), Chumparun (8), Nuddea (7), Moorshedabad (7), Julpigoree (7), and Jessore (6). Except in the case of Hooghly and Mymensingh, no reason is assigned for the small number of meetings. In regard to Hooghly it is said that, "on the introduction of local self-government three years ago, the members had to meet oftener to consider many important questions of principle which presented themselves for solution, but that matters have since settled into a groove and that fewer meetings had therefore to be called during the year under report than during the two preceding years." In Mymensingh it is stated that "the attention of the Chairman and the other members was devoted more to the execution of the heavy amount of real work done during the year than to taking part in the discussions in the meetings." The Lieutenant-Governor cannot accept either of these reasons as satisfactory, and invites attention to the following remarks recorded by the Commissioner of Burdwan, which are entirely in accordance with the views of Government on this subject:—

"It is difficult to believe that all the business of the various departments now under the control of the District and Local Boards can be transacted in less than 12 meetings during the year. Much of the routine work is no doubt done by the Chairman and Vice-Chairman by the express or implied consent of the Boards; much, too, depends on the individuality of these two officers. But, all things considered, one meeting every month ought to be the minimum number consistently with an intelligent interest in their work on the part of the members. There is, I fear, considerable general truth in the remark made by the Chairman of the Raneegunge Local Board to the effect that, unless matters come before the Board in which the members are directly and personally interested, it is hopeless to expect them to attend regularly. A self-denying public spirit is one of the elements requisite to make local self-government a success in this country."

8. The average attendance at meetings of District Boards was 8·98, the average percentage of attendance being 42·82. The attendance was best in Howrah and Tipperah, amounting to 65 and 62·7 respectively, and worst in Cuttack, where it was only 19·8. In the last-named district six meetings were adjourned for want of a quorum out of 12 convened.

9. The total number of meetings held by all the Local Boards was 788, the average for each being 7·43. Only 8 of the Local Boards held more than 12 meetings, the highest number attained being 15 in Bhubooah. Six of the Boards held 12 meetings, and the rest less than 12 meetings. The Howrah Local Board held only two meetings, while the Local Boards of Beauleah, Nowgong, and Nattore met only once during the year. For all practical purposes, therefore, these Boards did not exist. The average attendance at meetings of Local Boards was 5·69, and the average percentage of attendance was 50·13.

Powers of Local Boards.

10. In most districts Local Boards have been entrusted with the administration of the grants for village roads, pounds, ferries, and primary education. In some instances powers relating to water-supply, the grant of rewards for the destruction of noxious animals, and the management and supervision of grant-in-aid and Boards' middle English schools have also been delegated to them.

11. No Union Committees have yet been appointed, but a scheme for their gradual establishment has been submitted to the Government of India, and is still under consideration.

Union Committees.

12. The following statement, which is abstracted from Forms II and III appended to this Resolution, shows the principal items of income and expenditure of District Boards during the year under review :—

The names of the above headings are taken from the forms prescribed by the Government of India which are appended to this Resolution, with the exception that the words "Pounds" and "Ferries" are substituted for "Police" and "Civil Works" under Income, and the word "Pounds" for "Police" on the Expenditure side of the accounts. These changes have been made because it should be clearly understood that the Police have no concern with, and have no responsibility for, the administration of pounds, which are entirely under District Boards; while the heading "Civil Works" would be misleading when the item concerned almost exclusively relates to ferry receipts. It should be explained also that though the name of the heading "Provincial Rates" has not been altered, the income shown under this head is derived from a "local rate" or cess which is entirely appropriated and spent within the district where it is realised, and that the Road cess is not a provincial rate in the sense in which the Public Works Cess, which is a provincial asset, may be properly so described.

13. The year 1888-89 closed with a credit balance of Rs. 18,28,843 (corrected figures): at the close of the year 1889-90 this balance was increased to Rs. 19,30,006.

Credit balances.

14. Of the total income under this head Rs. 9,305 represent canal tolls realized in Chittagong and the balance sale proceeds of trees, grass, &c. Compared with the previous year, the Chittagong canal revenue shows a falling off to the extent of Rs. 2,213.

Income.

Land Revenue.

15. The entire amount, Rs. 34,32,574, under this head represents the balance of the receipts of the District Road Cess which is credited to District Boards after deducting the cost of collection and revaluation. Compared with the previous year, there was an increase of Rs. 78,704 in the income derived from this source, and this item may be expected to increase slowly but surely in consequence of the revaluations which from time to time are effected in all districts. The largest increase during the past year was in Burdwan and Gya, from Rs. 1,02,826 and Rs. 1,76,014 in 1888-89 to Rs. 1,36,865 and Rs. 1,97,198 respectively.

Provincial rates.

16. The total receipts from pounds under the Cattle Trespass Act, amounting to Rs. 3,94,594 only, show a net decrease of Rs. 37,321 as compared with the collections of 1888-89, and a decrease of Rs. 25,559 as compared with the estimate (Rs. 4,20,153) on which the Provincial adjustments with District Boards were based. The decrease is, however, more apparent than real, and is mainly due to a change in the system of accounts. Under recent orders of Government, the security advances, amounting to one quarter's demand, taken from the pound farmers at the time of settlement in March 1890, were credited to the suspense head of accounts, "Deposits," pending adjustment by transfer from "Deposits" to "Pound rents," whereas in previous years such advances were directly credited to "Pound rents."

It is useless therefore to institute any comparison between the realizations during the past and previous years. The estimate for the current year amounts to Rs. 4,42,441, and there seems no reason to suppose that there is any real falling off in pound receipts In reply to the observation which was made in last year's Resolution that "if Boards are careful to see that security advances are properly taken, and farmers are not permitted to hold on when default occurs, there should be no arrears," it is pointed out by more than one District Board that some farmers, after retaining their pounds during the profitable months of the year, purposely default when the season is over, and that as they have made their profit they are willing to forfeit their security, and that therefore great difficulty is found in settling the pounds for the remainder of the year. This is no doubt a real difficulty, but a remedy appears to lie in the suggestion which is put forward by the Commissioner of the Presidency Division that the payment of pound rents should be fixed not in equal instalments, but according to the different seasons at which crops are liable to damage from cattle trespass. There is a difficulty also in arranging for the proper inspection of pounds. The practice of placing them under the inspection of Educational officers has been definitely forbidden by Government as tending to interfere with the proper inspection of schools. It is observed that in the Shahabad district the District Board have, with the sanction of the Magistrate, introduced a system of inspection of pounds by the Sub-Inspectors of Police. This is no doubt an important duty of the police, who are bound, under the rules in force, to inspect pounds, to see that food and water are properly supplied, to check the accounts and especially to use their utmost endeavours to prevent the dangers of extortion and fraudulent pounding of cattle. But this function is exercised by the police under the orders of the District Superintendent and Magistrate. The police are entirely independent of, and do not act under the authority of, local bodies. What is needed in the interest of District Boards is the systematic inspection of pounds by some responsible officer on their own behalf. It has lately been observed by the Lieutenant-Governor in this connection that such an inspection ought easily to be arranged without additional expense, and that it should result in an expansion of revenue, "for by an examination of the counterfoils, the inspecting officer could readily ascertain from what distance cattle are usually brought to the pounds, and consequently what room there is for the establishment of new pounds, and he could probably also form a shrewd guess whether the rent realized for the pound was a fair one or not." The management of pounds, in regard to which local bodies have now been vested with ample powers, is a good test of the efficiency of the executive administration of District Boards, and it is therefore specially commended by the Lieutenant-Governor to their attention.

Education.

17. The receipts under Education declined from Rs. 33,996 in 1888-89 to Rs. 30,561 in the year under review. The falling off was chiefly in the districts of Chittagong and Monghyr. In Chittagong the figures show a refund of Rs. 230 on account of excess credits in the preceding year. Taking each item of the receipts separately, there was an increase of Rs. 1,610 in "School fees" and of Rs. 327 in "Contributions," and a decrease of Rs. 5,204 under the head of "Miscellaneous."

Medical.

18. The total income under this head fell from Rs. 10,875 in 1888-89 to Rs. 7,625 in 1889-90.

Ferries.

19. Of the several items which constitute the income under "Civil works," ferry receipts, amounting to Rs. 2,84,164, alone call for notice. Compared with the previous year, there was a falling off of Rs. 1,29,706, but the decrease, like that in the case of pounds, is more fictitious than real. In Nuddea there is a nominal decrease from Rs. 10,834 to Rs. 2,460 in consequence of several ferries having been transferred from the Boards' management to Government. In Bogra there is a decrease from Rs. 9,370 to Rs. 1,410, due principally to the erroneous credit in the previous year of the receipts from Government ferries. A similar reason explains the decrease in Chittagong from Rs. 22,069 to Rs. 10,551, in Patna from Rs. 21,347 to Rs. 14,154, and in Maldah from Rs. 26,121 to Rs. 963. In Shahabad the receipts decreased from Rs. 15,319 to Rs. 3,929; but as Rs. 19,994 were refunded to Government on account of erroneous credit, a loss of Rs. 16,065 is shown under this head, and is due to a great extent to a change in the system in accounts under which advances which were formerly credited direct are now kept under the head of "Deposits." The amount refunded to Government should properly have been shown under the head of "Refunds." In Mozufferpore there is a decrease of Rs. 6,905 as compared with the preceding year, and also a decrease of Rs. 3,802 as compared with the budget estimate. The first-named decrease is due to the rent for the year 1887-88 originally collected by the Magistrate being transferred to the District Fund in 1888-89, which thus unduly swelled the receipts for that year. The falling off from the estimates is attributed to the "bad state of the ferries made over to the District Board and to short collection of rent owing to the falling off of the grain traffic consequent on the failure of the rice crop in the district during the year 1888-89." The marked decrease in Sarun from Rs. 27,721 to Rs. 4,966 is due to adjustment of accounts. There was a large increase in ferry receipts for the previous year, 1888-89, owing to the orders transferring the ferry receipts not having been communicated until after the close of the year 1887-88. The figures therefore showed the receipts of two years in one. In addition to this, the earnest-money for 1889-90 was included in that year's receipts. Of the districts which show an increase, it is necessary only to explain that the considerable increase in Julpigoree, amounting to Rs. 6,884, is due to the fact that all the ferries in this district have now been transferred by Government to the District Board.

Generally speaking, the Lieutenant-Governor considers that the management of ferries by District Boards has not been unsatisfactory. It is impossible to contend against adverse circumstances such as occurred in Bhagulpore, for instance, where the ferry receipts have fallen off, "owing to the extension of the Tirhoot State Railway much of the traffic to and from North Bhagulpore, formerly carried by the district ferries, being now conveyed across the Ganges by the railway steamers." But in all districts where the approaches to the ferries are kept in good order, and the boats employed in the conveyance of passengers and goods are well looked after, it may be expected that facilities for travelling will be improved, and a gradual increase in income be obtained. When grants were made to District Boards to establish equilibrium between receipts and charges, ferry receipts, amounting to Rs. 2,96,076 per annum, were made over by Government to the Boards; and although no proper comparison can be instituted between this amount and the actuals receipts of the past year, there seems no reason to doubt that there has upon the whole been a perceptible improvement in income. The estimate of local officers for the current year amounts to Rs. 3,55,000.

Contributions.

20. The total amount contributed from Provincial funds to District Boards during the year was Rs. 10,98,148, or Rs. 4,37,799 in excess of the previous year, a result which is chiefly due to late adjustments, the Government grants in many cases for two years, and in some instances for three years, having been drawn by the Boards in the year under report. Special orders have lately been passed to avoid the recurrence of such confusion, and the Accountant-General has been instructed to take action on his own authority to place the fixed annual grants at the disposal of each District Board at the beginning of the financial year. The fixed annual grant made by Government to establish equilibrium between the receipts and charges transferred to the management of District Boards, including charges for stationery and forms, but excluding all other special grants, amounts to Rs. 4,14,915. In addition to this a contract grant was made to District Boards, amounting in the past year to Rs. 2,22,924, for the maintenance of Provincial roads, which, under section 74 of the Act, have been transferred to their charge, and grants of Rs. 1,36,728 and Rs. 37,108 respectively were made to the District Boards of Durbhunga and Mozufferpore for expenditure on relief works.

Debt.

21. The entire amount under this head represents "Deposits and advances." Deposits are sums paid by farmers of pounds and ferries as security for payment of revenue, while advances are sums advanced by the Boards for the execution of works, which are recovered by adjustment of accounts as the works proceed. In some instances security deposits have been taken from contractors for public works the estimated cost of which was less than Rs. 2,000. Compared with the previous year, there was an increase of Rs. 3,80,539 under both Deposits and Advances. This is chiefly due to the security deposits taken from the farmers of pounds and ferries being credited under this head for the year under report, whereas they were in the previous year credited as pound and ferry collections.

Administration.

22. The cost of general administration has increased from Rs. 2,46,732 in 1888-89 to Rs. 2,58,533 in the year under report. Various reasons have been assigned for the increase, but the chief causes appear to be the transfer of the charges on account of the travelling allowance of members of District Boards from "Miscellaneous" to "Administration" and the increase in the percentage cost of audit and treasury establishments. Considerable sums were also expended during the year in the purchase of furniture for offices of District Boards.

Pensions of Local Fund employés.

23. With the sanction of the Government of India, rules have been laid down declaring the general principles regulating the grant of pensions to employés under local bodies. District Boards are required to pay contribution to pension in case of all pensionable Government officers transferred to their service, and liability for payment of these pensions will then be borne by Government. Special rules have been made applicable to cess establishments entertained by Collectors and sanctioned by the Board of Revenue. It is left for the Boards to make rules which must be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 35 of the Act for employés whose whole service has been under them, and draft model rules have been circulated by Government for the convenience and guidance of Boards in such cases. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to learn that the promulgation of these rules, which have been long under consideration, has been gratefully acknowledged by the employés on Boards' establishments.

Pounds.

24. The charges on account of cattle-pounds show an increase of Rs. 4,906, which is attributed to the change in the system of accounts, the pay of pound clerks being now charged to "Police" or "Pounds" instead of to "Administration" as in previous years.

Education.

25. Compared with the figures of the previous year, the total expenditure under "Education" shows a decrease of Rs. 26,669. Of the total amount expended, Rs. 1,93,847 represent the cost of inspection, Rs. 2,130. Rs. 72,470, and Rs. 4,06,214 the expenditure on training and special schools, middle schools, and primary schools, respectively, Rs. 2,69,117 the amount of grants-in-aid, Rs. 704 scholarships, and Rs. 59,658 miscellaneous charges. The reports furnished by the Commissioners do not all contain the same information. It is impossible, therefore, to show the statistics regarding schools and scholars in a tabular form. The Lieutenant-Governor, however, notices with satisfaction that the number of primary schools and the expenditure generally on primary education increased during the year. In some districts, notably Midnapore, Howrah, the 24-Pergunnahs, and Moorshedabad, there was a falling off owing to scarcity and floods, but this was more than counterbalanced by the increase in other districts. The number of middle schools slightly declined owing in a great measure to the withdrawal of the grants which had been improperly made in some cases from the allotment for primary education.

26. The Lieutenant-Governor considers it desirable to reproduce in this Resolution the remarks he has already recorded on the educational administration of District Boards when reviewing the annual report of the Director of Public Instruction for the year as follows:—

District Boards as controlling agencies.

The educational functions delegated to the District Boards constituted under Act III (B.C.) of 1885 include the management of Government primary and middle schools, the distribution of the grant-in-aid allotment for middle schools under private management, the administration of the primary grant, the conduct of the annual examinations of primary schools for rewards, and the award of lower primary scholarships. The Boards are also authorized to establish and maintain, with the sanction of Government, schools of technical instruction, and some have already taken up this question with interest and energy. The Technical Institute, for example, established by the District Board of Rungpore, has attained considerable success. With the object of defining more clearly the functions of the Boards and their relations to the officers of the Department, revised educational rules under the Act were under consideration and public criticism during 1889-80, and finally promulgated by Government on the 18th April last. Experience has already shown the new rules to be greatly superior to the old. They give somewhat larger powers to the District Boards than they had previously enjoyed, while any departure from the existing system, in regard to the administration of funds or the control of schools, is made conditional on the sanction of Government. The power of the Inspector and his position as a controlling officer are more clearly defined. In accordance with the views of Government, Deputy Inspectors of Schools have in nearly every district been appointed ex-officio members, not only of the District Boards, but also of the Education Committees to which these bodies have generally delegated their ordinary executive duties. The advantages of this plan are already apparent, co-operation and efficiency having often taken the place of friction and mismanagement. The Lieutenant-Governor has again the pleasure of observing that the relations between the Boards and the Deputy Inspectors in the majority of districts are eminently satisfactory. Government must look to the good offices of the authorities in the Burdwan and Orissa Divisions, in which differences have arisen, to put things straight as soon as possible. On the other hand, there are indications that in some places the education work of the District Boards has been allowed to lapse too much into the hands of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman in his executive capacity. While the Lieutenant-Governor allows that there is some force in the excuse that it is ordinarily not easy to arouse any enthusiasm for educational work, except on such occasions as present opportunities for the exercise of patronage, he desires that the District Boards, through their Education Committees, may be fully consulted in all matters of principle and importance, and that their functions may not be over-ridden by the executive officers. The Director has, in a very proper spirit, as a friendly critic, drawn attention to some shortcomings in the work of certain District Boards. It is through no fault on their part that their educational operations have in some cases been hampered for want of funds, the income from ferries and pounds not having kept pace with their educational requirements. But they must be held responsible for such matters as great delay in the despatch of business, especially in disposing of reward bills and in making up examination results, irregularities in the method of accounting for public money, misapplication of the primary grant, or failure to spend fully the allotments for primary education. These are matters which the District Boards are quite capable of correcting for themselves. It is not a matter for surprise that their control and management of middle schools of various classes is less efficient than when the work was performed by high officers of the Education Department. Sir Alfred Croft rightly observes that this decline in efficiency is part of the necessary price paid for Local Self-Government. The policy of entrusting District Boards with certain educational work, in which the Department has given them its steady support, has been deliberately adopted for reasons which have often been stated, and improvement can only be obtained by perseverance. The transfer of large educational powers to Local, as distinguished from District, Boards appears to have been prematurely attempted in some places.

Special schools.

27. The following information regarding special schools is furnished. In Hooghly there are 56 Sanskrit toles with 268 students. In Bankoora mention is made of six advanced Arabic or Persian schools with 102 and of 33 Sanskrit toles with 331 pupils. In Rungpore the Bayley Technical School is maintained by the District Board. In Backergunge it is in contemplation to start a technical school for teaching carpentry, &c., at the head-quarters of the district. The Board have also voted two scholarships of Rs. 10 each, tenable in the Seebpore Engineering College. In Mymensing, one of the zemindars is said to have offered Rs. 10,000 for opening a technical school in addition to an annual contribution to be made for its maintenance by the District Board, and the matter is under consideration. The Tipperah Board has founded two scholarships of Rs. 15 each, tenable at the technical branch of the Seebpore Engineering College, and these have been awarded to two natives of the district now pursuing their studies in that college on their contracting to serve under the District Board after the completion of their college career. The Chairman further reports that an attempt is being made to establish an artizan school in Comillah under the auspices of the District Board. The Noakholly Board have offered a scholarship of Rs. 10 at the same college, tenable for five years, but apparently no applications have been made for it. It is satisfactory to see from these reports that District Boards have begun to recognise the desirability of encouraging technical education.

Female Medical Education.

28. The question of providing means for the encouragement of female medical education continued to receive the attention of District Boards. The medical scholarship of Rs. 10 a month offered by the Midnapore District Board was awarded to Sarat Kumari Mittra, a female student of the Campbell Medical School at Calcutta, and she has drawn the stipend since April 1889. The Superintendent of the School speaks favourably of the progress made by her. In Burdwan a sum of Rs. 20 per mensem was set apart for a similar scholarship, and in Bankoora the Board sanctioned the award of a scholarship of Rs. 8 to any female candidate of that district who would be willing to prosecute her studies in any medical school or college, but it appears that no one came forward to take advantage of these offers. The District Board of the 24-Pergunnahs have sanctioned the grant of scholarships of Rs. 5 each a month for two years to two female students of the Campbell Medical School—Srimati Kiron Sasi Mukherjea and Srimati Susila Debi—with effect from the 1st February 1890. Funds were provided by almost all the District Boards in the Rajshahye Division, but no advantage was taken of the opportunities offered. In Rungpore only a scholarship of Rs. 15 per month has been awarded to one Srimati Kailas Bashini Dasi, a student of the Calcutta Female Medical School, who has agreed to practise in the district when qualified. The only district in the Dacca Division where stipends or scholarships were sanctioned by the District Board is Backergunge, where two girls of Brahmo parentage were awarded scholarships of Rs. 10 a month each, tenable in the Campbell Medical School. The District Board, Mymensingh, has, with a view to encourage female medical education, created five appointments of trained nurses under the five Local Boards with a monthly salary or retaining fee of Rs. 25 each. Both Chittagong and Tipperah report that attempts were made to get female students to go to Calcutta for medical education, but no one would come forward. The offer made by the Tipperah Board was for two scholarships of Rs. 15 each, tenable at the Sealdah Campbell Medical School. The Chairman of Tipperah reports that subscriptions are being collected to form an endowment for the establishment of a lady doctor in Comillah, and it is hoped, if this is successful, that it will induce female students to qualify for service in this special branch. In Gya a system of stipends and scholarships for a supply of female native doctors and of trained nurses has been organized during the year, consisting of a midwife, four paid female apprentices, and one mehterani. The monthly expenditure on account of pay of this staff amounts to Rs. 49. The total amount of expenditure incurred during the year, including pay, contingencies, and cost of furniture, &c., was Rs. 1,514-1-9. For the encouragement of female medical candidates who attend the Cuttack Medical School the Cuttack District Board has contributed Rs. 100, to be paid as scholarship to the most deserving female student.

The Lieutenant-Governor has perused this record of the measures adopted by District Boards with much satisfaction, and although the results are not as encouraging as might have been expected, he trusts that the Boards will continue to persevere in this good work, and that the time will come when the fullest advantage will be taken of the opportunities offered to female medical students.

Medical.

29. The total medical expenditure amounts to Rs. 42,546, and shows an increase of Rs. 16,771 compared with the previous year. The outlay on hospitals and dispensaries amounts to Rs. 30,430, and on sanitation to Rs. 8,756 only.

The following statement shows the number of dispensaries maintained by the District Boards and the expenditure incurred during the year:—

District Boards.	Names of dispensaries.	Cost of maintenance.	Remarks.
		Rs.
Burdwan ...	Mankar ...	472	Government gave a grant of Rs. 150 as half the pay of the Civil Hospital Assistant in charge. The Board also realised Rs. 206 as private subscriptions.
Hooghly ...	Bundipore ...	390	For nine months only. The Board severed its connection with the dispensary on 1st January 1890.

Besides the above expenditure, many of the District Boards contributed towards the support of medical institutions which were not under their direct management, and in some instances money was spent in affording medical relief during epidemics. The Burdwan District Board paid Rs. 600 to the support of the municipal dispensary in the town of Burdwan and the Bankoora Board Rs. 1,000 for the maintenance of the dispensary at Bankoora. The Beerbhoom District Board expended Rs. 1,471 in maintaining the Soory Charitable Dispensary for the first ten months, and half the net cost for the remaining two months of the year. This Board also contributed Rs. 360 to the Rampur Hât Dispensary. The Midnapore District Board gave a total sum of Rs. 942 in aid of nine dispensaries in that district. The Nuddea District Board gave Rs. 100 in aid of the Krishnaghur Charitable Dispensary. The District Board of Rungpore gave a quarterly subsidy of Rs. 75 to each of the three dispensaries of Kurigram, Gaibanda, and Nelphamari in that district. The District Board of Pubna gave a contribution of Rs. 250 towards increasing the accommodation of the Serajgunge charitable dispensary. In Dacca the District Board made a grant of Rs. 60 to the dispensary at Manickgunge. In Backergunge a sum of Rs. 1,200 was paid to the Barisal Municipality for the maintenance of the charitable dispensary. In Mymensingh the payment of Rs. 60 per annum to the Nasirabad Municipality was continued during the year. The Tipperah District Board contributed Rs. 150 and Rs. 600 respectively to the Hajigunge and Comillah Dispensaries. The Chittagong Board has arranged to engage a lady doctor, in connection with the Chittagong Municipal Hospital, to attend all female patients free of charge. The Shahabad District Board gave Rs. 275 towards the support of the Nasirgunge Dispensary. The District Boards of Patna, Shahabad, and Sarun spent Rs. 4,723 on sanitation and medical relief. A monthly contribution of Rs. 130 and Rs. 50 was paid by the Monghyr District Board to the dispensaries situated at the head-quarters of the district and the sub-division of Begusarai. The Maldah District Board paid a subscription of Rs. 75 a month to a class IIIB dispensary opened in February last at Mathurapur by Mr. G. Hennessy.

Sanitation.

30. Form IV appended to this Resolution contains particulars regarding sanitary works undertaken by District Boards during the year it is stated that in Jessore Rs. 10,000, in Burdwan Rs. 5,000, in the 24-Pergunnahs Rs. 2,000, and in Khulna Rs. 2,000 were allotted for the supply of pure drinking water, but that nothing was spent. The Chairman of the 24-Pergunnahs District Board observes :—

"The question of water-supply is involved in difficulty. The want of good water is felt all over the country, and applications for the excavation or re-excavation of tanks are made to the District Board from time to time, but the Board find it difficult to comply with such applications. The selection of a few solitary villages for such improvement would appear invidious and might excite discontent in parts of the district which were not selected. Moreover, if a tank were cleared or re-excavated, it would seldom be possible to secure its preservation or to guard it effectively from all external impurities. A provision of Rs. 2,000 was made in the budget for the last three years, but the amount was not expended, as no scheme of water-supply could be devised which would admit of being carried out with such a small grant."

The explanation given in other districts is of a similar character. The total expenditure incurred under this head in the whole of Bengal was only Rs. 8,756 on account of sanitary arrangements at fairs, and in some places in the excavation of wells and tanks. The result is no doubt of a very unsatisfactory character; but as was pointed out in last year's Resolution without the appointment of local agencies specially entrusted with matters relating to village sanitation and empowered to raise the necessary funds, very little improvement can be expected in this direction. A special report in which this question has been fully discussed has been submitted to the Government of India, and the whole question is now under the consideration of that Government.

Miscellaneous.

31. The expenditure under this head is necessarily of a fluctuating character. An additional charge incurred during the year was the cost on account of the general elections. In some districts this charge has been shown under "Administration," whereas it should have come under "Miscellaneous." The necessary transfers should be made when the accounts are audited and adjusted. The expenditure on account of staging bungalows and serais increased from Rs. 12,840 in 1888-89 to Rs. 14,615 in the year under report. There was also an increase of Rs. 116 in the amount of rewards granted for the destruction of wild animals. The district in which the largest amount of rewards was granted was Rungpore, where, it is said, the District Board paid Rs. 484 for the destruction of 15 tigers, 50 leopards, and 12 cubs.

Famine relief.

32. The total expenditure shown under the head of famine relief amounts to Rs. 2,59,785, the greater part of which was incurred in the districts of Durbhunga (Rs. 1,69,065) and Mozufferpore (Rs. 74,289). The whole outlay was on public works.

With a view to the equitable adjustment of the contribution to be made by Government and the District Boards respectively towards the famine relief expenditure in the affected areas of the Patna Division, it was decided in August 1889 to divide the expenditure into three classes, viz.—

Class I.—Ordinary district works which the District Boards would in any ordinary year have carried out in the affected area, and for which therefore they made no claim on Government for reimbursement.

Class II.—District works undertaken by the Boards as measures of relief, and to be paid for by them.

Class III.—Other relief works, whether carried out by the District Boards or by Government, the cost of which the Districts Boards were unable to bear, and gratuitous relief.

This division recognised distinctly the principle which has been laid down, that the duty of providing relief in the way of work must fall in the first place on local funds before provincial funds can be applied, and that Government should come to the assistance of District Boards only when the expenditure is heavier than they can reasonably be expected to bear consistently with their duties in the non-affected areas the maintenance and repairs of the ordinary district communications and the pay of the permanent establishments.

Under section 99 of the Local Self-Government Act III (B.C.) of 1885, District Boards are empowered to incur expenditure on measures for the relief of famine within such financial limits as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of the Division concerned, and the Bengal Famine Code provides that in districts to which this section of the Act has been extended, relief operations should be governed by rules to be issued under section 138. The provisions of section 99 of the Act have now been extended to all the District Boards of the Province, and rules under section 138 have been prepared and issued for their guidance.

Civil works.

33. The expenditure under the head of "Civil works in charge of Public Works officers" increased by Rs. 2,66,678. It must be explained that the expression Public Works officer does not mean an officer in the Public Works Department of Government, and that the whole of the Civil works referred to were undertaken by Engineers in the employment of District Boards. The expression is used in the prescribed form of accounts in order to show separately the expenditure on Public Works proper from that incurred on account of ferry establishments, contingencies and refunds, which are considered to be in charge of Civil officers, and amounted in the past year to Rs. 1,10,162. The following statement compares the Public Works expenditure for the past three years:—

Year.	Original works.	Repairs.	Establishment.	Tools and plant.	Water-supply and water-works.	Drainage works.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1887-88	10,72,715	16,04,900	5,20,594	30,225	4,634	.....	32,32,968
1888-89	11,15,614	17,88,953	5,27,598	27,115	6,261	.....	34,65,541
1889-90	11,71,942	19,43,732	5,57,345	32,893	20,960	5,347	37,32,219

Out of a total outlay of Rs. 37,32,219, no less than Rs. 2,22,924 was defrayed from grants paid to the District Boards from Provincial Revenues as a contract allowance for the maintenance of provincial roads, the charge of which has by arrangement been transferred from the Public Works Department of Government to local bodies. The remainder, or Rs. 35,09,295, represents the expenditure incurred from road cess funds. This amount during the past year was exceptionally large, as a considerable outlay was debited in several districts to Civil works which might more properly have been charged against Famine Relief. A sum of Rs. 10,785 in the Bhagulpore district, of Rs. 6,445 in the 24-Pergunnahs' and of Rs. 2,000 in Purneah appears to have been so debited. But the line which separates these heads of account is too slight to render it necessary to order any adjustment. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets that the information furnished is insufficient to enable a comparative statement to be prepared showing the length of roads maintained by District Boards, metalled and unmetalled, and their cost per mile. Separate orders will issue on this point, prescribing a form of statement for adoption in future years.

In the districts marginally noted a considerable expenditure was incurred on original works. The most important of these was the construction of the new Tangail road from Phulbariah to Kalihati, 26 miles in length, on which the District Board of Mymensingh spent no less than Rs. 63,000. As a rule the expenditure on original works is largest in the Patna Division and smallest in the Presidency, where the most striking feature of the figures is the small proportion of funds spent on original works compared with that spent on maintenance and establishment. Repairs were of the usual character, and do not call for remarks. The Provincial roads transferred to the management of District Boards were on the whole maintained in good condition.

Village roads.

34. The total amount expended by District Boards (except Mozufferpore, for which no figures have been furnished) on the construction and repair of village roads during the year was Rs. 3,68,952. In the case of Burdwan it is explained that the whole of the grant remained unexpended because money had been misspent in past years, and it was therefore thought advisable to defer spending any money on village roads until a system of proper management and supervision could be devised. This explanation cannot, however, be accepted as satisfactory. The views of the Lieutenant-Governor on this subject were fully expressed in last year's Resolution. District Engineers have recently been authorised by an amended rule to look after the working of the road establishments employed under Local Boards; and although it is true that under a lax system the expenditure on village roads by Local Boards is liable to abuse, there ought to be no difficulty in checking any misuse of the funds allotted for this purpose if the roads are properly scheduled and subjected to professional scrutiny.

Railway feeders.

35. The railway feeder from Haripal to Bhanderbatti, a distance of about six miles in the district of Hooghly, was under construction during the year, and will, it is expected, be soon thrown open to traffic. Another feeder, about two miles in length, from the Grand Trunk Road to the railway station at Galsee, in the Burdwan district, was sanctioned, but owing to delay in land acquisition the work was not commenced.

In Nuddea a small feeder from the Majergram railway station to Majergram village was constructed during the year.

The important feeder road from Gaibanda in the Rungpore district to Hilli station, Northern Bengal State Railway, in the Dinagepore district, was improved by the District Boards of Dinagepore, Bogra, and Rungpore.

In Dacca a railway feeder road connecting the Sripore station with Goshinga, an important market on the Lakhye river, was continued, the outlay amounting to Rs. 2,488. Rajah Rajendra Narain Rai Bahadur, of Bhowal, has given free of cost as much of his land as is required for the road.

The Monghyr District Board undertook during the last year the metalling of the following railway feeder roads:—

(1) Dhararah to Laheta Road, which forms a feeder of the East Indian Railway Station at Dhararah.

(2) Beguserai to Garrah Road, which forms a feeder to the Tirhoot State Railway.

(3) A portion of the Patna Road between Indupore and Burhea Railway Station, which will be a continuation of the Burhea feeder road.

In the district of Bhagulpore an important railway feeder was constructed to join the Rughoopur Station on the Tirhoot State Railway with Simrahi and Panchpararia near the Nepal frontier. The road from Madhepura to Rughoopur is being bridged, and this will bring the sub-divisional head-quarters within 25 miles of the Rughoopur Station.

Tramways.

37. Several proposals for the construction of tramways came under the consideration of District Boards during the year, but no work was actually undertaken. The Howrah-Ampta and Howrah-Shoeakballa schemes which are intended to facilitate communication between the districts of Howrah and Hooghly, are now under consideration in the Public Works Department. The Dooars Tramway line, for which the Julpigoree District Board has guaranteed Rs. 4,000 annually until the scheme returns 6 per cent. profit, has been undertaken by Messrs. Octavius Steel and Company. Negotiations were opened by the District Board of Patna with certain engineering firms for the construction of a steam tramway on the line of road between Bukhtearpore and Behar. The construction of steam tramways on the Gaya-Nowada Road in the Gaya district and on the Ganges and Darjeeling Road between Purneah and Kissengunge are also under consideration.

Water communications.

39. In many districts expenditure is incurred in the maintenance of water communications as well as roads; but the small items on which money was spent are not of sufficient importance to enumerate in detail.

Steam river service.

38. The following particulars are recorded regarding the services of steam river communications which were either subsidised or undertaken by District Boards during the year.

The steamer service between Rampore Beauleah and Damukdea has been made a daily one, and the Rajshahye District Board increased the subsidy from Rs. 2,400 to Rs. 4,800 per year. A daily steamer service between Pubna and Kushtea was again established from the middle of June, the Pubna District Board paying a subsidy of Rs. 5,200 per year towards its maintenance. The steam ferry between Naraingunge and Munshigunge was taken over from the Traffic Department of the Eastern Bengal State Railway and managed by the District Board. The ferry was worked at a loss of Rs. 1,284, but it was of great benefit to the public. In Backergunge the daily steamer service between Barisal and Khulna was continued, and was of great advantage to the district throughout the year. The Board paid the usual subsidy of Rs. 500 per mensem, minus certain deductions for late arrivals.

The District Board of Noakholly pays a monthly subsidy of Rs. 200 for a bi-weekly steam service with Barrisal. The Tipperah Board has secured the establishment of a daily steamer service between Gouripura and Naraingunge viâ Satnal, a station on the Goalundo-Naraingunge line. During three months of the year the want of water prevents the steamer proceeding further than Dandkundi, 32 miles by road from Comillah, but two boats are engaged at a monthly cost of Rs. 30 to run between Elliotgunge, 21 miles from Comillah, and the steamer station. A similar boat arrangement has been made at the same cost between Muradnagar and the steamer station. The Board pay a monthly subsidy of Rs. 200 to Messrs. Kilburn and Company for the steam service, and receive Rs. 100 from the Postal Department for the carriage of mails between Daudkandy and Satnal. The Board also subsidised a steam service at Rs. 225 a month between Chandpore and Chandipore, but the company which undertook the work closed it after a short trial, apparently finding it unprofitable.

The Chairman of the Maldah District Board writes:—

"Early in July through communication by water was established with Rajmehal, and a steamer ran to and fro on alternate days, the distance viâ the Kalindri being about 60 miles. This service was furnished by Baboo Nilmoney Chowdhuri. Later on in August the ferry steamer Jack, which had been put on the ferry at Rajmehal by the farmer, Baboo Seo Sahai Singh, was allowed to continue the crossing to Inaitpore and Sadullapore viâ the Bhagirathi, as the whole country was under water. Sadullapore is about five miles west of English Bazar, and the steamer ran in and out in one day. To Nilmoney Chowdhuri a subsidy of Rs. 400 a month was paid, but no payment was made to the ferry farmer for the trip to Sadullapore. The steamer between English Bazar and Rampore Beauleah made three trips in the week from August 1889 to March 1890, and also received a subsidy of Rs. 400 a month from 1st October 1889. At first Nilmoney Chowdhuri tried to run this line, but his steamers were too small, and ran so irregularly that no subsidy was granted. In October the India General Steam Navigation Company sent up a splendid steamer, called the Pirih, which ran till the river subsided in November. The service, however, was kept up till March by a smaller vessel, and a subsidy of Rs. 400 a month was granted. Since June this year a fine steamer, called the Trout, has been plying regularly on alternate days. She is timed on Saturdays to catch the mail boat from Beauleah to Sara, thus enabling Maldah passengers to reach Calcutta next morning."

The Lieutenant-Governor has no doubt that the expenditure incurred by District Boards in establishing or subsidising a river steam service is most judicious and has greatly improved communications.

Establishments.

39. The average percentage of cost of establishment on the total outlay on public works during the year was 16·4. The highest percentage was in Chittagong and the lowest in Mymensingh, the figures being 28·4 and 9·1 respectively.

The establishments are reported to have worked satisfactorily during the year.

Loans.

40. No loans were contracted during the year under report, but the Lieutenant-Governor has agreed to grant a loan of two lakhs to the District Board of Dinagepore and Rs. 25,000 to the Julpigoree Board for the construction of bridges on district roads, and since the close of the year has signified his intention to sanction a loan of Rs. 80,000 to the Patna District Board to complete the construction of bridges on the roads from Buktearpore to Behar and from Mosourhi to Tabhera. The restriction referred to in last year's resolution, regarding the class of works for which Boards are empowered to borrow from the Local Government, has now been removed by the Government of India, and the Lieutenant-Governor hopes that District Boards will not hesitate to apply to Government for loans on account of well-considered schemes for the permanent improvement of the communications and general sanitary condition of their districts.

General Remarks.

41. The following are the observations recorded by the Commissioners in their reports on the working of District and Local Boards during the year.

Mr. Toynbee, the Officiating Commissioner of Burdwan writes:—

"On the whole, I am of opinion that both the District and Local Boards have done good work during the year. Now that complete sets of rules have been framed, and the routine work has begun to settle down into a grove, I think that the next step to be taken is to gradually withdraw the appointment of official Chairman. I would not at first allow the members of District Boards to elect their own Chairman, but they might nominate them, and the District Magistrates in forwarding the nomination might report fully on the business and other qualifications of the nominees. The experiment might for the present be tried in Hooghly and Burdwan. If successful, it should be afterwards extended to other districts in this division. In making this recommendation, I do so on the assumption that the principles of local self-government have been finally accepted as the policy of the future, and that every possible step to that end is to be taken which is consistent with caution and a due regard for the interests of the general public."

Mr. Smith, the Commissioner of the Presidency Division, states:—

"The District Boards have, on the whole, worked smoothly and successfully during the year. The members generally have evinced much interest in the proceedings. The average attendance has been generally a little under half, and has in no case been quite half the number. The average is bad in Jessore, where it was but 30·64 per cent. The largest number of meetings was 13 in the 24-Pergunnahs, and the smallest, 6 in Jessore. In considering these points, however, the great distances from which many of the members have to come must not be overlooked, and I do not think the result is on the whole unsatisfactory, though I should be glad to see improvement, especially in Jessore."

Mr. Lowis, the Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division, says:—

"The District Boards on the whole have worked well, but depend a good deal on the official Chairmen. This is less the case in Pubna, where both District and Local Boards show rather more independence."

Mr. Power, the Officiating Commissioner of the Dacca Division, gives the opinion of Mr. Hare, the Chairman of the Dacca District Board, that "the Act has worked without difficulty;" and quotes the remarks of Mr. Savage, the Chairman of the Backergunge District Board, as follows:—

"The several Boards in the district have done good work, and the members have taken a great deal of interest in the transaction of business brought before them. The Local Boards have been able to open out village roads without having to acquire any land for the purpose, and the intercommunications have been much improved. There has been harmony among the members of the Board, and on the whole I am able to report that Local Self-Government tends to be a success in this district."

Mr. Power briefly records his own opinion in the following words:—

"On the whole the year was one of fair progress."

Mr. Lyall, the Commissioner of Chittagong, makes the following report:—

"The Inspector of Local Works detected the second clerk of the Chittagong Board in malpractices in connection with contracts, but the majority of the Board refused to punish him or take any notice of his conduct. In fact the majority made a personal in place of a public matter of it. Such cases must, I fear, occur at times, and there is no remedy. The more prompt settlement of advances requires attention in this district. The money has been properly spent, but the members who supervise the works are slow in rendering accounts.

"In Noakholly the accounts require attention. They were found very carelessly kept at time of audit. The Chairman ascribes the errors to change of staff. Good work was, however, done in the district. The present Chairman has fully grasped the wants of the district, and considerable improvement may be effected next year.

"The Tipperah Board have taken great interest in their work, and are devoting their attention to improvements in a sanitary direction, and to the provision of increased medical aid in outlying parts.

"The Board have reduced their expenditure on middle schools, but this is a point on which all District Boards require watching, else money which should be spent on roads and communications will be spent on education.

Mr. Kemble, Officiating Commissioner of Patna, writes:—

"All the district officers have expressed an opinion that the members of the District Boards have worked satisfactorily on the whole and in harmony with the executive. Much interest is said to have been manifested by all the members of the Boards in all the districts except Chumparun, in respect to which Mr. Blyth writes:—

"'The general working of the District Board during the year may be regarded as satisfactory, but all the members did not take that amount of interest which might be expected, and the submission of the monthly accounts was often delayed in consequence of their not being regularly audited by the Finance Committee for the want of the attendance of a sufficient number of members to form a quorum.'

"All the District Boards have Standing Committees for the disposal of business. In Patna, Mozufferpore, and Durbhanga especially the members of these Committees are said to have rendered great help to the Boards in auditing accounts, supervising the plans and estimates of the District Engineer, looking after schools, and generally in disposing of the matters laid before them.

"The Local Boards as a rule are said to take but little interest in their work. From Shahabad Mr. Bernard reports that these bodies fail to do full justice to the matters transferred and to the funds allotted to them, some of them leaving large sums unexpended under some heads, especially Sanitation.

"In the Patna district it is reported that the Sudder Local Board showed the greatest amount of activity, and its efforts were in all directions uniformly successful. The other Local Boards did not work well.

"The Local Boards in Mozufferpore held a very few meetings, and the Mozufferpore Local Board is particularly mentioned as being in a distinctly inefficient condition.

"In Durbhanga it is reported that the Somastipur Local Board is energetic, but the Durbhanga and Madhubani Local Boards are much less so.

"I am glad to note that the Magistrate and Collectors bear testimony to the good work done by their Boards. The good work is, however, more of a consultative than an executive nature. In every district one or two men, Native or European, take an interest in one or more special subjects, but few (if any) have time or inclination to look into the working of the Board as a whole, or to control its finances and to enquire into its general efficiency. The consequence is that, as the Chairman is overworked, too much is left to the Secretary. The accounts, especially those of the Local Boards as shown by the reports of the Examiner, are ill-kept and inadequately supervised."

Mr. Quinn, the Officiating Commissioner of Bhagulpore, states:—

"Having only joined the Division in the middle of March, I have but little personal knowledge of the working of the several local bodies during the past year; but it may be gathered from the general tenor of the district reports and statements that the District and Local Boards have on the whole discharged the duties entrusted to them in a satisfactory manner, and that fair progress has been made in the execution of the works under their control. In the Purneah district there was for some time considerable friction between the native members of the District Board and the Engineer, but these differences have been arranged, and here, as in the other districts of the division, harmony generally prevails. There is still of course ample scope for improvement, and among other defects a tendency has been noticed to leave too much of the business of the district body to standing committees, whose conclusions and recommendations are sometimes adopted without due consideration. There is also a disposition in some cases to increase the expenditure on establishments to an unnecessary extent. An instance of this occurred during the past year, when a District Board persisted in raising the pay of some members of their own office establishment and that of the District Engineer on the recommendation of the Finance Committee, though the increase was held to be quite unnecessary by the Commissioner and Inspector of Works, and as regards the District Engineer's establishment was not recommended by that officer himself. In the case in question, I have informed the Board that the total cost of these establishments is already high, and that no increase of the aggregate charges on account of them will be sanctioned in future years in the absence of very convincing reasons. I trust that this declaration may check the further enhancement of individual salaries.

"The Boards have bestowed considerable attention on education, and there has been a general increase in the number both of schools and scholars, including primary schools, of which the Boards are, I think, entitled to share the credit. The relations between the Boards and the Education Department have also been harmonious; but the Inspector complains of delay in the transaction of business, and specially in passing bills, which he attributes to the delegation of executive work of this kind that can be properly performed by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman to Education and Finance Committees which only meet at intervals. There appears to be need of reform in this respect, in effecting which I have expressed my willingness to give any aid in my power."

Mr. Worsley, the Commissioner of Orissa, says:—

"The Local Self-Government Act has been in operation for a comparatively short time, and the system has not had time to develop fully in all departments. Generally speaking, the administration has been satisfactory. In Cuttack, many of the members of the Boards did not take much interest in their work, and the Magistrate and Chairman of the District Board regrets that the work is carried on more as that of a special department of the Magistrate and Collector than as an independent institution as it should be. The Chairman of the Pooree District Board complains that he finds it very difficult to get the monthly accounts audited by the Financial Sub-Committee. This district shows the best results under the heads of "Roads" and "Education." In spite of the prevalence of cholera in the early part of the year, there has been an increase in the number of primary schools and scholars, while the amount expended on village roads shows a marked increase over the allotment of the preceding year. In Balasore the administration was generally successful. The following are the remarks of the Chairman under this head:—

"The general working of all the Boards has been on the whole satisfactory. There has been little or no inclination to faction or obstruction. Private members, perhaps, come less to the fore than at first, but, as a counterpoise to this, they seem more ready to subordinate their own crotchets to the public good. I am not equally satisfied with the system under which all the roads, pounds, and elementary education were devolved on the Local Boards. This is probably the best course as regards outlying sub-divisions, but in the Sudder it results in a great want of local supervision by those with whom the responsibility nominally rests. Neither the Chairman of the Sudder Local Board nor the Vice-Chairman can ever find time to visit places lying more than a few miles from head-quarters. Roads certainly, and probably pounds and schools, would have been better looked after if the District Board had been less lavish in parting with its authority."

42. The Lieutenant-Governor's opinion of the working of District Boards in Bengal was fully stated in last year's Resolution, and the events of the past year merely confirm the views then expressed. Their dilatoriness in dealing with accounts and bills is remarked on by several officers, and another blemish noticeable is the occasional tendency of certain Boards towards factious criticism of, and opposition to, professional authority. The Commissioner of Burdwan writes:—"The Inspector of Local Works is always willing to help and advise the District Boards, and his action in this respect is, I think, appreciated by them all except Burdwan, which seems to resent all interference as an unnecessary and covert attack upon their independence." The Fureedpore District Board is said to have given way to a spirit of "ungenerous criticism against the Engineer, an excellent officer, who ought to have been encouraged rather than thwarted." In the Purneah Board there was extreme friction at one time between the members and their District Engineer, and the interposition of Government was necessary before healthy relations could be restored. Such cases must be characterised as blots. If the members of a District Board cannot always agree with their responsible executive advisers, they should at least be willing to credit them with a single-minded desire to advance the condition of the district. But generally speaking Sir Steuart Bayley can say that the record of the year has been a very favourable one. Good work has again been done and all departments show a satisfactory expansion of administration. When many have done so well, it is perhaps invidious to mention names; but the Lieutenant-Governor observes with pleasure the high commendation bestowed on Rai Nolinaksha Bose of Burdwan, Baboo Lolit Mohun Singh of Hooghly, Baboo Brojo Gopal Bagchi of Rajshahye, and Mr. Syed Sharafudeen of Patna, who are all non-official Vice-Chairmen of their District Boards. The Lieutenant-Governor acknowledges also the valuable service rendered by district officers in their capacity as Chairmen of the Boards. It is no small tribute to the ability of these officers as a body that they should have given effect to the policy of Local Self-Government in these Provinces so efficiently and at the same time with so little friction.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J. S. COTTON,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

2. The Committee appointed by the Government in January 1888 to consider the revised scale of tolls and fees which should be levied after the Bridge debt had been paid off, estimated that the annual income of the Bridge, after the abolition of the local tolls and the exemption of rice, grain, pulses, seeds and salt from the payment of the terminal charge, would amount to Rs. 1,57,597. The result of the year, which was the first complete year in which the abolition of the local tolls and the terminal charge on the staples of traffic mentioned had effect, shows that the actual receipts exceeded the estimate of the Committee by Rs. 11,229.

3. The net revenue of the year under review amounted to Rs. 27,055, making with the net revenue of previous years a total net revenue of Rs. 34,27,558.

The following statement shows how this amount has been appropriated:—

	To end of 1888-89.	In 1889-90.	Total
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Total ...	.....	.....	34,27,558

4. The Bridge was kept in good order during the year, and the sum of Rs. 48,246 was set aside for expenditure when necessary hereafter in renewing the pontoons.

5. During the year the Commissioners were in communication with the Corporation of Calcutta on the subject of the loan of Rs. 2,00,000 from the Bridge reserve fund to be applied towards meeting the interest on the capital expended on the new Central Road leading from the Bridge to Sealdah. The money had, however, not been paid to the Corporation when the year closed.

6. The Bridge was opened for the passage of vessels on 138 occasions, including 34 special Sunday openings. The following statement shows the number and description of vessels which passed through the opening:—

	1889-90.	1888-89.	1887-88.	1886-87.	1885-86.	1884-85.	1883-84.	1882-83.

Total ...	1,833	1,741	1,679	1,596	1,949	1,755	1,621	1,557

7. No sea-going vessels collided with the Bridge in passing through the opening, but there were 115 collisions of other vessels, as compared with 91 and 63 during the previous two years. The increase is attributed to the exceptionally strong freshets and eddies of the year under review. Of the 106 cargo and passenger boats which collided with the Bridge, 14 were sunk. One life was lost—that of a man who jumped overboard as his boat was about to collide with the Bridge.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Bridge Commissioners for information.

Ordered also that this Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h, and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

* Mean of six days.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the last
The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed at percentage, saturated air being presented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The numbers are the numerical means or average of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional station for the period in question during the past stations in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

for the week ending Friday, the 28th of November 1890.

CALCUTTA, the 2nd December 1890.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 28TH OF NOVEMBER 1890.

THE meteorological conditions during the past week have been typical of north-east monsoon weather. The changes which have taken place from day to day have been in all cases small, and of the usual oscillatory nature which characterises fine settled weather. Barometric pressure has been high and above the normal throughout the week. Temperature, which was at first rather high, has fallen almost steadily during the whole week. Humidity has been also moderate. The sky has been practically cloudless at almost all the inland stations, though it has been slightly clouded at the head of the Bay, and there has been an entire absence of rainfall at all stations.

Pressure was at the commencement of the week above the normal over the whole reporting area, the excess usually amounting to from nine to twelve-hundredths of an inch. On the 23rd a distinct rise, varying usually from two to three-hundredths of an inch, took place. This was succeeded on the 24th by a fall of about equal amount, and the fall continued on the 25th, when it equalled about a fortieth of an inch. Pressure still continued to fall for the following two days, and the decrease on the 26th amounted to about two-hundredths of an inch, while on the 27th it was rather less than this; but still the general pressure was about two to five-hundredths of an inch above the normal. On the 28th the fall of pressure had ceased, and a distinct rise commenced, but this only averaged about two or three-hundredths of an inch. It will thus be seen that pressure has been above the normal throughout the week, and the mean pressure has been from six to ten-hundredths of an inch in excess, the excess being usually largest in the south-western districts.

Temperature at the commencement of the week was above the normal over the whole province except at a few stations in South-West and East Bengal On the 23rd there had been a very distinct fall in all districts except at a few of the western stations in Behar, Chutia Nagpur, and South-West Bengal. A further general fall took place on the 24th, the decrease in the mean temperature at many stations equalling about one and-a-half degrees; so that on this day temperature was more nearly normal, though there was still an excess at the western stations in Behar, and a defect at some of the stations in North Bengal. A further fall of temperature was registered on the 25th, and the whole province on this day showed a defect from the normal. Again on the 26th a general fall of from half to one degree was reported, and temperature became about two to three degrees lower than usual over a large part of the province, though again a slight excess had appeared in Behar. On the 27th a further fall, averaging about half a degree, was recorded, and on the 28th the variations were very small, and at some stations there was a slight increase and at others a decrease of temperature. The general defect of temperature on the 28th was, however, not large, and usually ranged from about one to two degrees.

For the whole week the mean temperature has been below the normal in Orissa and East Bengal by about a degree and-a-half, and in South-West and North Bengal by from half to one degree. In the districts of Behar and Chutia Nagpur, on the other hand, temperature has been in excess of the normal by about one degree.

The distribution of temperature during the week and its variation from the normal are, however, best seen in the table below, where the average maximum, minimum and mean temperatures for the week at nine typical stations in different districts of the province are compared with their normal values for the same period From this table it will be seen that the minimum or night temperatures show greater variation from the normal than the day or maximum temperatures do :—

MEMORANDUM.

Monthly review of deaths registered in forty-five districts of Bengal for the month of September 1890.

THE deaths registered in forty-five districts of Bengal during the month of September 1890 were 146,205, and correspond to an annual rate of 26·52 per 1,000 of the aggregate population of those districts, which is 65,859,534. This rate is 3·48 higher than the mean rate of the corresponding months of the past five years 1885—89, and is also higher than the rate of the corresponding period of any of the past five years with which comparison is instituted, vide the figures below—

	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.	1889.	Monthly average of five years, 1885—89.	1890.
Ratio of deaths per 1,000 of the population per annum	26·40	21·60	20·28	22·08	24·60	23·04	26·52

The following table shows the highest proportions of deaths registered during the month of September 1890, compared with the corresponding month of 1889 :—

Districts.	Ratio per mille during— Sept. 1890.	Sept. 1889.	Districts.	Ratio per mille during— Sept. 1890.	Sept. 1889.

Darjiling	34·44	35·52	Bhagulpore	30·00	31·80
Jessore	33·96	21·60	Sarun	29·76	26·04

The figures for September 1890 against Gya, Khulna, Jessore, Hazaribagh, Rajshahye, Julpaiguri, Mozufferpore, Pubna, and Sarun show an advance towards accuracy in death registration.

The total mortality during the month under review from the several registered death-causes is compared in the following table with the mortality from those causes in the corresponding month of 1889 and the average of the five years 1885—89 :—

	Ratio per mille during— Sept. 1890.	Sept. 1889.	Monthly average of five years, 1885—89.
Cholera	·84	1·32	1·56
Small-pox	·06	·10	·03

Bowel-complaints	·60	·84	·84
Injury	·72	·72	·60
Other causes	3·81	3·84	3·24

Compared with the figures of both the past periods, there is a noticeable increase in the mortality of September 1890 under the head fever, and a sensible decrease in the death-rate from cholera.

The highest annual death-rates from cholera and fever occurred in the following districts :—

Cholera.	Ratio per mille.	Fever.	Ratio per mille.

OFFICE OF SANITARY COMMISSIONER FOR BENGAL,

The 27th November 1890.

W. H. GREGG, Dip. Publ. Health, Camb.,

Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal.

MEMORANDUM.

Weekly review of births and deaths in twenty-seven of the principal towns of Bengal for the week ending with Saturday, the 8th November 1890.

Births.

The births registered during the week ending with Saturday, the 8th November 1890, in twenty-seven principal towns of Bengal correspond to an annual rate of 28·9 per 1,000 of the aggregate population of those towns, which is 1,061,574. This rate is 3·3 higher than the average rate of the corresponding week of the past five years, and is also higher than the rate of the corresponding week of any of the past five years with which comparison is instituted—vide the figures below—

	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.	1889.	Weekly average of five years, 1885–89.	1890.
Ratio of births per 1,000 of the population per annum	27·6	23·5	22·4	27·7	20·9	25·6	28·9

The births registered in each of the last four weeks in each of the twenty-seven principal towns correspond to the following rates per 1,000 of the population :—

OFFICE OF SANITARY COMMISSIONER FOR BENGAL,
The 29th November 1890.

W. H. GREGG, Dip. Publ. Health, Camb.,
Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal.

MEMORANDUM.

Weekly review of births and deaths in twenty-seven of the principal towns of Bengal for the week ending with Saturday, the 15th November 1890.

Births.

The births registered during the week ending with Saturday, the 15th November 1890, in twenty-seven principal towns of Bengal correspond to an annual rate of 24·2 per 1,000 of the aggregate population of those towns, which is 1,061,574. This rate is 3·2 below the average rate of the corresponding week of the past five years, and is also below the rate of the corresponding week of any of the past five years with which comparison is instituted—vide the figures below—

	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.	1889.	Weekly average of five years, 1885—89.	1890.

REVISED WATER-RATE RULES FOR THE SONE CANALS.

Notification No. 435, dated the 9th December 1890.

IN exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 99 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor proposes to make the following revised rules for the Sone Canals, in supersession of those passed in Notification No. 148 of the 20th June 1881, which were published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd June 1881, which, from the date of the publication of these rules, shall cease to have effect, except in so far as they determine the water-rates to be assessed for water supplied under current permits and the date on which they become due and payable.

J. M. MCNEILE, Col., R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

1. The Collector, before awarding compensation under section 16 or 76(c), or making a reference under section 17 of the Act, shall obtain the written opinion of the Superintending Canal Officer, which shall form part of the record of proceedings.

2. Except as provided in the Act and these rules, no appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Canal Officer, but the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer, and the Sub-divisional and Divisional Canal Officer shall modify any orders passed by them in accordance with the orders of the Superintending Canal Officer, who shall exercise a general control over the proceedings of all Canal Officers.

3. It will be the duty of the Superintending Canal Officer to issue orders on the following points:—

I.—The limits within which water will be available during the kharif season—(a) for annual leases; (b) for leases for a term of three or seven years.

II.—The distributaries from which water will be supplied during the hot season.

III.—The distributaries from which water will be supplied during the rabi season at a lower rate than that ordinarily charged.

IV.—On sufficient cause being shown, to prohibit the issue of permits for the irrigation of land in specified localities generally or during the kharif season only.

Such public notice as is practicable will be given of the instructions under this rule as long as is possible before they are enforced.

4. Appeals to the Collector under section 91 of the Act, other than those specially provided for in Rule 37, will ordinarily be from an order passed by the Divisional Canal Officer. The Collector may, when the order passed involves (I) the alignment of a village channel, (II) the refusal of the Divisional Canal Officer to accept a block as suitable for the issue of a permit for kharif irrigation, require the Superintending Canal Officer to state his opinion in writing, which shall form part of the record of proceedings in the case.

ON VILLAGE CHANNELS.

5. The Canal Officer shall prepare a list of channels which, previous to the 1st of April 1890, have been ordinarily used as village channels, and enter them in a register prepared in the manner prescribed in Part V of the Act.

6. No village channel not entered in the register made in compliance with the rule immediately preceding as existing on the 1st of April 1890 shall be added thereto except at the written request of the owners thereof. But water shall not be supplied for irrigation through any channel other than a registered village channel.

7. Village channels which may be constructed in future shall not as a rule exceed one mile in length; the length being measured in a straight line from the outlet to the boundary of the part of the village which the channel is intended to irrigate.

8. The sum fixed by the Canal Officer as rent under section 68 of the Act shall not be less than half an anna and shall not exceed four annas per bigah assessed with water-rate.

ON LAMBARDARS.

9. In every permit issued under section 75 of the Act other than Rules 18 or 19 following the name of one or more persons shall be entered as lambardar, who will be responsible for discharging the duties mentioned below:—

I.—Obtaining signatures to applications and certifying to the correctness of the same.

II.—Attending and giving assistance in measuring land irrigated or proposed to be irrigated.

III.—Giving timely information to the Canal Officer or subordinate of any insufficiency in the supply of water and promptly reporting when the irrigation of the leased area on any channel is complete.

IV.—Supervising the distribution of the water supplied through an outlet amongst the persons entitled thereto and reporting any misuse of the same.

V.—Being present when complaints are investigated by a Canal Officer or subordinate and giving information required in connection with the same.

VI.—Receiving parchas from the Canal Officer and distributing the same amongst the persons named therein.

VII.—Reporting before the 20th of October all cases in which crops have been injured by deficiency or irregularity of supply in the kharif season, so that these cases may be investigated before water-rates are demanded.

VIII.—Reporting to the Collector or to such officer as he may appoint mutations in holdings in the case of three or seven year leases.

IX.—Assisting the Collector by pointing out the residences of the persons assessed and identifying them and giving such general information as may be necessary regarding the persons assessed.

10. In the case of leases for the season the remuneration for performing the duties mentioned in clauses I to VII of the rule immediately preceding shall be 2 per cent. on the assessments which shall be paid by the Canal Officer, and for performing the duty mentioned in clause IX 1 per cent. on the collections, which shall be paid by the Collector.

11. In the case of leases for three or seven years, other than those entered into jointly with contractors, the remuneration to be paid to the lambardar for performing the duties mentioned in clauses I to VII of Rule 9 shall be two per cent. yearly on the assessments of the year, which shall be paid by the Canal Officer, and two per cent. yearly on the realizations for performing those mentioned in clauses VIII and IX, which shall be paid by the Collector.

12. The lambardar will be appointed by the Sub-divisional Officer in consultation with the applicants for the lease and must be a substantial person having a beneficial interest in part of the land to be irrigated. There is no objection to different lambardars being appointed to represent sections of the applicants, or to a number of persons being jointly appointed as lambardars on behalf of the whole of the applicants. In case the Sub-divisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of lambardar, he shall nominate a lambardar for approval by the Divisional Canal Officer.

In those cases where an application is made by a contractor and cultivators jointly for a lease for three or seven years the lambardar shall be nominated by the contractor.

13. The Divisional Canal Officer may, for reasons which appear to him to be sufficient and which must be recorded, remove a lambardar from his appointment, and in that case a new lambardar shall be appointed in the manner prescribed in the rule immediately preceding.

14. The Divisional Canal Officer may, with the consent of the lambardar, by a written order, of which the lambardar shall be furnished with a copy, transfer to him the duty of controlling the supply of water through an outlet, and may at any time, by a written order, recall such order. Lambardars to whom such control is transferred shall exercise such power, subject to such general written orders as they may receive from the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, and shall receive 8 per cent. on the assessment in place of 2 per cent. prescribed in rules 10 and 11.

15. The fees sanctioned to be paid to lambardars will only be disbursed if the duties specified have been satisfactorily performed. The Divisional Canal Officer or the Collector may retrench the whole or any part of the fees payable by them respectively in the event of this condition not being complied with. In calculating the fees payable fractions of an anna will be excluded.

ON APPLICATIONS.

16. Applications under section 74 of the Act for permits for irrigation upon leases for a term of years (schedule No. I), or upon kharif season leases (schedule No. II) shall be subject to the following conditions :—

I.—The application must be for a block of land having well-defined boundaries and so situated that adjoining lands will not ordinarily or probably be irrigated by water supplied for the land included in the application.

II.—The application must be in the form annexed to these rules, which states that water-rates will be paid on all lands contained in the block for which an application is presented, whether or no water is required.

III.—The applications may be for a term of three or seven years, or for the season only—

(a)—In the case of applications for the season only the issue of the permit will not necessarily be delayed until the lands have been measured. The boundaries of the block must be stated in the application which must be signed by or by authority of the cultivators of all the land included in the boundaries mentioned, and the approximate area in the occupation of each on the block must be specified. Water-rates will be charged on the areas in the block as found by actual measurement.

(b)—In the case of applications for a term of three or seven years a permit will not be issued until the land has been measured and an application complete in every respect for all the land included in the block has been signed. If water is required to be supplied before the application is completely signed in the manner specified above, an application for water for the season must be made, which will be cancelled on a permit for three or seven years being issued.

(c)—Notice that a permit for three or seven years is required must be given by the 1st of April, and no permit will be issued unless the application is completely signed by the 30th of November, or, with the special sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, by the 1st of March following. An application for a permit for the season must be filed by the 1st of September.

IV.—With the special sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer—

(a) Existing five-year leases may be cancelled and included in an application for a seven or three year lease under the preceding rules.

(b) An application may be made for an addition to a seven or three year lease, which, if granted, shall be considered as part of the original lease and terminate therewith.

17. Applications for irrigation in the rabi season, 25th October to the 25th March, and the hot-weather season, 25th March to the 25th June, will be subject to the following conditions—

I.—The approximate areas of land for which water is required must be stated in the application, which must be signed by or by authority of the occupiers thereof. It must be stated in the application that the water-rates will be paid on the area actually irrigated.

18. Applications for the supply of water by volume for purposes of irrigation will only be entertained on condition that half the amount chargeable is paid to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer when the application is filed, and that a bond is executed in the form attached to these rules as Appendix VI signed by substantial persons pledging themselves to pay such sums as will in the aggregate make up the remainder. The bond will not have reference to the area to be irrigated, but will be in consideration of a particular outlet being kept open for a specified time, and the sums mentioned therein will be recoverable on the certificate of the Canal subordinate that this condition has been fulfilled. Water will be supplied under this rule from the 1st of September to the 31st of October only.

19. Applications for the supply of water by volume for filling aharas will be in the form attached to these rules as Appendix VII. The entire charge will be payable in advance. Water will be supplied under this rule from the 1st of November to the 25th of March only.

ON PERMITS.

20. All permits for the use of water issued under section 75 of the Act shall be subject to the following conditions:—

I.—That the water is supplied for the sole purpose of irrigating the land mentioned in the application. The term 'irrigating' includes the right to drain (nigar) the land at the proper season of the year.

II.—That water will be supplied at the level at which it is ordinarily maintained in the distributary from which water is taken off and that no earthen bunds or other works will be constructed to raise the level of the water in the distributary. No right to flow irrigation is conferred unless existing appliances admit of it.

III.—That a lambardar shall be appointed in the manner specified in Rule 12 to represent the interests of the cultivators and to perform the duties mentioned in Rule 8.

IV.—That the village channel from which water is supplied is kept in a proper state of repair, so that water shall not be wasted.

V.—That water-rates are paid when due.

VI.—That water supplied for the irrigation of a specified block of land shall not, under colour of the permit, be utilized for the irrigation of land beyond the boundaries specified in the application.

NOTE—Where these conditions are infringed appropriate penalties or disabilities to the extent specified in the Act or these rules will be enforced.

21. A permit shall not be issued where, in the opinion of the Canal Officer, waste is likely to occur. In the order refusing a permit on this ground, the manner on which it is apprehended that waste will occur shall be stated.

22. Permits for irrigation upon leases for a term of years (schedule No. I) or upon kharif season leases (schedule No. II) shall be issued under the following conditions:—

I.—The land to be irrigated must form a compact block defined by well-marked boundaries of such a nature as clearly to distinguish leased from the adjoining unleased lands, and also be so situated that unleased lands will not be ordinarily or probably irrigated by water supplied for the land included in the block. The boundaries must be mentioned in the application for a permit for the season, and in the notice referred to in Rule 16*e* when a permit for a three or seven year lease is applied for.

II.—The Canal Officer may exclude lands included in the block not irrigable by flow or for which canal water is ordinarily not required. In the case of permits for three or seven years the block must be not less than 50 bighas in area. In cases where the Divisional Canal Officer considers it advisable to grant a permit to a block of less area than that mentioned above, the previous sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer must be obtained. No permit for seven years shall be issued unless the owners of the village channel from which water is to be obtained have been registered and the channel itself is in a good state of repair such as to fit it for the conveyance of water without wastage occurring. Such leases will not be issued unless it is known from the experience of previous years' irrigation that a sufficient supply of water is always available and that the quantity required is not excessive.

III.—Permits for three years will be issued on the same conditions as those for seven, except that, as the term for which Government is bound is shorter somewhat less favourable conditions as to situation, soil, and the quantity of water required will be accepted.

IV.—A permit for a three or seven years' lease may be cancelled by the Superintending Canal Officer with effect from a date to be specified in the order for good cause on the application of all the signatories thereto.

V.—Permits for the season will be issued on the same conditions as those for three years, the essential difference being in the duration of the lease and the later period up to which applications are received.

23. Permits for irrigation in the rabi and hot-weather seasons, 25th October to 25th June, will be issued on the following condition :—

I.—Water-rates will be levied on the area actually irrigated, and not on that specified on the application.

II.—The applicants will undertake to give the lambardar notice to close the outlet so soon as the area requiring irrigation has received a sufficient supply of water.

III.—The applicants will undertake to, as far as is practicable, prevent water supplied being wasted or applied to the irrigation of fields not included in the application.

ON DISABILITIES AND PENALTIES.

24. At the request of the Collector, the Superintending Canal Officer may direct the Divisional Canal Officer to—

I—Cease to issue permits for the irrigation of land in villages where there have been constant difficulties in realizing water-rates until all the arrears of water-rates due are paid up, and also, if specially required, unless half the amount due for the ensuing year under future applications are paid up in advance. An order under this rule shall be in force for the time stated therein, which shall not exceed three years.

II.—Cancel any three or seven years' lease if on the 1st of June of any year water-rates are in arrears by more than half a year's demand.

25. The Divisional Canal Officer may, with the concurrence of the Collector and the sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, cancel a three or seven years' lease if water is habitually misused or wasted. Such an order shall have effect from the 25th June next ensuing, and two months' notice at least must be given to the lambardars for the information of the cultivators.

ON THE SUPPLY OF WATER.

26. I.—Any Canal Officer may, in the case of pressing emergency, stop the supply of water to any canal or distributary. If such order is passed by an officer below the rank of a Divisional Canal Officer, it shall forthwith be reported to the Divisional Canal Officer, and if the stoppage exceeds five days in duration to the Superintending Canal Officer.

II.—The Sub-divisional Canal Officer may, by written order under section 76*a*, stop the supply to any village channel when he is satisfied, after inspection by himself or by one of his subordinates, that it is not maintained in proper repair ; such order shall be recorded in the sub-divisional office.

III.—No person shall be entitled to be supplied with water until the village channel has been put in a proper state of repair in accordance with directions given by the Sub-divisional Canal Officer.

IV.—The Canal Officer or any of his subordinates may temporarily close an outlet supplying a village channel from which unauthorized irrigation is at the time the outlet is closed being carried on.

27. The Divisional Canal Officer may close the outlets in rotation as he may consider necessary. Such closure shall not, in the kharif season, exceed five days after ten days of consecutive supply and shall be notified to lambardars.

28. No water shall be supplied nor shall any person be entitled to a supply of water until a permit signed by a Canal Officer authorized to sign a permit has been signed and issued.

29. The Canal Officer will be responsible that the supply through the outlet is in the kharif season maintained in accordance with the entries on the permits, and in the rabi season in accordance with the requirements of the crops. In both seasons it will be the duty of the lambardar to inform the Canal Officer or Subordinate when the area under lease has been fully irrigated, so that the outlet may be closed, or if he has under rule 14 been given charge of the outlet to close it himself.

ON DEMAND STATEMENTS.

30. The statements of the amounts demandable for water-rates leviable under the rules in force shall be prepared, under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer, in such form as shall from time to time be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor.

31. The demand statements for water-rates due under three or seven years' leases shall be prepared at the same time as the application, and a copy thereof shall be given to the lambardar as well as a karcha for each signatory to the lease with the permit. No further notice of demand shall be given during the currency of the lease.

32. The demand statement for water-rates due under a lease in the kharif season shall be prepared either before the permit is issued or as soon as conveniently may be after its issue, and shall, without reference to the land having been actually irrigated up to that time or not, show the water-rates due by each person whose land is included in the application. Demand statements (parchas) showing the sums due from each applicant shall be sent to the lambardar for distribution, and no further notice of demand shall be given.

33. For irrigation during the hot-weather or rabi season the following procedure shall be followed :—

I.—The area irrigated in any village shall be measured by an ameen appointed for the purpose. The khusrah shall be signed by both the amin and the lambardar who shall be present at the measurements. If the lambardar is not present, the amin shall arrange that at least two respectable cultivators shall be present and enter their names in the khusrah prepared by him. The lambardar shall be permitted to take a copy of the khusrah.

II.—When the measurement is completed the khusrah shall be forwarded to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, who shall prepare the demand statement (khatiani) with all possible despatch. Copies of extracts of the demand statement affecting each separate cultivator (parchas), signed and sealed by the zilladar, shall, as soon as prepared, be forwarded to the lambardar for distribution amongst the persons charged. The lambardar shall grant a receipt for the parchas forwarded.

III.—If the lambardar is not present or declines to grant a receipt for the same in the prescribed form, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall make other efficient arrangements for serving each person assessed with a parcha showing the amount due from him. Parchas may be sent by post.

34. Objections to the demand statements prepared in accordance with the preceding rules 31, 32 and 33 may be presented, either personally or through the lambardar, to the Sub-divisional or Divisional Canal Officer, who shall thereupon, after such enquiry as he may consider to be necessary, pass orders on the same. A copy of the order passed shall be served on the person making the objection. Objections to the demand addressed to the Collector shall be referred for the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer.

35. Objections to the demand statements must be presented within thirty days of the date on which the parcha was received by the lambardar, but this period shall be extended where reasonable cause for delay can be established.

36. The objections may be in a form, which will be sold for half an anna at all canal offices, giving instructions as to the particulars required to admit of the objection being readily investigated; but any form will be accepted provided it clearly states the name or names of the persons objecting, the crop, and the year for which the charge is made and the demand from each cultivator to which objection is taken.

37. Any person not satisfied with the order passed by the Canal Officer under Rule 34 may file an application of appeal to the Collector under section 91 of the Act. Such application must be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against. The Collector shall thereupon, after considering the records of the case, pass such order as he may think fit and shall meanwhile have discretion to suspend collections by a written order in cases where it may seem advisable to do so.

38. When the order appealed against to the Collector is that of a Sub-divisional Canal Officer, the proceedings shall be called for though the Divisional Canal Officer, who may record thereon any remarks he may think fit. The papers shall not be detained for the purpose of enabling the Divisional Canal Officer to make further enquiries, which, however, may be directed by the Collector on the suggestion of the Divisional Canal Officer or on his own motion.

39. Applications for mutations of names in leases for three or seven years shall be made to the Collector; if addressed to the Canal Officer they shall be referred to the Collector for disposal.

ON WATER-RATES.

40. Water-rates imposed under section 79 of the Act shall be at the rates shown in the schedule following or such lower rate as the Divisional Canal Officer may fix :—

	Flow or lift.
	Rate per bigah.	Rate per tenth of a bigah.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
For water used in an unauthorized manner	5 0 0	0 8 0

Provided that in the kharif season, 25th June to the 25th October, no water-rates under this section shall be levied where the unauthorized irrigation is effected with water taken from land included in a lease, but irrigation effected by cutting a village channel or committing a criminal offence the perpetrator of which cannot be discovered may be assessed with the previous sanction of the Collector, which must be obtained before any detailed measurement of the land irrigated without authority is made. Subject to the provisos regarding irrigation in the kharif season mentioned above, persons using water without a permit shall, unless exempted by section 74 of the Act, be charged water-rates at the rate imposed by this rule.

41. Charges for waste of water imposed under section 80 of the Act shall be at the rates fixed in the rule immediately preceding and be subject in the kharif season to the same condition as regards sanction by the Collector as is required by that rule; where a tank or ahara has been filled, a charge of Rs. 5 per thousand cubic yards may be made in lieu of an acreage charge.

42. Water-rates assessed under section 78, 79, or 80 of the Act shall be due and payable on the dates mentioned below:—

Seven-year leases ... Three-year leases ...	First moiety ...	15th December.
	Second moiety ...	1st March.
Season or annual leases—
Bhadoi and crops classed as bhadoi		1st November.
Rice and sugarcane waterings, from the 25th June to the 25th October		15th December.
Rabi and crops classed as rabi, including sugarcane waterings, from the 25th October to the 25th March ...		1st April.
Hot-weather rate		1st July.
Sugarcane	First moiety	15th December.
	Second moiety	15th February.
Assessments under section 79 of the Act or under Rule 40		On receipt of the demand statement by the Collector.
Assessments under section 80 of the Act
Water supplied by volume between the 1st of September and 31st of October		One moiety before the outlet is opened, the other moiety 15th December.
Water supplied by volume to fill aharas		The whole amount before the outlet is opened.

The Divisional Canal Officer will endeavour to forward as many of the demand statements as possible to the Collector fifteen days before the dates fixed for payment, but accuracy in the individual charges shall be regarded as of more importance than a rigid adherence to dates.

43. Where lands are held on a bhaoli tenure, the entire water-rates assessed under section 78 of the Act shall be demandable from the occupiers of the land assessable; but at the written request of the bhaoli owner, in the form, Appendix VIII, which may be presented to the Divisional Canal Officer or to the Collector, the water-rates shall be recovered from the cultivators and the person or persons in receipt of the bhaoli rents in the same proportion as the produce is divisible amongst them. The demand statement shall be made out by the Divisional Canal Officer in the name of the cultivators, any necessary modification therein owing to a request made by a bhaoli owner under this rule being carried out by the Collector. But on lands under Government management half the rates should be paid by the landlord, and in other cases any influence which the Collector may possess should be used to make the zemindar consent to this equitable arrangement.

44. In the case of lands held under a bhaoli tenure being assessed under section 79 of the Act, the whole of the persons deriving benefit therefrom shall be assessed in the same proportion as the produce is divisible amongst them.

ON REMISSIONS.

45. The water-gauges on distributaries or other channels shall be held to give authoritative data for all calculations of discharge required to verify claims for remission of water-rate on account of failure of supply.

46. Claims to remission of water-rates under section 76*b* shall only be admitted on proof of actual loss caused by failure of supply. On proof of such loss the Divisional Canal Officer may remit the whole or any part of the rates. All applications for remission of water-rates shall be made in the manner provided in Rule 34 and twenty days before the crop is cut.

47. Before awarding compensation under section 76*c* the Collector shall obtain the written opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, and such opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

48. Notwithstanding any thing contained in these rules, the Superintending Canal Officer may, should he consider the circumstances of the case require it, under such general instructions as he may from time to time receive from Government, remit, under the head extraordinary, so much of the water-rates as are in excess of ten annas a bigah. But no such remissions shall be claimable as a right, nor shall any person be entitled to receive an order on an application for remissions under this head, which will ordinarily only be made on the representations of Divisional Canal Officers.

49. A remission statement signed by the Superintending or Divisional Canal Officer shall be sufficient authority for a refund by the Collector.

INTERMEDIARY AGENCY.

50. Leases in the kharif season for three or seven years will be entered into with associations of cultivators as specified in these rules; and also on the joint application of the cultivators and of some person hereinafter called the contractor, who shall collect and pay to Government, under section 82 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, all seems due under the agreement on account of water-rates. The joint agreement shall be in the form given as Appendix II to these rules. The contractor must have a beneficial interest in some part of the land included in the application extending for the full term of the lease.

51. Contractors shall be entitled to collect water-rates from the cultivators who have signed the appication and from their successors in interest in the land included in the block at the rates fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 78 of the Act. Every due from a cultivator to a contractor on account of water-rates shall be deemed to be a sum due to Government under sections 82 and 85 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876.

52. A contractor (or in case there be more than one, each contractor severally and jointly) shall use due diligence in the collection of the water-rates specified in the agreement from the cultivators who have applied for the water supplied. In the case of his failure after due diligence to collect, he shall, within thirty days of the rates becoming due, submit to the Collector a list showing the names of the defaulters with the sums due from each, and the Collector shall thereupon proceed to realize the amount due from the said defaulters according to law.

53. A contractor (or in case there be more than one, each contractor severally and jointly) shall be responsible for all sums payable on the agreement, except such sums as he may satisfy the Collector that he has been unable to collect after using due diligence, and shall be entitled to a deduction of five per cent. on all sums collected by himself.

54. The contractor shall as such be responsible for the performance of the duties devolving on the lambardar under these rules, but may appoint a lambardar, whose name shall be communicated to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer and whose removal, for good cause to be recorded in writing, may be ordered by the Divisional Canal Officer. He shall, whether he appoints a substitute to act as lambardar or not, be responsible for reporting all changes in the occupiers of lands included in the lease to the Collector.

55. The contractor as lambardar shall be entitled to remuneration at the rate of five per cent. on the assessments subject to the provisions contained in Rule 15.

56. The contractor may, if he prefers, in which case it shall be so stated in the application, take the responsibility of collecting the entire sum due under the application, in which case he shall pay the whole amount due less 7½ per cent., making, with five per cent. payable under the preceding Rule 12½ per cent on the assessment.

57. No steps shall be taken to prepare a joint application by cultivators and a contractor until the written assent of the Collector to the proposed contractor has been received. The Collector may, before approving of a contractor under this rule, require him to give security for the due performance of the contract.

58. A contractor may resign his interest in the lease by giving notice to the Divisional Canal Officer three months at least before the 25th June next following, in which case his connection with the lease shall cease from that date, and the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall procede to appoint a lambardar under Rule 12 and the Collector to realize water-rates due directly from the applicants. The Divisional Canal Officer may, at the instance of the Collector, remove a contractor who fails to use due diligence in making collections. In such cases three months' notice at least before the 25th of June next following shall be given, and the removal shall take effect from that date.

59. With the written approval of the Superintending Canal Officer a contractor may measure and prepare demand statements for lands irrigated in the hot weather, for which applications in the prescribed form have been filed by him. Such demand statements shall be forwarded to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, who shall thereupon proceed to deal with them as if they had been prepared by himself.

60. When an agreement has been made for the collections of rates by a contractor, the Divisional Canal Officer shall, under section 82 of the Act, furnish such contractor with a written authority to collect the amounts due by the cultivators, a copy of which shall be sent to the Collector.

ON COLLECTIONS AND ALTERATIONS IN DEMAND STATEMENTS.

61. Collection of all water-rates shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the statement of demands furnished to him by the Divisional Canal Officer except in the case of lands held khodli, regarding which the provisions contained in Rule 43 shall be followed.

62. The Collector may make any alterations in a demand statement provided the total sum shown to be due is not altered or an error in account only corrected. When such alterations are made in a demand statement appertaining to a lease for three or seven years, a copy of the alteration statement shall be sent to the Divisional Canal Officer.

63. In cases where sums due on account of water-rates cannot be collected owing to the death, bankruptcy or absconding of the defaulter, the amount which is non-realizable may be written off as irrecoverable on the authority of the Collector. A detailed list of all sums so written off shall be sent to the Divisional Canal Officer. In other cases the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division must be obtained to admit of demands being written off under this head.

MISCELLANEOUS.

64. No person shall, without the permission in writing of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer, pass, or cause any animal or vehicle to pass, on or across any of the works, banks, or channels of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, excepting by means of such bridges, fords and ferries and their approaches, as are provided by the Divisional Canal Officer.

65. No Canal Officer, unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operation of this rule, shall have any interest in the distribution of water from any of the canals, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly, or in shares with others.

66. Tanks may be filled with canal water without charge, and without reference to the area irrigated in any village, wherever water can be made available without injury to the cultivation dependent on any canal, under the following conditions:—

(a)—No tank shall be so filled unless the water is to be exclusively used for domestic purposes or for watering cattle, or both.

(b)—No tank shall be so filled from which irrigation is practised.

(c)—No tank shall be so filled which, intercepting any line of drainage, is liable to overflow from accumulation of water derived from natural causes.

(d)—No tank shall be so filled except on the written order of the Sub-Divisional Canal Officer issued on the written application of the parties concerned.

(e)—No tank shall be so filled unless the village channel used to fill it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, to be in a sound condition when the application is made.

(f)—The privilege herein accorded may, by written order of the Divisional Canal Officer, subject to revision by the Superintending Canal Officer, whose decision shall be final, be suspended for twelve months for breach of any of the above conditions.

67. The Divisional Canal Officer may supply water for manufacturing or other purpose charging for the same at the rate of one rupee per each 4,000 cubic feet or part of 4,000 cubic feet supplied. Contracts between the Divisional Canal Officer on the part of Government and private individuals for the use of water as a motive power, or for any purpose whatsoever not specified in this rule or the published schedule of rates, shall, if for any period not exceeding one year, require the previous sanction of the Superintending Engineer, and if proposed for longer than a year, shall be submitted for the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor.

68. Patwaris called on to assist in identifying land or signatures or to give evidence shall receive such remuneration by way of fee as may be fixed by the Superintending Canal Officer or Collector with the approval of Government, but their signature shall not necessarily be required to any document prepared under these rules. The fee shall be disbursed at the time of attendance as far as practicable by the Sub-divisional Canal Officer or Collector, whoever may require the patwari to attend.

69. Any Deputy Collector or Sub-Deputy Collector may, under the general orders and control of the Collector, exercise the powers conferred on the Collector by Rules 9, 10, 11, 12, 43, 52, 53, 54, 57, 59, 61, 62 and 68, provided that all orders passed by such Deputy Collector or Sub-Deputy Collector shall be appealable to the Collector, if a petition of appeal is preferred within thirty days of their being passed.

70. The Collector may, by a special order passed in each case, refer applications under Rules 38, 40, or 41 to any Deputy Collector for report or disposal. An appeal against an order passed by a Deputy Collector under this rule may be preferred by either the applicant or the Divisional Canal Officer.

REVISED RATES TO BE CHARGED FOR WATER SUPPLIED ON APPLICATION FROM THE SONE CANALS.

IN exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 78 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor proposes to fix the following rates to be charged for water supplied for irrigation from the Sone Canals:—

1. Schedules I and IV following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 1st of April 1891.

2. Schedule II following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 25th June 1891.

3. Schedule III following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 15th October 1890.

4. Schedule V following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 1st January 1891.

5. Schedule VI following will be in force in respect to water supplied after the 1st of September 1890.

6. Schedule VII following will be in force in respect to water supplied after the 1st of November 1890.

7. For permits issued prior to the dates mentioned above, the rates at present in force enumerated in notification No. 148 of the 20th June 1881, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd June 1881, will be charged.

13. In the case of charges under Schedules I to V any smaller area than one-tenth of a bigah will be charged as one-tenth. The bigah contains 27,225 square feet.

SCHEDULE No. VI.

14. For water supplied by volume in the kharif season—

For water supplied between the 1st of September and the 31st of October, four rupees for a calculated discharge of one cubic foot per second for twelve hours. For less than a cubic foot per second or less than twelve hours a proportionate charge shall be made, but a fraction of less than one-sixteenth shall be charged as one-sixteenth.

SCHEDULE No. VII.

15. For water supplied by volume to fill akaras—

For water supplied between the 1st of November and the 25th of March, one rupee for a calculated discharge of one cubic foot per second for twelve hours. For less than a cubic foot per second or less than twelve hours a proportionate charge shall be made, but a fraction of less than one-sixteenth shall be charged as one-sixteenth.

16. In the case of leases under schedules I and II, water will be supplied for rice seed beds only as early in June as the supply in the river admits.

17. In the case of leases under schedule II, no extra charge will be made for a crop of kesari, linseed, or gram sown on rice-fields watered with canal water, and water will be supplied until the 15th of November if required.

18. In the case of leases under schedule III, the Divisional Canal Officer may, in years when the demand for water for kharif crops admits of it, supply water for rabi on any date after the 7th October.

19. In the case of leases under schedule V, the charge will be dependent on the crops reaching maturity. A proportionate remission will be granted if the crop suffers from any cause.

20. When the original crops sown in a field irrigated by canal water fails, and a fresh crop is sown in the same season, as defined in the schedules above, water-rates shall be levied on the second crop only. If no second crop is sown, water-rate shall be levied at the rate of ten annas a bigah.

21. In assessing water-rates under Schedules III, IV and V, the areas to be charged shall be subject to the following rules:—

I.—If only a portion of a field be irrigated, the water-rate shall be chargeable on the whole field, unless such portion shall have been clearly demarcated, previous to the admission of the water, by a ridge not less than half a foot high.

II.—When a portion of a field has been irrigated with canal water and a portion with well or reservoir water, the whole field shall be liable for canal water-rate, unless a clearly distinguishable boundary exists between the two portions.

22. Irrigation from escape channels, when the supply is permanent, shall be governed by the same rules as irrigation from other parts of the canal.

23. Irrigation from such channels, when the supply is intermittent, may be allowed at such reduced rates as shall from time to time be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor

YEZO ISLAND—EAST COAST.

Flashing light on Cape Usu (Otchishi saki.)

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 606 of 1890) that on 15th October 1890 a light would be exhibited from a light-house recently erected on cape Usu (Otchishi saki), east coast of Yezo island :—

Cape Usu light is a flashing white light, showing a flash every thirty seconds, and visible through an arc of 223°, or from the bearing of N. 75° E., through north, to S. 32° W. A sector of red light is shown from the bearing of N. 53° E. to N. 75° E., covering the sunken rocks Konbu se; also from S. 59° W. to S. 65° W., covering the sunken rock Tatsumino. The light is elevated 168 feet above the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 18 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors of the second order.

The light-house, 50 feet high, constructed of iron, and circular in shape, is painted white and black in horizontal bands.

Approximate position on Admiralty Charts, lat. 43° 10′ N., long. 145° 31′ E.

NOTE.—The sunken rocks, Konbu se, above mentioned, extend about 3 miles in an E. by N. and W. by S. direction; the eastern rock lies with cape Usu bearing N. E. by E. ½ E., distant about 3 miles.

INNER ROUTE APPROACH.

Sandbank reported in fairway—Pollard channel.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 607 of 1890) that the Commander of the German steam-vessel Erlangen has reported having struck on a sandbank, with 15 feet water over it, laying in the fairway of Pollard channel, with Sunday islet bearing W. ¼ S., and the largest of the Cockburn islands N.N.W. ½ W.

Approximate position : lat. 11° 55½′ S., long. 143° 21½′ E.

NOTE.—Should the above-given position of the sandbank be correct, it would be directly in the track recommended by Captain Blackwood; the line therefore showing the track southward of Cockburn reef should be removed from the Admiralty Charts.

TORRES STRAIT, PRINCE OF WALES CHANNEL.

Beresford shoals—possibly less depth than charted.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 580 of 1890) that from the report of a Court of Inquiry, held at Thursday island, into the loss of the British ship Volga, drawing

21½ feet, on 6th August 1890—there appear some grounds for supposing that that ship may have struck on the Beresford shoals, at the eastern approach to Prince of Wales channel, Torres strait, afterwards foundering near the western extreme of North-west reef:—

The position of the Volga when she struck was very doubtful, but the great difficulty of sounding closely in the locality, in consequence of the strong tides and winds, renders it very possible that there may be a patch of less water on Beresford shoals than was found during the survey in 1881.

Position of sunken wreck of Volga, lat. 10° 31′ 10″ S., long. 142° 9′ 5″ E.

Mariners are warned accordingly.

The following are the conditions of sale :—

1.—The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2.—The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3.—The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M.; but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or, if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4.—Each lot shall contain five chests.

5.—A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M. in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

DEPOSIT.
When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.
And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional, to the extent of Rs. 400.

6.—The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

8.—No tender of money, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the fifth day following the day of sale will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9.—The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10.—Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots, or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests originally required to be included in each certificate or order.

12.—The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or Government Securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13.—With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14.—The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15.—In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16.—The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue:—No. 1, certificate of the opium advertised for sale; No. 2, report of the examination of such opium.

17.—The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazeepore Factory for the year 1889-90, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at the Patna and Ghazeepore Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue.

18.—Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

C. E. BUCKLAND,
For Offg. Secretary.

Orders and Notifications by the Government of India, &c.

[Reprinted from the "Gazette of India."]

The following orders, issued by the Government of India in the Home Department, are republished for general information.

JOHN EDGAR,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATIONS—PUBLIC.

Calcutta, the 2nd December 1890.

No. 2343.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased, under section 27 of the Indian Arms Act, 1878, to direct that the following clauses shall be substituted for clauses (3) and (8), paragraph 1 of Home Department Notification No. 518, dated the 6th March 1879, as amended by the notifications margiually noted:—

Home Department Notification No. 1168, dated the 23rd July 1880.
Home Department Notification No. 1946, dated the 16th November 1886.
Home Department Notification No. 971, dated the 11th May 1888.

(3) All military and naval officers, all soldiers, sailors, volunteers, and such officers of the Police, Forest, Postal, and Jail Departments as the Local Government, by general or special order, may direct.

(8) All pensioned officers of the Native Army, and such pensioned officers of the Civil Departments as the Local Government, by general or special order, may direct, except as regards the Punjab, to which Province the following clause applies:—

All commissioned officers of the Native Army, pensioned or on active service, such pensioned officers of the Civil Department as the Local Government, by general or special order, may direct, and all non-commissioned officers and men of the Native Army under the circumstances provided for and subject to the conditions prescribed in section 12, paragraphs 71, 72, 73, 74, and 77 of the Bengal Army Regulations.

MEDICAL.

The 5th December 1890.

No. 776.—In continuation of Home Department Resolution No. 14 Medical—731—750, dated 21st November 1890, it is notified for general information that the Leprosy Commissioners, after visiting Hyderabad for a few days, propose to arrive at Madras on 11th or 12th instant. They will, while in that Presidency, visit Trichinopoly and such other places as may be suggested to them by the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras. The Commission will then divide into two parties. Dr. Rake, with Surgeon-Major Thomson and possibly Dr. Buckmaster, will leave Madras on 24th instant for Rangoon, and visit Mandalay, Thayetmyo, and Maulmain in addition to Rangoon. Surgeon-Major Barclay and Dr. Kanthack, after completing the inspection of places in the Madras Presidency, will visit the Central Provinces. All the members of the Commission propose to re-assemble in Calcutta about January 25th, and after spending some days there to visit Burdwan, Bankura, and probably Birbhum, before proceeding to the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab. The detailed movements of the Commissioners, after leaving Calcutta, will be notified hereafter.

JUDICIAL.

The 4th December 1890.

No. 1738.—In the exercise of the power conferred by section 16 of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act IV of 1889, the Governor-General in Council directs that Criminal Courts, in giving effect to the provisions of the Act in respect of trade descriptions of quantity, measure, or weight of the goods specified hereunder, shall observe the following instructions, which supersede those contained in Notification No. 1118, dated the 13th August 1889:—

I.—A trade description of length stamped on grey, white, or coloured cotton piece-goods shall not be deemed to be false in a material respect unless—

(a) where a single length is stamped, the description exceeds the actual length by more than—

4 inches in pieces stamped as 10 yards long and under;
5 inches in pieces stamped as above 10 yards and up to 23 yards long;
7 inches in pieces stamped as above 23 yards and up to 36 yards long;
9 inches in pieces stamped as above 36 yards and up to 47 yards long;
18 inches in pieces stamped as above 47 yards long;

Provided that the average length of the goods in question shall not be less than the stamped length;

(b) where a maximum and a minimum length are stamped, the described maximum length is greater than the actual length by more than—

9 inches in piece-goods under 35 yards long;
18 inches in piece-goods under 35 yards and up to 47 yards long;
36 inches in piece-goods above 47 yards long;

Provided that no such piece shall measure less than the minimum stamped length.

II.—A trade description of width stamped on grey, white, or coloured cotton piece-goods shall not be deemed to be false in a material respect unless the description exceeds the actual width by—half an inch in pieces stamped as 40 inches or less in width; three-quarters of an inch in pieces stamped as over 40 inches or under 59 inches in width;

one inch in pieces stamped as 59 inches or more in width;

Provided that the average width of the goods in question shall not be less than the stamped width.

III.—A trade description of count or number, length or weight, applied to grey or bleached, cotton yarn, shall not be deemed to be false in a material respect unless—

(a) the described count or number is greater or less than the actual count or number by more than 5 per cent., provided that the average count of the whole of the yarn in question is not greater or less than the described count; or

(b) the average length of the whole number of hanks in a bundle is less than 840 yards; or

(d) in a bundle of yarn of any count from 50 upwards, the number of knots of twenty hanks each is not half, when the described weight is ten pounds, and is not a quarter, when the described weight is five pounds, of the count or number of the yarn; or

(e) in the case of bleached yarn the described weight exceeds the actual weight by more than—

7½ per cent. in counts from 1 to 8;
5 Ditto ditto from above 8 to 18;
4 Ditto ditto ditto 18 to 30;
2½ Ditto ditto ditto 30 to 80.

IV.—A trade description of count or number applied to a bundle of dyed cotton yarn shall be accepted as indicating length only, the hank being taken to measure 840 yards, and it shall be deemed to be false in a material respect if the average length of the hanks in a bundle is less than 819 yards.

V.—A trade description of length applied to thread of any kind (of cotton, wool, flax, or silk) shall not be deemed to be false in a material respect unless it exceeds the actual length by more than 1 per cent.

VI.—The dimensions of goods on which their length or width is stamped shall be determined by measurement in imperial yards of thirty-six inches.

Hooghly Collectorate, the 6th November 1890. MAHOMED ISRAIL, For Collector.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below, to the undermentioned estate, situate in the district of Moorshedabad, will be put up to sale at the Berhampore Collectorate on the 12th day of January 1891, corresponding with the 29th day of Pous 1297 B. S.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale :—

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1st.—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price, which will be fixed by the Collector at the time of sale. The purchaser of this estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, subject to the revenue fixed in perpetuity.

2nd.—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings, and by the laws in force, and purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount to be paid down at once.

4th.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale—

License for Catching Elephants in the Hill Tracts of Chittagong.

UNDER sanction of Government, the Commissioner of Chittagong is authorized to receive tenders for the catching of elephants in the above Hill Tracts during the cold-weather of 1890-91 and up to the end of April 1891.

2. The tenders should state what number of kunkies and men the tenderer proposes to employ, and under whose management the khedda will be.

3. Government reserves the right of choosing one elephant out of every three caught; Government taking the first choice, the lessee the second and third, Government the fourth, and so on. The Superintendent of Kheddas, or any officer nominated by him, will represent Government, and the tenderer should state where he will collect the elephants for inspection.

4. Elephants may be captured under the license either by khedda or mela shikar, but in no other way.

5. The right will not extend eastward beyond the present boundary of the Hill Tracts, or include the reserved forests, but will include the right to catch any elephants which have come down from the hills into the Regulation District.

6. Elephants are very numerous, and have done much damage, and intending tenderers will be supplied with all information regarding the places where most damage has been done on application to the Commissioner of Chittagong or the Deputy Commissioner, Hill Tracts.

7. The Commissioner reserves the entire right to choose the tender which seems likely to secure the capture of the largest number of elephants, and to demand such security as may appear necessary.

8. Tenders may be submitted up to and including the 8th December to the Commissioner of Chittagong.

D. R. LYALL, Commissioner.

Chittagong, the 18th November 1890.

Calcutta, the 1st December 1890. (755—1)

Notification

IT is hereby notified for general information that Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal Deo, late proprietor of the entire pergunnah of Ambicanagore, in the district of Bankoora, has, by an ejarah lease executed in 1884, conveyed for 31 years whatever rights and interests he had in the minerals and metals of the entire pergunnah of Ambicanagore in the district of Bankoora, excepting a few villages which he has kept in his kash possession, to the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom in the district of Singbhoom.

As the entire estate of the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom, including pergunnah Ambicanagore, is now managed by the Revenue authorities of the Chota Nagpore Division under the provisions of the Chota Nagpore Encumbered Estates' Act, the Manager of the Dhalbhoom Estate alone, acting under the orders of the Commissioner of the Chota Nagpore Division, has the power of giving a lease of the minerals and metals of the pergunnah.

The lease recently executed by Rajah Sir Sourendra Mohan Tagore, KT., C.I.E., as purchaser of the proprietary rights of the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal, in favour of Mr. Palmer of Calcutta of the mineral rights in the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore is null and void, inasmuch as the said Rajah Sir Sourendra Mohan Tagore has purchased the proprietary rights of the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal in the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore long after the execution of the ejarah lease in favour of the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom. Instructions have accordingly been issued on the Manager of the Dhalbhoom Estate to take the necessary steps to oppose by all constitutional means any attempt that may be made by the aforesaid Mr R. G. Palmer to take possession of the minerals of the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore, or to begin mining operations within it. The Dhalbhoom Estate not only holds the aforesaid pergunnah of Ambicanagore by virtue of the ejarah lease referred to above, but also under a deed of mortgage executed by the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhabal, simultaneously with the ejarah lease.

W. H. GRIMLEY,
Commissioner of Chota Nagpore.

Ranchi, the 26th November 1890.

In the goods of James Young, late of Helensborough in Scotland and of Calcutta, Merchant, deceased.

PURSUANT to Section 320 of Act X of 1865 and Section 42 of Act XXVIII of 1866, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of James Young, late of Helensborough in Scotland and of Calcutta, Merchant, deceased, should, on or before the 31st day of January 1891, send in particulars of such claims to the undersigned, after which date no claims will be admitted, and the assets of the estate of the said deceased will be distributed by the executors with regard only to such claims of which they shall then have notice.

ORR, JOHNSON and ROBERTSON,
Attorneys for STEPHEN GEORGE SALE and WILLIAM WILSON, the Executors named in the Will of the said JAMES YOUNG, deceased.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

BY DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first three volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses, both chemical and industrial; trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributions have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and G in 534 pages. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in six volumes by 1891; but a seventh volume may also be issued consisting of an index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary; and this as a work of reference, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India Rs. 80 and in England 2 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set. An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings respectively will be charged extra for the whole set.

 No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England, exclusive of packing and postage.

The Indian Law Reports,

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1889 the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

He gives long accounts of Tantia's dacoities in different villages of Central India and of his generosity towards boys, females and Brahmans. The writer expatiates on Tantia's ingenuity in baffling the attempts of the police to arrest him. He led a dacoit's life for eleven years, and was at last betrayed by a friend to Resaldar-Major Isvari Prasad, C.I.E., of Holkar's Army.	9515

Oct., 19th	40	8vo ...	1st ...	1,000	Printed	0 1 0	Ibrahim Laskar, 13, Gadai Khánsámá's Lane, Calcutta.	A poor cultivator sowed his field with Indian corn, but it produced corn of diamonds. The field was brilliant with their light. A rich merchant who lived close by purchased the harvest of diamonds at an immense price and became the guardian of the cultivator's of good breeding; and her father, discovering that his son-in-law was a cultivator by birth, in his chagrin ordered which he gained the favour of his father-in-law and was saved.	682

RESOLUTION ON THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE CHITTAGONG DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1889-90.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—MISCELLANEOUS.

Calcutta, the 9th December, 1890.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The General Administration Report of the Chittagong Division for the year 1889-90.

The report is submitted by Mr. Lyall, who was in charge of the Division during the year with the exception of three months, when Mr. Veasey acted as Commissioner.

2. Owing to political considerations in connection with the Chin-Lushai Expedition, the Commissioner during the touring season could not leave the Kurnafuli Valley, to which the Deputy Commissioner of the Hill Tracts was also confined. The tours made by the Collectors of Chittagong and Tipperah and by all sub-divisional officers were satisfactory, and a deficiency in the case of Noakhally is accounted for sufficiently.

Tours.

3. The weather was favourable for rice and jute throughout the Division and bumper crops of both were obtained in Tipperah. There was, moreover, a happy conjunction of good harvests and high prices, and the Commissioner is able to record:—

Weather, crops, and condition of the people.

"The condition of the agricultural classes, who form the bulk of the population, was raised to a point which it has certainly not reached for many years—probably never in parts of the Division. In Chittagong, in addition to the good harvest, there was a brisk demand for labour in Aracan, so that the people quite got over the bad effects of the previous year. This district, however, has but little surplus crop, and the condition of the people improved less than in the more favoured districts of Noakhally and Tipperah.

"The people of Tipperah were stated last year to have got over the effects of the previous bad years, and the past year has raised the cultivators to a state of prosperity such as they have never before known. Zemindars, including Government, have in consequence realized rent with ease, loans have been repaid, and the Tipperah Loan Bank, Limited, was left at the close of the year with Rs. 30,000 out of its capital of one lakh of rupees uninvested, because there were no borrowers. This is easily understood when the value of the jute crop is considered. The ryots are calculated by the Collector to have received about 42 lakhs of rupees in cash for this crop alone, while its production at a liberal estimate cannot have cost 10 lakhs. The margin of profit is, therefore, very high. The district is so rich that, in spite of the large increase of jute cultivation, it still exports rice largely, and last year both Calcutta and Dacca took large quantities.

"Some people say that the increased cultivation of staples like jute interferes with the food supply. This is not the fact in Tipperah, as the exports of rice from Brahmanbariah show.

"The great bulk of the jute crop is grown in this subdivision, yet last year, it is calculated, rice and paddy to the value of 1½ million rupees were exported from the sub-division alone, without reckoning the exports from the rest of the district."

Even with respect to the Hill Tracts, where there was a partial failure of the important cotton crop and the Lushai Expedition was a disturbing factor, the Commissioner is able to say that "it is many years since the hillmen have been so free of debt as they are at this moment." A considerable number of persons emigrated during the year from these tracts to Hill Tipperah, but the movement appears due to occasional causes not likely to recur. The labourers of Chittagong visited Burma as usual at the busy season and on a somewhat increased scale, returning with sums varying from Rs. 10 to Rs. 80.

With regard to health, the Hill Tracts only are well spoken of; in the remainder of the Division there was considerable mortality from fever, and in Tipperah and Noakhally a large increase of deaths from cholera.

Trdea and Commerce.

4. The following is extracted from the Commissioner's report:—

"The past year has been the best on record as regards the sea-borne trade of the port, in spite of the great falling off in the rice trade.

"The tables below show a falling off of 11 ships engaged in foreign trade, but an increase of tonnage, the average tonnage having increased from 1,233 tons to 1,447. If ships sailing under foreign flags be excluded, the average tonnage of ships sailing under the British flag is 1,602 tons. Interportal trade has also increased largely both in the number of ships engaged and in tonnage. This is partly due to the British India Steam Navigation Company's running two steamers a week for part of the year and partly to the larger quantity of jute imported:—

'The value of the total sea-borne trade of the port increased by the large sum of Rs 51,13,005, the figures being Rs. 3,16,96,588 as against Rs. 2,65,83,583. Until now the figures of 1887-88 were the highest, but the past year shows an increase of Rs. 26,13,788 as compared with them. So recently as 1876-77 the whole value of the trade of the port was only Rs. 54,39,320, or little more than the increase of the past year, and in these 13 years the value of the trade of the port has sextupled itself, and this with no increased facilities.

"When the Assam Railway is in working, the growth should be even faster, and it is difficult to understand why, in the face of such an increase of trade, there should be any hesitation in making the railway."

The Commissioner gives tables of articles of export and import and explains the fluctuations. There was a large decrease in the export of rice and paddy, the boat traders who generally supply Chittagong preferring to meet the demand in the western districts of Bengal as involving less danger to their boats and cargo. The great increase in the export of jute gives the Commissioner occasion to insist on the advantages that would accrue from a railway. He says:—

"The export of jute is the highest on record, being 222,843 cwt. over last year and 89,222 cwt. higher than 1887-88, which was up to then the highest figure.

"The growth of the jute export trade is very remarkable. It began in 1877-78, when the exports amounted to 130,775 cwt. Five years after, in 1882-83, it amounted to 1,149,257 cwt., and now it has reached 1,505,703 cwt., and this large figure would speedily be doubled if a railway were constructed.

"I do not use the word 'doubled' unadvisedly, but deliberately and with the full conviction that I am not guilty of exaggeration."

The export of tea was 1,172,549lb this year as compared with 1,222,786lb last year; the decrease of 50,237lb is attributed to weather unfavourable for production. In the Hill Tracts the trade in india-rubber is stated to have almost died out, the trees being probably exhausted.

Port of Chittagong

5. The port of Chittagong under the Commissioners of the Port Trust (this being their first complete year of management) appears to be in a flourishing condition. The port fund closed with a credit balance of Rs. 1,10,397-5-3. The pilotage fund shows a debit balance of Rs. 4,970-6-4½, which will probably be decreased during the year. The barque Grosvenor was wrecked during the year, the William Duthie was destroyed by fire, and a fire, which was happily extinguished, occurred on board the barque Ophelia partly loaded with jute. Stringent rules are under consideration to meet this source of danger.

Crime and Police and Criminal justice.

6. There was an increase in reported crime, from 14,955 cases in 1888 to 15,713 in 1889, which is accounted for only in so far as the prosperity of the cultivators afforded them greater facilities for petty prosecutions, and the demand for jute land in Tipperah led to the institution of charges of riot, trespass or mischief. Agrarian disputes of every kind are evidently in this Division a fertile source of crime, or at least of collisions involving subsequent magisterial proceedings; and it is to be hoped that the settlement of the Chittagong district, which is being effected at present, may ultimately bring about permanent improvement in this respect, by removing the uncertainty as to possession or ownership which is at the root of such contentions. The Commissioner considers that the conduct of the police and of the chowkidars was good on the whole, noticing that in one important case considerable detective ability was displayed, and that there were few convictions of officers. The returns, however, show that an unusual proportion of prosecutions were unsuccessful, a failure attributed by the Commissioner to pressure of work which, he thinks, prevented Magistrates giving due attention to some cases, particularly in Chittagong and Tipperah. The explanation is of a novel character, and is hardly borne out by the facts that the percentage of convictions was lowest, not in Chittagong or Tipperah, but in the comparatively small district of Noakhally; and that it was most conspicuous in cases tried by benches. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with satisfaction the high tribute paid to the efficiency and good services of the frontier police.

Revenue collections.

7. The collections on account of land revenue were good, inasmuch as they exceeded the current demand and considerably reduced the outstanding balance. In regard to direct management the Commissioner observes:—

"The system of khas collection in Chittagong is now, I consider, an assured success, and Government is collecting a large and safe revenue at a cost of under 10 per cent. (9·5 was the exact figure last year), instead of paying 20 per cent. to izaradars and realizing from them with difficulty. All the five circles collected over 100 per cent. on the current demand, which was Rs. 3,94,874, the collections being Rs. 4,36,457. The highest percentage on the current demand was 119, which was obtained in the Raozan circle.

"In Tipperah, although the returns show a balance of Rs. 3,154 in estates under direct management, this was reduced by collections and remissions to Rs. 2,441, while advance collections reached the sum of Rs. 3,431, so that actually Rs. 990 were collected in excess of the whole demand, arrear and current. These figures prove the prosperous state of the district beyond contradiction."

In Noakhally results were not so good, and a scheme has since been prepared for effecting an improvement in the system.

In the Hill Tracts collections also improved, the table showing Rs. 2,51,651-3-4 as against Rs. 1,74,599-0-3 last year. But about Rs. 65,000 of this increase consists of a large accession to the post-office revenue, due to the Chin-Lushai Expedition.

Local self-government institutions.

8. The Commissioner notices the bad influence which is not unfrequently exercised in the administration of boards and municipalities by party spirit arising out of personal questions. But, he adds,—"in spite of such drawbacks, much good work has been done during the past year, particularly by the Tipperah Board, who have also ceased to employ primary school money in supporting higher class schools. They have in hand or in contemplation some really useful new roads and are about to deepen some important khals, and have taken up the question of increasing the number of dispensaries and of improving the water-supply of the district in a business-like spirit. They have also fostered improved steamer communication with other districts. The Noakhally Board, I think, showed a want of appreciation of the importance of improving the inland water system of the district in deciding to drop the scheme for improving the Nadona khal, but they seem now disposed to take it up again."

Conduct of zemindars.

9. The Lieutenant-Governor desires to take this opportunity of acknowledging the valuable services of the tribal Chiefs in the Hill Tracts in getting together men for the Chin-Lushai Expedition. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are given to Mr. Lyall for his excellent administration of the Division during the past and many previous years. The remarks of the Commissioner regarding the conduct of officers will, as usual, be forwarded to the Appointment Department; those upon Mr. Slack, Collector of Chittagong, are noticed by His Honour as particularly favourable.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

REPORT ON EMIGRATION FROM THE DISTRICT OF SARUN.

THE following report is published at the suggestion of the Commissioner of Patna for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secretary. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 4th December, 1890.

No. 609G., dated Bankipore, the 30th September, 1890.

From—W. KEMBLE, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Patna Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department.

I HAVE the honour to forward a copy of an interesting report by the Collector of Sarun on the emigration from his district for publication, if it is considered advisable, in the Calcutta Gazette. It was first received more than two months ago, but was returned to Mr. Bourdillon at his own request in order that some further and fuller information regarding travellers by railway, which he hoped to be able to procure, might be incorporated in it. These hopes have, however, not been realized, as he has ascertained that as yet most of those who emigrate from Sarun make their journey on foot.

2. The noticeable feature in this emigration is that it is only temporary. So long as the women will not emigrate, and the men send all their earnings back to their homes, returning themselves at intervals, there is no hope of reducing the pressure of the people on the land. Under the circumstances, emigration seems likely to bring about an increase in population.

3. The absence of emigration to Assam is remarkable. I would remark that Goalpara is not one of the Assam tea districts: it belongs properly to the same category as Rungpore. It is satisfactory to see that Sarun men have found their way to Burmah.

No. 1401, dated Chupra, the 8th—10th July, 1890.

From—J. A. BOURDILLON, Esq., Magistrate of Sarun,
To—The Commissioner of the Patna Division.

IN my Annual Administration Report for the year 1889-90, I mentioned that I had been making enquiries about emigration from Sarun, and that I hoped to submit a further report before long. The compilation of the materials for this report has been a more tedious task than I had anticipated, and it is only now that I am able to lay it before you.

2. Four sources of information on this subject are available, viz., (a) the people themselves, through the medium of the police, unofficial Europeans, and other local residents in the district; (b) the statistics of distribution at the census of 1881; (c) the figures of the Postal Department in regard to money-orders paid in Sarun; and, lastly, (d) statistics of passenger traffic on the railway. The facts and inferences afforded by the first three will be found detailed below.

3. Emigration from Sarun should be divided first of all into the quasi-permanent and the temporary. In the former category I place all those cases in which men leave the district for a year or two at a time, or even longer; the temporary emigration, on the other hand, lasts only a few months.

4. The quasi-permanent emigration is affected mostly by two classes of persons—Mahomedans and better class Hindus. The Mahomedans go very largely to Calcutta where they may be found in domestic service as khidmatgars, syces, and drivers of hackney carriages. The better class Hindus go as cartmen and durwans to Calcutta and Darjeeling, while a considerable number of lower caste men, such as Chamars, Dusadhs, and Gareris go as syces. These men remain away for a year or two—sometimes more—making remitances and paying occasional visits to their homes. When a Mahomedan or a low caste Hindu is once well established in a good situation or business, he not infrequently sends for his wife and family.

5. As to the earnings of these people it is difficult to make any exact calculation. They certainly do well, for besides keeping themselves in an expensive place like Calcutta, they remit considerable sums home. Light is sometimes thrown on this side of native life by small incidents. In 1887 a Sarun Mahomedan was executed here for the murder of his aunt following on a quarrel about the expenditure of money he had sent from Calcutta.

It appeared that he had remitted Rs. 80 in two years, and he had led by no means an economical life nor been in continuous employ : the man was by profession a wrestler and as such had travelled literally all over India, but had been, among other things, a gentleman's servant, a ticca-garry driver, and a river boatman.

6. The better class Hindu cartman drives down his cart and bullocks to Calcutta, and when he has repaid his mahajan and made as much as he thinks sufficient, he sells them off and returns home.

7. A few are now going to Burmah voluntarily, besides the very considerable numbers in the Burmah Military Police. These are chiefly domestic servants, such as dhobis, sweepers, and bearers, and they generally follow some relation or fellow villager who has preceded them to this El Dorado.

8. The tea districts and the colonies generally known as "Mirich" (Mauritius) get very few men from Sarun, and the figure of the recruiter is seldom seen. The few who do go to the labour districts go privately following some friend or relation, while my experience of the emigrants over sea is that they are usually people who, for some reason for other, find absence from their village advisable. A few do go however. Mr. Reid of Moniara quotes the case of a man in his dehat who has returned from Natal with Rs. 10,000. In another part of the district two coolies from the Mauritius, husband and wife, brought back a sum of Rs. 3,500, which proved a veritable Pandora's box to them.

9. On the whole, however, the quasi-permanent emigrants do not contribute one-tenth of the Sarun men who may be found in the cold weather scattered all over Upper India. These are mostly mere winter visitants, and to them I now turn.

10. Even in a district so purely agricultural as this, there is not constant employment in the fields for all its swarming population except at one season of the year. The first season of agricultural leisure (to follow the order of the Hindu year) is when the rubbi is sown : this is usually accomplished by the end of Kartic (middle of November), and then nothing has to be done except by the poppy cultivators till Phagun-Chait when the rubbi has to be cut (March and April). Moreover, the indigo manufacturing season is over and cattle and men all require rest. But even in the rubbi harvest all the men of a family are not required, for the light crops of an Indian harvest are gathered very largely in this district by women and children. Consequently there is no work for all the men till the rain falls, when the lands have to be prepared and the bhadoi and the rice sown, and when this is done it is time to commence once more the cutting and carting of indigo for manufacture.

11. Seeing, then, that their presence at home is absolutely necessary only from June till November, an immense number of Sarun men spend the months from December to May elsewhere. As soon as the rubbi is sown, the exodus begins. Formerly it was confined to the lower classes, but of late years it has been shared by all. Three great characteristics, besides that of brevity, distinguish this emigration from the other, viz., the emigrants go in other directions, all classes go, and hardly any women go except to very near-at-hand places.

12. The destination of a vast proportion of the winter emigrants is "the East" as they themselves call it, and when pressed for further detail it will be found that this means Purneah and Bhagulpore in the Bhagulpore Division, Bogra, Rungpore and Darjeeling in the Rajshahye Division; or further east still, beyond Calcutta and Howrah—the districts of Dacca and Mymensingh. Field labour of the simplest description is the object of these men, such as digging and cleaning tanks, repairing roads, making railway embankments and harvesting the winter rice crop. When women go they either work with their husbands, or else earn an income by grinding corn for the Banias. Some few follow the homely slighted Kahar's trade; while the great majority of those who go to Calcutta and Howrah work as common coolies in the streets, or as mill hands in the mills round the metropolis. The earthwork of the Assam-Behar Railway through Purneah, and of the Northern Bengal Railway in Rungpore, Bogra and Dinagepore, has been largely constructed by Sarun men, and the preparation of the Mymensing-Dacca Branch of the Eastern Bengal Railway attracted a considerable number who now repeat their annual visit to cut the jute in Mymensing and load it in Dacca and Naraingunge.

13. The result of many enquiries seems to show that these emigrants, provided that they keep their health, make about Rs. 50 or Rs. 60 each as profit. Part of this is sent home by money-order when half of their stay is over, and the remainder they bring with them in May and June. Out of this the mahajan has to be paid who advanced them the money necessary for their railway or road expenses and supplied the immediate wants of the family at home till remittances arrived from the eastward. I calculate, therefore, that a net profit of Rs. 30 or Rs. 40 is about what an ordinarily fortunate man makes over the trip. But the proviso quoted above is a very important one, and it is significant how universal is its introduction into all conversations on the subject. Fever is what the Behari fears in Bengal, and the fear of it is another potent inducement driving him home before the rains set in.

14. Mr. Hodding of Burhoga states that a native in his district has started an emigration agency. He charges Re. 1 a head for his services and interest at 25 per cent. on money advanced. In consideration of these payments he gives all information as to route, organizes parties, and lends money merely on personal security. He is said to be doing a good business.

15. The above facts, based mostly on the statements of planters and others, are fully borne out by the figures of the census and the statistics of the Postal Money-order Department.

16. On the 17th February 1881, the number of Sarun born men found in other districts of these provinces was 124,211, and they were most numerous in the following districts:—

Chumparun ...	... 44,835	Purneah ...	... 2,824
Mozufferpore ...	... 10,995	24-Pergunnahs ...	... 2,798
Calcutta and Suburbs	... 9,081	Shahabad ...	... 2,204
Rungpore ...	... 7,269	Howrah ...	... 2,112
Patna ...	... 6,813	Dinagepore ...	... 2,068
Mymensingh ...	... 5,124	Monghyr ...	... 1,979
Durbhunga ...	... 3,593	Maldah ...	... 1,712
Bhagulpore ...	... 3,335	Tipperah ...	... 1,534

17. Omitting the other districts of the Patna Division between which and Sarun there is of course a constant coming and going, it will be seen that the districts stand in the following order:—

Calcutta and Suburbs,	Bhagulpore,	Dinagepore,
Rungpore,	Purneah,	Monghyr,
Mymensingh,	24-Pergunnahs,	Maldah,
	Howrah,	Tipperah,

and this supports very closely the statements of local experts. Still further confirmation to them is afforded by an examination of the comparative figures for male and female emigrants. In Calcutta and the Suburbs and in Howrah, where, as I have said, it is more common for emigrants to settle for some time, the proportion of women to men is 1 in 4, and in the 24-Pergunnahs it is 1 in 5; while in Dinagepore and Rungpore it is 1 in 10 and in Mymensingh, which contributes many boatmen, 1 in 41. In Purneah, Bhagulpore, Maldah and Monghyr, which are districts nearer home, the proportion is from 1 in 2½ (Bhagulpore) to 1 in 8 in Maldah.

18. The statistics of the Postal Department afford similar information. By the courtesy of that department the registers of all money-orders paid in Sarun between the 1st January and 31st December 1889 were placed at my disposal, and I had them tabulated under my supervision.

The total amount paid away in that period was Rs. 11,22,350, and deducting the sum of Rs. 82,056, paid on orders issued from post-offices in the Sarun district, and which represent only local remittances, there remains a sum of Rs. 10,40,294 paid into the district from outside.

19. How much of this sum was sent in the way of family remittances, and how much in the course of trade or business, it is obviously impossible to say; but it is to be remembered that the money-order system has not yet touched that of remittance by hoondi and cheque, as means of adjusting commercial transaction, and it is to be noticed that the general average value of each of these money-orders was less than Rs. 20. When it is recollected also that whatever mercantile remittances took place were probably for largest sums, thus raising the general average, the conclusion seems incontrovertible that a vast majority of these orders were for very small sums and almost certainly family remittances.

20. I have tabulated in an appendix the localities from which these money-orders issued, and if the figures do not absolutely prove that Sarun men travel all over India, they show that they have correspondents all over the Empire.

21. The following is the order in which the different revenue divisions of these provinces stand in respect of their remittances, and lower down some district figures will be given:—

	Rs.		Rs.
Calcutta	1,44,935	Chittagong Division ...	12,766
Burdwan Division ...	92,144	Patna (excluding Sarun) ...	1,52,967
Presidency „ ...	72,818	Bhagulpore Division ...	83,994
Rajshahye „ ...	1,62,673	Orissa „ ...	2,287
Dacca „ ...	84,376	Chota Nagpore „ ...	15,941

The Rajshahye Division, it will be seen, is far ahead, and exceeds even the Calcutta remittances and those from the Patna Division, for it contains the districts of Darjeeling, Julpigoree and Rungpore. The Burdwan Division owes it high position to the figures for Hooghly and Howrah, the Presidency Division to the inclusion of the 24-Pergunnahs, and those of Dacca and Bhagulpore to the figures respectively for Mymensingh and Purneah.

22. Taking the districts in order, the first 16 are as follows:—

	Rs.		Rs.
Calcutta	1,44,935	Purneah	31,086
Darjeeling	65,548	Rungpore	29,595
Chumparun	51,671	Mozufferpore	25,274
Mymensingh ...	47,884	Dacca	23,182
24-Pergunnahs ...	45,649	Durbhunga	22,782
Julpigoree	40,507	Patna	22,325
Howrah	40,461	Bhagulpore	20,311
Hooghly	35,756	Monghyr	18,727

23. Omitting, as in paragraph 17 above, the other districts of the Patna Division, the order is as follows :—

Calcutta.	Julpigoree.	Rungpore.
Darjeeling.	Howrah.	Dacca.
Mymensingh.	Hooghly.	Bhagulpore.
24-Pergunnahs.	Purneah.	Monghyr.

A reference back to paragraph 17 will show that the home districts eliminated in each case are the same, viz., Chumparun, Mozufferpore, Patna, Durbhunga, and in the emigrant list only Shahabad.

24. But the close similarity will be all the clearer if the two lists are placed in juxtaposition as below, when it will be noticed that out of the 15 names which appear, eight are common to both lists and only seven appear in only one list, viz., Dinagepore, Maldah and Tipperah in the census list, and Darjeeling, Julpigoree, Hooghly and Dacca in the other—

Districts arranged by census figures.	Districts arranged by postal money-orders.
Calcutta and Suburbs.	Calcutta.
Rungpore.	Darjeeling.
Mymensingh.	Mymensingh.
Bhagulpore.	24-Pergunnahs.
Purneah.	Julpigoree.
24-Pergunnahs.	Howrah.
Howrah.	Hooghly.
Dinagepore.	Purneah.
Monghyr.	Rungpore.
Maldah.	Dacca.
Tipperah.	Bhagulpore.
	Monghyr.

25. I do not know that much more remains to be said on the subject, except that I would draw attention to the figures for Assam in the appendix as bearing out my statement that very few Sarun men go to the Assam tea districts. The whole of Assam sends only Rs. 87,183, and there is only one district, viz., Goalpara, which sends more than Rs. 10,000.

26. The Burmah figures also are significant, and the total amounts to Rs. 46,951, of which Rs. 22,692, or nearly half, comes from Rangoon alone. It is also interesting to note that of the whole sum, only Rs. 4,908 was paid in the Sewan circle, thus leading to the conclusion that an appreciation of Burmah and its advantages as a colony has not yet reached into the more distant part of the district. It is also to be noted that nearly all the villages which send recruits to the army and the Burmah Police are in the south and east of the district.

27. Over the passenger statistics in the half-yearly revenue reports of the Bengal and North-Western Railway I have spent a good deal of time without much result. I had hoped to get figures showing month by month the passenger traffic out of the district and into the district, and the places whither and whence our railway passengers travelled. But I found that the preparation of these statistics was so elaborate and expensive an undertaking that it had to be abandoned. From the abstracts given in the reports I find that the inward passenger traffic by Digha Ghât is greater in the second-half year than in the first (Sonepore no doubt accounts for some of this), and that the outward passenger traffic, which, if many Sarun emigrants went by train, would be much larger in the second-half year than in the first, is in reality a good deal smaller, even though it includes the visitors returned from Sonepore.

28. This result is disappointing to me, as I had expected to find further proof in these figures of what I have already pointed out as a law of emigration ; but it fully supports the allegations of many of my informants in the district, viz., that a vast majority of the Sarun emigrants tramp every foot of the way out and home.

Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the Crops.

Statement showing Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the Crops in the different districts of Bengal, as reported to Government, during the week ending the 6th December 1890.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL.
	Western Districts.
Burdwan Divn. 1	Burdwan Dec. 6, '90	Nil	Weather—bright and cold. Amun paddy being reaped with good outturn. Rubbi crops doing well. Prices of common rice:— Srs. Sudder ... ... 16¾ Culna ... ... 16 Cutwa ... ... 19-8/16 Ranigunge ... ... 17 } per rupee.
2	Bankoora „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—bright and cold. Amun harvest has commenced. Rubbi eaten by locusts in places. Such lands have been resown. Another swarm of locusts has just passed over the Sudder station from south-west to north-east. The size and colour of the insects are the same as of those that appeared on the 21st ultimo. Common rice selling at 20 seers per rupee at Sudder and 20½ seers at Bissenpore.
3	Birbhum „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. The crops are being gathered in. Price of rice from 17 to 24 seers per rupee.
4	Midnapur „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable; growing colder. Amun rice being generally reaped; about 12 annas outturn expected. Prices of common rice:— Srs. Sudder ... ... 18 Tumlook ... ... 16 Ghatal ... ... 16 Contai ... ... 18 } per rupee.
5	Hooghly „ 6, '90	Nil	Cold weather set in completely. Prospects of crops good. Outturn of rice may be expected to be 12 annas. Potatoes, peas, &c, expected to turn out well. Prices of common rice:— Srs. Sudder ... ... 13½ Serampore ... ... 13½ Jehanabad ... ... 16½ } per rupee.
6	Howrah „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops good. Amun crop being reaped. Coarse rice sells at 14½ seers per rupee.
	Central Districts.
Presidency Divn. 7	24-Perghs. Dec. 9, '90	Nil	Weather seasonable. Prospects of crops good Harvesting of amun and sowing of winter crops still continue. Locusts which appeared in parts of the Barrackpore, Baraset, and Bassirhat subdivisions are reported not to have done much damage to the crops. Price of common rice from 13 to 20 seers per rupee.
8	Nuddea „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of winter rice, kalai, mung, and til going on. Prospects good.
9	Khoolna „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of amun in progress. Prospects favourable except in flooded area.
10	Jessore „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of amun and sowing of winter crops going on. Locusts have done some injury to the crops in all subdivisions except Jhenidah. Price of rice stationary, and prospects of standing crops good.
11	Moorshedabad „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cool. Amun being harvested. Prospects of rubbi favourable. Kalai doing well.
Rajshahye Divn. 12	Dinagepur „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops continue good. Mustard sown to the extent of 10 annas. Price of rice unchanged.
13	Rajshahye „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of amun continues. Reaping of sugarcane commenced. Condition of standing crops good. Sowing of winter crops begun. Transplantation of tobacco not finished.
14	Rungpur „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cloudy with morning fogs. Great damage reported to have been done to the ripening paddy in many places by caterpillars. In other respects prospects are good all round.
15	Bogra „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. State and prospects of crops satisfactory. Harvesting of winter rice and sowing of spring crops going on; some of the latter are growing well. Common rice selling at 16 seers per rupee.
16	Pubna „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops continue good. Amun being harvested. Mustard and tobacco sowings going on. Prices stationary.
17	Darjeeling „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cold and misty. Winter rice being harvested. In the hills bara marua and fafar doing well. Prospects good. Aghani rice in Terai now estimated at 16 annas.
18	Julpigoree „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Haimanti paddy being cut; about 15 annas outturn expected. Sowing of mustard and tobacco going on. No change in the price of rice.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL—concluded.
	Eastern Districts.
Dacca Divn. 19	Dacca — Dec. 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of amun going on. Winter crops being sown. In thana Monohardi mung, kalai, and other rubbi crops reported to have been damaged by locusts. Price of common rice from 13 to 17 seers per rupee.
Dacca Divn. 20	Furreedpur — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of amun in progress. Sowing of winter crops will shortly be finished. Common rice selling at from 14 to 18 seers per rupee. Locusts appeared again on the 3rd instant.
Dacca Divn. 21	Backergunge — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cold and seasonable. State and prospects of crops good. Harvesting of amun commenced. Common rice selling at 13½ seers per rupee.
Dacca Divn. 22	Mymensingh — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—mornings foggy; days clear, but occasionally cloudy. Reaping of amun paddy has begun. Rubbi crops doing well. Sugarcane ripening. Coarse rice sells at 16½ seers per rupee.
Chittagong Divn. 23	Chittagong — „ 9, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Cultivation of vegetable crop nearly over. Harvesting of early winter rice continues. State and prospects of amun very good. Prices steady.
Chittagong Divn. 24	Noakholly — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Reaping of amun and sowing of rubbi crops continue. Prospects good.
Chittagong Divn. 25	Tipperah — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cold and sunshiny. Amun being cut. Cold-weather crops doing well.
Chittagong Divn. 26	Chittagong Hill Tracts. — „ 4, '90	Nil	Weather—cold with foggy mornings throughout the week. Gathering of cotton continues. Mustard and other cold-weather crops progressing. Harvesting of late rice crop commenced. Common rice being sold at 11 seers 6¾ chittacks per rupee.
BEHAR.
Patna Divn. 27	Patna — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cold. Harvesting of paddy in progress. Rahar in flower. Rubbi crops look well. Prospects of poppy continue good. Prices of food-grains show a tendency to fall.
Patna Divn. 28	Gya — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cold. Harvesting of paddy continues. Prospects of rubbi and poppy favourable. Prices of food-grains falling.
Patna Divn. 29	Shahabad — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cool and bright with light west winds. State of all crops excellent. Harvesting of paddy continues. Price of rice falling.
Patna Divn. 30	Durbhunga — „ 6, '90	Nil	West winds prevailing. Harvesting of rice crop in progress. Rubbi crops have germinated well. Tobacco and rahar promising. Weather favourable for poppy plants. Price of common rice varying from 17 to 18 seers per rupee.
Patna Divn. 31	Mozufferpur — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of all crops continue good. Harvesting of aghani rice commenced. Poppy doing well.
Patna Divn. 32	Sarun — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—colder than before. Rubbi sowings completed; prospects excellent. Poppy sowings approaching completion. Paddy harvest commenced; outturn estimated in Sudder subdivision at 5 annas, in Sewan 8 annas, and in Gopalgunge 14 annas.
Patna Divn. 33	Chumparun — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cool; occasionally cloudy. Rubbi and poppy sowings coming to a close; germination healthy and young plants doing well. Harvesting of paddy in progress; new rice has begun to come into the market. Prices tending to fall.
Bhagulpore Divn. 34	Monghyr — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of winter rice in progress. Rubbi sowings still going on. Prospects continue favourable.
Bhagulpore Divn. 35	Bhagulpore — „ 6, '90	Nil	Harvesting of rice progressing fairly.
Bhagulpore Divn. 36	Purneah — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—Nights cool. Sun getting less warm during the day. Aghani rice still being harvested. Prospects of rubbi crops favourable. Mustard doing well.
Bhagulpore Divn. 37	Maldah — „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—fine and cool. Strong westerly wind began to blow. Harvesting of winter rice going on. Other standing crops doing well. Price of common rice stationary.
Bhagulpore Divn. 38	Sonthal Perghs. — „ 6, 90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of aghani crop still going on. Sugarcane pressing has commenced in Deoghur. Prospects of crops good.

	No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
ORISSA.
Orissa Divn.	39	Cuttack Dec. 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Planting of tobacco going on. Prospects of guru sarad (late winter rice) good.
	40	Pooree „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Laghu sarad (early winter rice) being harvested. Late sarad ripening. Dalua crop being sown. Miscellaneous crops doing well. Price of common rice from 21 to 27 seers per rupee.
	41	Balasore „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Winter rice being harvested. Rubbi crops, sugarcane, and mustard promising.
		South-West Frontier Agency.
Chota Nagpore Divn.	42	Hazaribagh Dec. 6, '90	Nil	Weather—cold and seasonable. Harvesting of winter rice continues. Rubbi crops doing well. Prospects of poppy continue favourable.
	43	Lohardugga „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Harvesting of winter rice continues. Rain badly wanted for rubbi.
	44	Singbhoom „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—warm for the season and somewhat cloudy. Harvesting of winter rice continues with excellent results. Prospects of rubbi also excellent.
	45	Manbhoom „ 6, '90	Nil	Weather—fairly cool. Rice crop may be said to be a bumper one. Locusts have been seen in the district for some 3 or 4 days past; it is feared that some damage has been done to the rubbi crops.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER 1890.

THE normal features of the meteorology of Bengal during November are very simple. Northerly winds blow over the whole of Bengal, and these usually extend as a north-easterly wind current over the north and centre of the Bay. These northerly winds are dry, and usually give in Bengal almost cloudless skies; temperature also diminishes steadily during the month, the diminution being strongly marked in the night temperatures, and humidity is low. As a rule, little or no rain falls unless it is brought up by one or other of two kinds of disturbances, which almost reverse the normal weather conditions. The first class of disturbances consist of cyclonic storms which are formed in the middle or south of the Bay in front of the retreating south-west monsoon. When they form, as they do occasionally, they usually advance towards the Madras coast, and expend their main force over the south of the peninsula, but sometimes they advance towards the north of the Bay. In the first case, they generally modify the weather over the whole of the Bay; and if the disturbance is a large one, humid winds will again be forced over Bengal, when skies will cloud over and temperature and humidity rapidly increase, and rain may fall, particularly over the southern parts of the province. In the second case, if a large and influential storm which has formed in the Bay advances towards Bengal and should happen to strike the coast, the weather conditions in Bengal will naturally be entirely reversed. Over the area where the storm passes excessively heavy rain will fall, and if the storm be a large one, the whole of Bengal will feel its effects, and general rain may be brought up for a considerable period. The second class of disturbances consist of land-formed barometric depressions, which originate over Upper India and drift sometimes over Bengal, giving clouded skies, increased humidity and temperature, and sometimes light rain. These land-formed disturbances seldom occur in November; and if they do occur, they are generally of very little importance.

Except, therefore, for rainfall brought up by the occurrence of storms in the Bay, as a rule, the province is almost rainless in November. Its occurrence and distribution are therefore very capricious, and the normal rainfall of November in Bengal is extremely small, Orissa usually receives a fall of about an inch and-a-third, and East Bengal one of about an inch; but in the other districts the fall is only from about a tenth up to a third of an inch.

Meteorology of the month.—At the commencement of November weather conditions in the south of the Bay of Bengal were distinctly unsettled, though at no time did the disturbed conditions concentrate to form a definite storm. The disturbance was, however, sufficiently influential to affect the weather conditions over the southern half of Bengal, and cloudy weather with a decidedly moist atmosphere obtained, and occasional rain fell during the first week of November. In Orissa the fall was general, but in South-West, East and North Bengal and in Chutia Nagpur showers only were reported. Cool clear weather, on the other hand, obtained during this period over Behar and over the northern districts of Bengal. At the end of the first week, however, weather conditions began to improve with the disappearance of the unsettled weather in the Bay, and during the second week of November fine weather prevailed almost without interruption throughout the week. The general conditions during this time underwent very little change from day to day, and conditions were fairly normal, except that pressure was above the average, while temperature fell pretty steadily throughout the week. The north-east monsoon season may indeed be said to have thoroughly set in over the whole of Bengal from the end of the first week in November, and from this date up till the end of the month conditions were of the ordinary cold weather character, and the changes which have taken place from day to day have been of the usual oscillatory nature which characterizes fine settled weather. Barometric pressure has remained high, and the mean for the month is very distinctly above the normal. Temperature has generally fallen by small amounts up till the close of the month, and the mean temperature for the month has been slightly below the normal. Humidity after the first few days has been fairly low, though the mean humidity for the month has been distinctly in excess of the usual amount. The sky during this period has also been generally only lightly clouded; indeed, if anything, rather less clouded than usual, and at most stations the mean cloud proportion for the month has shown that the sky has only been clouded over to about one or two-tenths of the possible amount. During the last three weeks of November also rainfall has been entirely absent throughout the whole province, the last light showers which fell were reported from Orissa on the 10th and 11th of the month.

Pressure.—During the first week the average pressure was in excess of the normal by amounts which varied from 0·03 inch in Orissa, South-West Bengal, and Chutia Nagpur to about 0·07 inch at some of the more northern stations. In the second week pressure was again in excess by amounts varying from 0·02 inch over the greater part of the province to 0·05 inch in East Bengal. In the third week the excess pressure was rather more pronounced, and it varied from a twentieth of an inch in Behar and North Bengal to a tenth of an inch in the south of Orissa. In the last week of the month also the excess was perhaps even larger than in the third, and it varied usually from six to ten-hundredths of an inch. For the whole month, therefore, pressure has been in excess of the normal, the usual excess varying from about four to seven-hundredths of an inch; the excess being usually largest in East Bengal, where it averaged 0·06 inch, though in Assam the excess was not quite so large as at the stations in East Bengal, for there it only has averaged 0·05 inch.

Temperature—Was very distinctly below the normal for the first three weeks of the month, though in the last week it was almost normal. For the whole month five out of the seven large meteorological divisions shew mean temperatures distinctly below the normal, the defects generally varying from about half to one degree; but, on the other hand, Chutia Nagpur and North Bengal shew mean temperatures of about a third to one degree above the normal. The mean temperature of the whole province for the month may be said to have been only 0·3° below the normal for the period. The general variation of the day and night temperatures from the normal during the month is, however, best seen in the following table, where the weekly variations of the average maximum, minimum, and mean temperatures from the normal are given at nine typical stations in different districts of the province. It will be seen that the variations both of the day and night temperatures have been considerable:—

Rainfall—Was entirely confined to the first ten days of the month, and the only district receiving anything like a considerable fall was Orissa, the stations in which registered an average fall of 1·80 inches, which is slightly above the normal fall for the period. North Bengal received the next largest fall; but this district only averaged 0·22, which is again slightly in excess of the normal. In East Bengal there was an average fall of 0·17 inch only, which is about one-sixth of the usual amount, and in South-West Bengal the fall also averaged 0·17 inch, or about half the usual fall. The other districts received practically no rain at all.

The following table gives in a condensed form the rainfall information for each of the seven large meteorological districts of Bengal for the present year up to the close of November. The numbers there given, as in the case of the former months of the year, are the actual average rainfalls in each month in each district, expressed as a percentage of the normal fall for the period, and the last column also gives the total rainfall up to the end of November expressed as a percentage of the normal amount:—

	Inches.	Date.	Hour
The mean pressure of the month	29·995
The average pressure of November from 24 years' registers ...	29·970
The highest pressure in the month	30·167	23rd	10
The lowest pressure in the month	29·865	2nd	16
The range of pressure	0·302
	Hours.
The total number of hours of bright sunshine during the month	254·1
The maximum possible number of hours of sunshine ...	330·8
The mean temperature of the month	71·4
The average temperature of November from 24 years' registers	74·8
The highest temperature in the month	82·7	4th and 9th.
The lowest temperature in the month	57·4	16th.
The range of temperature during the month	25·3
The mean daily range of temperature	17·4
The greatest range of temperature in one day	21·8	16th.
	Per cent.
The mean humidity of the month	78
The average humidity of November from 24 years' registers ...	72
	Inches.
The mean vapour tension of the month	0·591
The average vapour tension of November from 9 years' registers	0·616
The mean cloud proportion of the month	1·78
The average cloud proportion of November from 13 years' registers	2·64
The total rainfall of the month	0·01
The total rainfall indicated by a Beckley's self-registering rain-gauge (mouth of the gauge about 52 feet above the ground)	Nil
The average fall of November from 48 years' registers ...	0·65
The greatest fall in 24 hours	0·01	2nd.
	Days.
The number of rainy days in the month	1
The average number of rainy days in November from 24 years' registers	2
The mean maximum equilibrium temperature of solar radiation during the month	137·0
The mean difference of sun and air temperatures	57·0
The greatest sun temperature	144·0	1st.
The greatest excess of sun over air temperature	62·6	7th.
The mean temperature of the nocturnal radiation thermometer on woollen cloth	55·9
The mean depression of the nocturnal radiation thermometer below the minimum air temperature at 4 feet above the ground	6·9
The greatest depression of the nocturnal radiation thermometer below the minimum air temperature	9 3	30th.
	Miles.
The mean movement of the wind per day	28·0
The greatest movement of the wind in one day	65·0	24th.
The greatest movement of the wind in one hour	10·0	24th, noon to 1 P.M.
The number of hours with winds from each of the 8 points—

The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park Street Observatory). The barometer is about 3 feet higher at Alipore, and, other things being equal, reads therefore ·003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently about 1·6 lower; and finally, the thermometer which furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during 20 years and upwards is found to read 0·6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the last

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 5TH OF DECEMBER 1890.

THE meteorological changes during the week have again been of very slight importance. On November 29th, or the first day of the week, pressure was decidedly high, and was about 0·05 inch to 0·07 inch in excess of the normal. A fairly steady northerly wind current was blowing over the whole province except at a few stations in the west of Behar, where winds were southerly. Temperature was generally from one to two degrees below the normal except again at many of the stations in Behar, where excess temperature was registered. The sky was also practically clear, and no rain had fallen since the early part of the month. On the 30th November a somewhat rapid fall of the barometer took place which brought pressure almost to the normal amount. This was accompanied by a moderately large fall of temperature in North Bengal and a much smaller fall in all other districts except Chutia Nagpur, and on this day winds were northerly at almost all stations in the province. Humidity and cloud proportion remained to a great extent unchanged. A further and rather more rapid fall of pressure again took place on December 1st, the fall at many stations equalling seven and eight-hundredths of an inch, and thus pressure became for the first time for a considerable period rather largely below the normal. Temperature also fell slightly on the 1st at all stations except those in Behar and Chutia Nagpur, and while the stations in the west of the province showed a temperature considerably in excess of the normal, at the eastern stations there was a very decided defect. On the 2nd pressure had commenced to rise by from two to four-hundredths of an inch, while temperature was generally rising by small amounts; these changes continued, but by rather variable amounts, on the 3rd and on the 4th, though on the 5th pressure and temperature began to fall rapidly, and by the end of the week pressure was from about 0·02 inch to 0·01 inch in defect of the normal in all districts except over part of Behar, where defect was larger than this. Temperature also on the 4th was decidedly in excess of the normal in all districts except South and South-East Bengal, where a defect was registered. The excess on the 5th was large at many of the Behar and Chutia Nagpur stations, and at Chupra, Buxar, Arrah, Dehree, and Ranchee the excess varied from 5° to 7°. Towards the end of the week also the northerly wind current had rapidly decreased in force, and on the 4th westerly and in some cases south-westerly winds were reported in Behar, Chutia Nagpur, and even over large parts of Central and part of East Bengal. Cloud proportion also commenced to increase rather rapidly at a considerable number of stations, though no rainfall of any kind was reported, except slight showers of no practical importance, from one or two stations in the Darjeeling Hills district. The changes therefore during the present week have been decidedly more marked than they were in the week ending November 28th, but still conditions have on the whole been very settled and weather has been fine.

Pressure.—The mean pressure for the week has not been very far removed from the normal, the variations being as a rule not larger than one or two-hundredths of an inch. At most of the stations in Orissa, South-West Bengal and East Bengal, pressure has been in excess, but in the other districts it has generally been in defect.

Temperature.—The mean temperature for the week has been nearly normal in Orissa, South-West and North Bengal, but it has been 2·2° below it in East Bengal. In Behar and Chutia Nagpur, on the other hand, temperature has been in excess of the normal by from 2° to 3°.

The distribution of temperature during the week and its variation from the normal are best seen in the table below, where the average maximum, minimum, and mean temperatures for the week at nine typical stations in different districts of the province are compared with their normal values for the same period. The variations, it will be seen, have been considerable both in the day and night temperatures, though the night temperatures of these nine stations on the whole are below the normal, while the day temperature, are considerably above it :—

Rainfall.—With the exception of a few drops of rain at Siliguri and Buxa in the Darjeeling Hills district, the whole province has been rainless throughout the week.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 5th of December 1890 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV. and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

MEMORANDUM.

Weekly review of births and deaths in twenty-seven of the principal towns of Bengal for the week ending with Saturday, the 22nd November 1890.

BIRTHS.

THE births registered during the week ending with Saturday, the 22nd November 1890, in twenty-seven principal towns of Bengal, excluding one (Gya) from which no return has yet been received, correspond to an annual rate of 27·1 per 1,000 of the aggregate population of the twenty-six towns, which is 985,453. This rate is equal to the average rate of the corresponding week of the past five years, and is below the rate of the corresponding week of any of the past five years except 1886 and 1887, vide the figures below:—

	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.	1889.	Weekly average of five years, 1885–89.	1890.
Ratio of births per 1,000 of the population per annum	28·2	23·4	25·1	29·0	29·0	27·1	27·1

The births registered in each of the last four weeks in each of the twenty-seven principal towns correspond to the following rates per 1,000 of the population:—

Towns.	Weeks ending— 1st Nov. 1890.	8th Nov. 1890.	15th Nov. 1890.	22nd Nov. 1890.	Towns.	Weeks ending— 1st Nov. 1890.	8th Nov. 1890.	15th Nov. 1890.	22nd Nov. 1890.

REVISED WATER-RATE RULES FOR THE SONE CANALS.

Notification No. 435, dated the 9th December 1890.

IN exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 99 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor proposes to make the following revised rules for the Sone Canals, in supersession of those passed in Notification No. 148 of the 20th June 1881, which were published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd June 1881, which, from the date of the publication of these rules, shall cease to have effect, except in so far as they determine the water-rates to be assessed for water supplied under current permits and the date on which they become due and payable.

J. M. McNEILE, Col., R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

1. The Collector, before awarding compensation under section 16 or 76(c), or making a reference under section 17 of the Act, shall obtain the written opinion of the Superintending Canal Officer, which shall form part of the record of proceedings.

2. Except as provided in the Act and these rules, no appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Canal Officer, but the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer, and the Sub-divisional and Divisional Canal Officer shall modify any orders passed by them in accordance with the orders of the Superintending Canal Officer, who shall exercise a general control over the proceedings of all Canal Officers.

3. It will be the duty of the Superintending Canal Officer to issue orders on the following points:—

I.—The limits within which water will be available during the kharif season—(a) for annual leases; (b) for leases for a term of three or seven years.

II.—The distributaries from which water will be supplied during the hot season.

III.—The distributaries from which water will be supplied during the rabi season at a lower rate than that ordinarily charged.

IV.—On sufficient cause being shown, to prohibit the issue of permits for the irrigation of land in specified localities generally or during the kharif season only.

Such public notice as is practicable will be given of the instructions under this rule as long as is possible before they are enforced.

4. Appeals to the Collector under section 91 of the Act, other than those specially provided for in Rule 37, will ordinarily be from an order passed by the Divisional Canal Officer. The Collector may, when the order passed involves (I) the alignment of a village channel, (II) the refusal of the Divisional Canal Officer to accept a block as suitable for the issue of a permit for kharif irrigation, require the Superintending Canal Officer to state his opinion in writing, which shall form part of the record of proceedings in the case.

ON VILLAGE CHANNELS.

5. The Canal Officer shall prepare a list of channels which, previous to the 1st of April 1890, have been ordinarily used as village channels, and enter them in a register prepared in the manner prescribed in Part V of the Act.

6. No village channel not entered in the register made in compliance with the rule immediately preceding as existing on the 1st of April 1890 shall be added thereto except at the written request of the owners thereof. But water shall not be supplied for irrigation through any channel other than a registered village channel.

7. Village channels which may be constructed in future shall not as a rule exceed one mile in length; the length being measured in a straight line from the outlet to the boundary of the part of the village which the channel is intended to irrigate.

8. The sum fixed by the Canal Officer as rent under section 68 of the Act shall not be less than half an anna and shall not exceed four annas per bigah assessed with water-rate.

ON LAMBARDARS.

9. In every permit issued under section 75 of the Act other than Rules 18 or 19 following the name of one or more persons shall be entered as lambardar, who will be responsible for discharging the duties mentioned below:—

I.—Obtaining signatures to applications and certifying to the correctness of the same.

II.—Attending and giving assistance in measuring land irrigated or proposed to be irrigated.

III.—Giving timely information to the Canal Officer or subordinate of any insufficiency in the supply of water and promptly reporting when the irrigation of the leased area on any channel is complete.

IV.—Supervising the distribution of the water supplied through an outlet amongst the persons entitled thereto and reporting any misuse of the same.

V.—Being present when complaints are investigated by a Canal Officer or subordinate and giving information required in connection with the same.

VI.—Receiving parchas from the Canal Officer and distributing the same amongst the persons named therein.

VII.—Reporting before the 20th of October all cases in which crops have been injured by deficiency or irregularity of supply in the kharif season, so that these cases may be investigated before water-rates are demanded.

VIII.—Reporting to the Collector or to such officer as he may appoint mutations in holdings in the case of three or seven year leases.

IX.—Assisting the Collector by pointing out the residences of the persons assessed and identifying them and giving such general information as may be necessary regarding the persons assessed.

10. In the case of leases for the season the remuneration for performing the duties mentioned in clauses I to VII of the rule immediately preceding shall be 2 per cent. on the assessments which shall be paid by the Canal Officer, and for performing the duty mentioned in clause IX 1 per cent. on the collections, which shall be paid by the Collector.

11. In the case of leases for three or seven years, other than those entered into jointly with contractors, the remuneration to be paid to the lambardar for performing the duties mentioned in clauses I to VII of Rule 9 shall be two per cent. yearly on the assessments of the year, which shall be paid by the Canal Officer, and two per cent. yearly on the realizations for performing those mentioned in clauses VIII and IX, which shall be paid by the Collector.

12. The lambardar will be appointed by the Sub-divisional Officer in consultation with the applicants for the lease and must be a substantial person having a beneficial interest in part of the land to be irrigated. There is no objection to different lambardars being appointed to represent sections of the applicants, or to a number of persons being jointly appointed as lambardars on behalf of the whole of the applicants. In case the Sub-divisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of lambardar, he shall nominate a lambardar for approval by the Divisional Canal Officer.

In those cases where an application is made by a contractor and cultivators jointly for a lease for three or seven years the lambardar shall be nominated by the contractor.

13. The Divisional Canal Officer may, for reasons which appear to him to be sufficient and which must be recorded, remove a lambardar from his appointment, and in that case a new lambardar shall be appointed in the manner prescribed in the rule immediately preceding.

14. The Divisional Canal Officer may, with the consent of the lambardar, by a written order, of which the lambardar shall be furnished with a copy, transfer to him the duty of controlling the supply of water through an outlet, and may at any time, by a written order, recall such order. Lambardars to whom such control is transferred shall exercise such power, subject to such general written orders as they may receive from the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, and shall receive 3 per cent. on the assessment in place of 2 per cent. prescribed in rules 10 and 11.

15. The fees sanctioned to be paid to lambardars will only be disbursed if the duties specified have been satisfactorily performed. The Divisional Canal Officer or the Collector may retrench the whole or any part of the fees payable by them respectively in the event of this condition not being complied with. In calculating the fees payable fractions of an anna will be excluded.

ON APPLICATIONS.

16. Applications under section 74 of the Act for permits for irrigation upon leases for a term of years (schedule No. I), or upon kharif season leases (schedule No. II) shall be subject to the following conditions :—

I.—The application must be for a block of land having well-defined boundaries and so situated that adjoining lands will not ordinarily or probably be irrigated by water supplied for the land included in the application.

II.—The application must be in the form annexed to these rules, which states that water-rates will be paid on all lands contained in the block for which an application is presented, whether or no water is required.

III.—The applications may be for a term of three or seven years, or for the season only—

(a)—In the case of applications for the season only the issue of the permit will not necessarily be delayed until the lands have been measured. The boundaries of the block must be stated in the application which must be signed by or by authority of the cultivators of all the land included in the boundaries mentioned, and the approximate area in the occupation of each on the block must be specified. Water-rates will be charged on the areas in the block as found by actual measurement.

(b)—In the case of applications for a term of three or seven years a permit will not be issued until the land has been measured and an application complete in every respect for all the land included in the block has been signed. If water is required to be supplied before the application is completely signed in the manner specified above, an application for water for the season must be made, which will be cancelled on a permit for three or seven years being issued.

(c)—Notice that a permit for three or seven years is required must be given by the 1st of April, and no permit will be issued unless the application is completely signed by the 30th of November, or, with the special sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, by the 1st of March following. An application for a permit for the season must be filed by the 1st of September.

IV.—With the special sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer—

(a) Existing five-year leases may be cancelled and included in an application for a seven or three year lease under the preceding rules.

(b) An application may be made for an addition to a seven or three year lease, which, if granted, shall be considered as part of the original lease and terminate therewith.

17. Applications for irrigation in the rabi season, 25th October to the 25th March, and the hot-weather season, 25th March to the 25th June, will be subject to the following conditions—

I.—The approximate areas of land for which water is required must be stated in the application, which must be signed by or by authority of the occupiers thereof. It must be stated in the application that the water-rates will be paid on the area actually irrigated.

18. Applications for the supply of water by volume for purposes of irrigation will only be entertained on condition that half the amount chargeable is paid to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer when the application is filed, and that a bond is executed in the form attached to these rules as Appendix VI signed by substantial persons pledging themselves to pay such sums as will in the aggregate make up the remainder. The bond will not have reference to the area to be irrigated, but will be in consideration of a particular outlet being kept open for a specified time, and the sums mentioned therein will be recoverable on the certificate of the Canal subordinate that this condition has been fulfilled. Water will be supplied under this rule from the 1st of September to the 31st of October only.

19. Applications for the supply of water by volume for filling aharas will be in the form attached to these rules as Appendix VII. The entire charge will be payable in advance. Water will be supplied under this rule from the 1st of November to the 25th of March only.

ON PERMITS.

20. All permits for the use of water issued under section 75 of the Act shall be subject to the following conditions:—

I.—That the water is supplied for the sole purpose of irrigating the land mentioned in the application. The term 'irrigating' includes the right to drain (nigar) the land at the proper season of the year.

II.—That water will be supplied at the level at which it is ordinarily maintained in the distributary from which water is taken off and that no earthen bunds or other works will be constructed to raise the level of the water in the distributary. No right to flow irrigation is conferred unless existing appliances admit of it.

III.—That a lambardar shall be appointed in the manner specified in Rule 12 to represent the interests of the cultivators and to perform the duties mentioned in Rule 8.

IV—That the village channel from which water is supplied is kept in a proper state of repair, so that water shall not be wasted.

V.—That water-rates are paid when due.

VI.—That water supplied for the irrigation of a specified block of land shall not, under colour of the permit, be utilized for the irrigation of land beyond the boundaries specified in the application.

NOTE—Where these conditions are infringed appropriate penalties or disabilities to the extent specified in the Act or these rules will be enforced.

21. A permit shall not be issued where, in the opinion of the Canal Officer, waste is likely to occur. In the order refusing a permit on this ground, the manner on which it is apprehended that waste will occur shall be stated.

22. Permits for irrigation upon leases for a term of years (schedule No. I) or upon kharif season leases (schedule No. II) shall be issued under the following conditions:—

I.—The land to be irrigated must form a compact block defined by well-marked boundaries of such a nature as clearly to distinguish leased from the adjoining unleased lands, and also be so situated that unleased lands will not be ordinarily or probably irrigated by water supplied for the land included in the block. The boundaries must be mentioned in the application for a permit for the season, and in the notice referred to in Rule 16*e* when a permit for a three or seven year lease is applied for.

II.—The Canal Officer may exclude lands included in the block not irrigable by flow or for which canal water is ordinarily not required. In the case of permits for three or seven years the block must be not less than 50 bigahs in area. In cases where the Divisional Canal Officer considers it advisable to grant a permit to a block of less area than that mentioned above, the previous sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer must be obtained. No permit for seven years shall be issued unless the owners of the village channel from which water is to be obtained have been registered and the channel itself is in a good state of repair such as to fit it for the conveyance of water without wastage occurring. Such leases will not be issued unless it is known from the experience of previous years' irrigation that a sufficient supply of water is always available and that the quantity required is not excessive.

III.—Permits for three years will be issued on the same conditions as those for seven, except that, as the term for which Government is bound is shorter somewhat less favourable conditions as to situation, soil, and the quantity of water required will be accepted.

IV.—A permit for a three or seven years' lease may be cancelled by the Superintending Canal Officer with effect from a date to be specified in the order for good cause on the application of all the signatories thereto.

V.—Permits for the season will be issued on the same conditions as those for three years, the essential difference being in the duration of the lease and the later period up to which applications are received."

23. Permits for irrigation in the rabi and hot-weather seasons, 25th October to 25th June, will be issued on the following condition :—

I.—Water-rates will be levied on the area actually irrigated, and not on that specified on the application.

II.—The applicants will undertake to give the lambardar notice to close the outlet so soon as the area requiring irrigation has received a sufficient supply of water.

III.—The applicants will undertake to, as far as is practicable, prevent water supplied being wasted or applied to the irrigation of fields not included in the application.

ON DISABILITIES AND PENALTIES.

24. At the request of the Collector, the Superintending Canal Officer may direct the Divisional Canal Officer to—

I—Cease to issue permits for the irrigation of land in villages where there have been constant difficulties in realizing water-rates until all the arrears of water-rates due are paid up, and also, if specially required, unless half the amount due for the ensuing year under future applications are paid up in advance. An order under this rule shall be in force for the time stated therein, which shall not exceed three years.

II.—Cancel any three or seven years' lease if on the 1st of June of any year water-rates are in arrears by more than half a year's demand.

25. The Divisional Canal Officer may, with the concurrence of the Collector and the sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, cancel a three or seven years' lease if water is habitually misused or wasted. Such an order shall have effect from the 25th June next ensuing, and two months' notice at least must be given to the lambardars for the information of the cultivators.

ON THE SUPPLY OF WATER.

26. I.—Any Canal Officer may, in the case of pressing emergency, stop the supply of water to any canal or distributary. If such order is passed by an officer below the rank of a Divisional Canal Officer, it shall forthwith be reported to the Divisional Canal Officer, and if the stoppage exceeds five days in duration to the Superintending Canal Officer.

II.—The Sub-divisional Canal Officer may, by written order under section 76*a*, stop the supply to any village channel when he is satisfied, after inspection by himself or by one of his subordinates, that it is not maintained in proper repair ; such order shall be recorded in the sub-divisional office.

III.—No person shall be entitled to be supplied with water until the village channel has been put in a proper state of repair in accordance with directions given by the Sub-divisional Canal Officer.

IV.—The Canal Officer or any of his subordinates may temporarily close an outlet supplying a village channel from which unauthorized irrigation is at the time the outlet is closed being carried on.

27. The Divisional Canal Officer may close the outlets in rotation as he may consider necessary. Such closure shall not, in the kharif season, exceed five days after ten days of consecutive supply and shall be notified to lambardars.

28. No water shall be supplied nor shall any person be entitled to a supply of water until a permit signed by a Canal Officer authorized to sign a permit has been signed and issued.

29. The Canal Officer will be responsible that the supply through the outlet is in the kharif season maintained in accordance with the entries on the permits, and in the rabi season in accordance with the requirements of the crops. In both seasons it will be the duty of the lambardar to inform the Canal Officer or Subordinate when the area under lease has been fully irrigated, so that the outlet may be closed, or if he has under rule 14 been given charge of the outlet to close it himself.

ON DEMAND STATEMENTS.

30. The statements of the amounts demandable for water-rates leviable under the rules in force shall be prepared, under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer, in such form as shall from time to time be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor.

31. The demand statements for water-rates due under three or seven years' leases shall be prepared at the same time as the application, and a copy thereof shall be given to the lambardar as well as a karcha for each signatory to the lease with the permit. No further notice of demand shall be given during the currency of the lease.

32. The demand statement for water-rates due under a lease in the kharif season shall be prepared either before the permit is issued or as soon as conveniently may be after its issue, and shall, without reference to the land having been actually irrigated up to that time or not, show the water-rates due by each person whose land is included in the application. Demand statements (parchas) showing the sums due from each applicant shall be sent to the lambardar for distribution, and no further notice of demand shall be given.

33. For irrigation during the hot-weather or rabi season the following procedure shall be followed :—

I.—The area irrigated in any village shall be measured by an ameen appointed for the purpose. The khusrah shall be signed by both the amin and the lambardar who shall be present at the measurements. If the lambardar is not present, the amin shall arrange that at least two respectable cultivators shall be present and enter their names in the khusrah prepared by him. The lambardar shall be permitted to take a copy of the khusrah.

II.—When the measurement is completed the khusrah shall be forwarded to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, who shall prepare the demand statement (khatiani) with all possible despatch. Copies of extracts of the demand statement affecting each separate cultivator (parchas), signed and sealed by the zilladar, shall, as soon as prepared, be forwarded to the lambardar for distribution amongst the persons charged. The lambardar shall grant a receipt for the parchas forwarded.

III.—If the lambardar is not present or declines to grant a receipt for the same in the prescribed form, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall make other efficient arrangements for serving each person assessed with a parcha showing the amount due from him. Parchas may be sent by post.

34. Objections to the demand statements prepared in accordance with the preceding rules 31, 32 and 33 may be presented, either personally or through the lambardar, to the Sub-divisional or Divisional Canal Officer, who shall thereupon, after such enquiry as he may consider to be necessary, pass orders on the same. A copy of the order passed shall be served on the person making the objection. Objections to the demand addressed to the Collector shall be referred for the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer.

35. Objections to the demand statements must be presented within thirty days of the date on which the parcha was received by the lambardar, but this period shall be extended where reasonable cause for delay can be established.

36. The objections may be in a form, which will be sold for half an anna at all canal offices, giving instructions as to the particulars required to admit of the objection being readily investigated; but any form will be accepted provided it clearly states the name or names of the persons objecting, the crop, and the year for which the charge is made and the demand from each cultivator to which objection is taken.

37. Any person not satisfied with the order passed by the Canal Officer under Rule 34 may file an application of appeal to the Collector under section 91 of the Act. Such application must be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against. The Collector shall thereupon, after considering the records of the case, pass such order as he may think fit and shall meanwhile have discretion to suspend collections by a written order in cases where it may seem advisable to do so.

38. When the order appealed against to the Collector is that of a Sub-divisional Canal Officer, the proceedings shall be called for though the Divisional Canal Officer, who may record thereon any remarks he may think fit. The papers shall not be detained for the purpose of enabling the Divisional Canal Officer to make further enquiries, which, however, may be directed by the Collector on the suggestion of the Divisional Canal Officer or on his own motion.

39. Applications for mutations of names in leases for three or seven years shall be made to the Collector; if addressed to the Canal Officer they shall be referred to the Collector for disposal.

ON WATER-RATES.

40. Water-rates imposed under section 79 of the Act shall be at the rates shown in the schedule following or such lower rate as the Divisional Canal Officer may fix :—

	Flow or lift.
	Rate per bigah.	Rate per tenth of a bigah.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
For water used in an unauthorized manner	5 0 0	0 8 0

Provided that in the kharif season, 25th June to the 25th October, no water-rates under this section shall be levied where the unauthorized irrigation is effected with water taken from land included in a lease, but irrigation effected by cutting a village channel or committing a criminal offence the perpetrator of which cannot be discovered may be assessed with the previous sanction of the Collector, which must be obtained before any detailed measurement of the land irrigated without authority is made. Subject to the provisos regarding irrigation in the kharif season mentioned above, persons using water without a permit shall, unless exempted by section 74 of the Act, be charged water-rates at the rate imposed by this rule.

41. Charges for waste of water imposed under section 80 of the Act shall be at the rates fixed in the rule immediately preceding and be subject in the kharif season to the same condition as regards sanction by the Collector as is required by that rule; where a tank or ahara has been filled, a charge of Rs. 5 per thousand cubic yards may be made in lieu of an acreage charge.

42. Water-rates assessed under section 78, 79, or 80 of the Act shall be due and payable on the dates mentioned below:—

Seven-year leases ... Three-year leases ...	First moiety ... Second moiety ...	15th December. 1st March.
Season or annual leases—
Bhadoi and crops classed as bhadoi		1st November.
Rice and sugarcane waterings, from the 25th June to the 25th October		15th December.
Rabi and crops classed as rabi, including sugarcane waterings, from the 25th October to the 25th March ...		1st April.
Hot-weather rate		1st July.
Sugarcane	First moiety	15th December.
	Second moiety	15th February.
Assessments under section 79 of the Act or under Rule 40		On receipt of the demand statement by the Collector.
Assessments under section 80 of the Act
Water supplied by volume between the 1st of September and 31st of October		One moiety before the outlet is opened, the other moiety 15th December.
Water supplied by volume to fill aharas		The whole amount before the outlet is opened.

The Divisional Canal Officer will endeavour to forward as many of the demand statements as possible to the Collector fifteen days before the dates fixed for payment, but accuracy in the individual charges shall be regarded as of more importance than a rigid adherence to dates.

43. Where lands are held on a bhaoli tenure, the entire water-rates assessed under section 78 of the Act shall be demandable from the occupiers of the land assessable; but at the written request of the bhaoli owner, in the form, Appendix VIII, which may be presented to the Divisional Canal Officer or to the Collector, the water-rates shall be recovered from the cultivators and the person or persons in receipt of the bhaoli rents in the same proportion as the produce is divisible amongst them. The demand statement shall be made out by the Divisional Canal Officer in the name of the cultivators, any necessary modification therein owing to a request made by a bhaoli owner under this rule being carried out by the Collector. But on lands under Government management half the rates should be paid by the landlord, and in other cases any influence which the Collector may possess should be used to make the zemindar consent to this equitable arrangement.

44. In the case of lands held under a bhaoli tenure being assessed under section 79 of the Act, the whole of the persons deriving benefit therefrom shall be assessed in the same proportion as the produce is divisible amongst them.

ON REMISSIONS.

45. The water-gauges on distributaries or other channels shall be held to give authoritative data for all calculations of discharge required to verify claims for remission of water-rate on account of failure of supply.

46. Claims to remission of water-rates under section 76*b* shall only be admitted on proof of actual loss caused by failure of supply. On proof of such loss the Divisional Canal Officer may remit the whole or any part of the rates. All applications for remission of water-rates shall be made in the manner provided in Rule 34 and twenty days before the crop is cut.

47. Before awarding compensation under section 76*c* the Collector shall obtain the written opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, and such opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

48. Notwithstanding any thing contained in these rules, the Superintending Canal Officer may, should he consider the circumstances of the case require it, under such general instructions as he may from time to time receive from Government, remit, under the head extraordinary, so much of the water-rates as are in excess of ten annas a bigah. But no such remissions shall be claimable as a right, nor shall any person be entitled to receive an order on an application for remissions under this head, which will ordinarily only be made on the representations of Divisional Canal Officers.

49. A remission statement signed by the Superintending or Divisional Canal Officer shall be sufficient authority for a refund by the Collector.

INTERMEDIARY AGENCY.

50. Leases in the kharif season for three or seven years will be entered into with associations of cultivators as specified in these rules; and also on the joint application of the cultivators and of some person hereinafter called the contractor, who shall collect and pay to Government, under section 82 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, all seems due under the agreement on account of water-rates. The joint agreement shall be in the form given as Appendix II to these rules. The contractor must have a beneficial interest in some part of the land included in the application extending for the full term of the lease.

51. Contractors shall be entitled to collect water-rates from the cultivators who have signed the application and from their successors in interest in the land included in the block at the rates fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 78 of the Act. Every due from a cultivator to a contractor on account of water-rates shall be deemed to be a sum due to Government under sections 82 and 85 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876.

52. A contractor (or in case there be more than one, each contractor severally and jointly) shall use due diligence in the collection of the water-rates specified in the agreement from the cultivators who have applied for the water supplied. In the case of his failure after due diligence to collect, he shall, within thirty days of the rates becoming due, submit to the Collector a list showing the names of the defaulters with the sums due from each, and the Collector shall thereupon proceed to realize the amount due from the said defaulters according to law.

53. A contractor (or in case there be more than one, each contractor severally and jointly) shall be responsible for all sums payable on the agreement, except such sums as he may satisfy the Collector that he has been unable to collect after using due diligence, and shall be entitled to a deduction of five per cent. on all sums collected by himself.

54. The contractor shall as such be responsible for the performance of the duties devolving on the lambardar under these rules, but may appoint a lambardar, whose name shall be communicated to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer and whose removal, for good cause to be recorded in writing, may be ordered by the Divisional Canal Officer. He shall, whether he appoints a substitute to act as lambardar or not, be responsible for reporting all changes in the occupiers of lands included in the lease to the Collector.

55. The contractor as lambardar shall be entitled to remuneration at the rate of five per cent. on the assessments subject to the provisions contained in Rule 15.

56. The contractor may, if he prefers, in which case it shall be so stated in the application, take the responsibility of collecting the entire sum due under the application, in which case he shall pay the whole amount due less 7½ per cent., making, with five per cent. payable under the preceding Rule 12½ per cent on the assessment.

57. No steps shall be taken to prepare a joint application by cultivators and a contractor until the written assent of the Collector to the proposed contractor has been received. The Collector may, before approving of a contractor under this rule, require him to give security for the due performance of the contract.

58. A contractor may resign his interest in the lease by giving notice to the Divisional Canal Officer three months at least before the 25th June next following, in which case his connection with the lease shall cease from that date, and the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall procede to appoint a lambardar under Rule 12 and the Collector to realize water-rates due directly from the applicants. The Divisional Canal Officer may, at the instance of the Collector, remove a contractor who fails to use due diligence in making collections. In such cases three months' notice at least before the 25th of June next following shall be given, and the removal shall take effect from that date.

59 With the written approval of the Superintending Canal Officer a contractor may measure and prepare demand statements for lands irrigated in the hot weather, for which applications in the prescribed form have been filed by him. Such demand statements shall be forwarded to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, who shall thereupon proceed to deal with them as if they had been prepared by himself.

60. When an agreement has been made for the collections of rates by a contractor, the Divisional Canal Officer shall, under section 82 of the Act, furnish such contractor with a written authority to collect the amounts due by the cultivators, a copy of which shall be sent to the Collector.

ON COLLECTIONS AND ALTERATIONS IN DEMAND STATEMENTS.

61. Collection of all water-rates shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the statement of demands furnished to him by the Divisional Canal Officer except in the case of lands held bhodli, regarding which the provisions contained in Rule 43 shall be followed.

62. The Collector may make any alterations in a demand statement provided the total sum shown to be due is not altered or an error in account only corrected. When such alterations are made in a demand statement appertaining to a lease for three or seven years, a copy of the alteration statement shall be sent to the Divisional Canal Officer.

63. In cases where sums due on account of water-rates cannot be collected owing to the death, bankruptcy or absconding of the defaulter, the amount which is non-realizable may be written off as irrecoverable on the authority of the Collector. A detailed list of all sums so written off shall be sent to the Divisional Canal Officer. In other cases the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division must be obtained to admit of demands being written off under this head.

MISCELLANEOUS.

64. No person shall, without the permission in writing of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer, pass, or cause any animal or vehicle to pass, on or across any of the works, banks, or channels of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, excepting by means of such bridges, fords and ferries and their approaches, as are provided by the Divisional Canal Officer.

65. No Canal Officer, unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operation of this rule, shall have any interest in the distribution of water from any of the canals, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly, or in shares with others.

66. Tanks may be filled with canal water without charge, and without reference to the area irrigated in any village, wherever water can be made available without injury to the cultivation dependent on any canal, under the following conditions:—

(a)—No tank shall be so filled unless the water is to be exclusively used for domestic purposes or for watering cattle, or both.

(b)—No tank shall be so filled from which irrigation is practised.

(c)—No tank shall be so filled which, intercepting any line of drainage, is liable to overflow from accumulation of water derived from natural causes.

(d)—No tank shall be so filled except on the written order of the Sub-Divisional Canal Officer issued on the written application of the parties concerned.

(e)—No tank shall be so filled unless the village channel used to fill it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, to be in a sound condition when the application is made.

(f)—The privilege herein accorded may, by written order of the Divisional Canal Officer, subject to revision by the Superintending Canal Officer, whose decision shall be final, be suspended for twelve months for breach of any of the above conditions.

67. The Divisional Canal Officer may supply water for manufacturing or other purpose charging for the same at the rate of one rupee per each 4,000 cubic feet or part of 4,000 cubic feet supplied. Contracts between the Divisional Canal Officer on the part of Government and private individuals for the use of water as a motive power, or for any purpose whatsoever not specified in this rule or the published schedule of rates, shall, if for any period not exceeding one year, require the previous sanction of the Superintending Engineer, and if proposed for longer than a year, shall be submitted for the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor

68. Patwaris called on to assist in identifying land or signatures or to give evidence shall receive such remuneration by way of fee as may be fixed by the Superintending Canal Officer or Collector with the approval of Government, but their signature shall not necessarily be required to any document prepared under these rules. The fee shall be disbursed at the time of attendance as far as practicable by the Sub-divisional Canal Officer or Collector, whoever may require the patwari to attend.

69. Any Deputy Collector or Sub-Deputy Collector may, under the general orders and control of the Collector, exercise the powers conferred on the Collector by Rules 9, 10, 11, 12, 43, 52, 53, 54, 57, 59, 61, 62 and 68, provided that all orders passed by such Deputy Collector or Sub-Deputy Collector shall be appealable to the Collector, if a petition of appeal is preferred within thirty days of their being passed.

70. The Collector may, by a special order passed in each case, refer applications under Rules 38, 40, or 41 to any Deputy Collector for report or disposal. An appeal against an order passed by a Deputy Collector under this rule may be preferred by either the applicant or the Divisional Canal Officer.

REVISED RATES TO BE CHARGED FOR WATER SUPPLIED ON APPLICATION FROM THE SONE CANALS.

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 78 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876 the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor proposes to fix the following rates to be charged for water supplied for irrigation from the Sone Canals:—

1. Schedules I and IV following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 1st of April 1891.

2. Schedule II following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 25th June 1891.

3. Schedule III following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 15th October 1890.

4. Schedule V following will be in force in respect to permits issued for the irrigation of land after the 1st January 1891.

5. Schedule VI following will be in force in respect to water supplied after the 1st of September 1890.

6. Schedule VII following will be in force in respect to water supplied after the 1st of November 1890.

7. For permits issued prior to the dates mentioned above, the rates at present in force enumerated in notification No. 148 of the 20th June 1881, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd June 1881, will be charged.

SCHEDULE No. VI.

14. For water supplied by volume in the kharif season—

For water supplied between the 1st of September and the 31st of October, four rupees for a calculated discharge of one cubic foot per second for twelve hours. For less than a cubic foot per second or less than twelve hours a proportionate charge shall be made, but a fraction of less than one-sixteenth shall be charged as one-sixteenth.

SCHEDULE No. VII.

15. For water supplied by volume to fill aharas—

For water supplied between the 1st of November and the 25th of March, one rupee for a calculated discharge of one cubic foot per second for twelve hours. For less than a cubic foot per second or less than twelve hours a proportionate charge shall be made, but a fraction of less than one-sixteenth shall be charged as one-sixteenth.

16. In the case of leases under schedules I and II, water will be supplied for rice seed beds only as early in June as the supply in the river admits.

17. In the case of leases under schedule II, no extra charge will be made for a crop of kesari, linseed, or gram sown on rice-fields watered with canal water, and water will be supplied until the 15th of November if required.

18. In the case of leases under schedule III, the Divisional Canal Officer may, in years when the demand for water for kharif crops admits of it, supply water for rabi on any date after the 7th October.

19. In the case of leases under schedule V, the charge will be dependent on the crops reaching maturity. A proportionate remission will be granted if the crop suffers from any cause.

20. When the original crops sown in a field irrigated by canal water fails, and a fresh crop is sown in the same season, as defined in the schedules above, water-rates shall be levied on the second crop only. If no second crop is sown, water-rate shall be levied at the rate of ten annas a bigah.

21. In assessing water-rates under Schedules III, IV and V, the areas to be charged shall be subject to the following rules:—

I.—If only a portion of a field be irrigated, the water-rate shall be chargeable on the whole field, unless such portion shall have been clearly demarcated, previous to the admission of the water, by a ridge not less than half a foot high.

II.—When a portion of a field has been irrigated with canal water and a portion with well or reservoir water, the whole field shall be liable for canal water-rate, unless a clearly distinguishable boundary exists between the two portions.

22. Irrigation from escape channels, when the supply is permanent, shall be governed by the same rules as irrigation from other parts of the canal.

23. Irrigation from such channels, when the supply is intermittent, may be allowed at such reduced rates as shall from time to time be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor

APPENDIX I.

Form of application for a lease for a term of years.

Mouzah , Pergunnah , Distributary .

1. WE, whose names are attached, apply for water to be supplied from the above-mentioned distributary from the 25th June to the 25th March of each year for years for the irrigation of the block formed by our holdings as specified below.

2. The area to be irrigated by each applicant is stated in the schedule following, and each applicant agrees to pay water-rates on the area recorded against his name at the rate of Rs. per bigah. This sum will be payable independently of our requiring water in any particular year or not.

3. The application is made under section 74 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, and the rules issued under it, more especially rules 16, 20, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 31, 45, and 46.

4. We agree to pay a moiety of the water-rates due on this application on the 15th December and the remaining moiety on the 1st of March.

5. The permit granted may be cancelled by the Divisional Canal Officer under the sanction required by rule 24—

I.—If on the 1st of June of any year the water-rates due on this application in the aggregate are in arrear by more than half a year's demand.

II.—If water supplied for irrigating the land mentioned in the application is habitually wasted or misused, it being expressly agreed that water is supplied for the sole purpose of irrigating the land mentioned in the application.

SCHEDULE.

Rule No. 13, dated the 15*th September* 1890.

EXISTING RULES.

Rule 18.—Payment of sums falling under heads (a) to (e) of Rule 5 cannot be accepted either in Court or at the Treasury unless the money be tendered with a challan in duplicate signed by the chief ministerial officer of the Court under whose decree or order the money is tendered, and also by the Accountant of the Court or group of Courts.

At page 40, Chapter III of the Civil Rules and Orders, in the 4th line of Rule 18, for the word "duplicate" substitute—triplicate.

Rule 19.—Any person desirous of paying money into Court or, in the case of collections made by any officer of the Court, the officer who has realised the money shall be furnished free of cost with two forms of challan (Form No. 1), in each of which he must enter in the vernacular or English the particulars required from him. One of the challans herein called the original challan shall bear the court-fee stamp (if any) required by law.

And in the 4th line of Rule 19 at the same page, for the word "two" substitute—three.

Approval by Judge in charge.

Rule 22.—The register and the challans shall then be laid before the Judge in charge, and he shall initial each entry as he passes the challans. The two challans shall then be returned to the party tendering the money, and shall be his authority to pay the same into the Court or into the Treasury.

At page 41 of the same Chapter, in the third line of Rule 22, for the word "two" substitute—three.

Receipt of Money by Cashier.

Rule 27.—The Cashier on receiving a challan in duplicate addressed to him under Rule 20 or a payment slip issued by the Accountant under Rule 25, or a tender of money under Rule 26, shall accept the money and at once enter the amount as a receipt in the appropriate cash-book. (Rules 32 and 33.)

At page 43 of the same Chapter, in the first line of Rule 27, for the word "duplicate" substitute—triplicate.

Rule 28.—When challans have so been passed he shall keep one copy and return the other with his receipt enfaced upon it. This receipt shall be produced in Court by the person paying the money when it is necessary for him to have satisfaction entered upon the record of the case to which he is a party.

In the same way on presentation of the challan in duplicate at the Treasury, as prescribed above in Rule 23, and on payment of the money, the payer shall receive as an acknowledgment one of the two challans signed by the Treasury Officer if the amount be Rs. 500 or more; by the Accountant and Treasurer if less than that sum.

And in the second line of Rule 28 on the same page for the word "other" substitute—others, and for "receipt" substitute—receipts. In the third line for "it" and "this receipt" substitute—them and these receipts.

At the end of this rule add—or when it is necessary to have a sale confirmed or notices issued upon the landlord in cases of rent deposits, or upon the creditor in cases of debt due to a mortgage creditor and the like.

In the first line of the note under this rule for the word "duplicate" substitute—triplicate; in the third line for "one" substitute—two; and in the fourth line for "two" substitute—three.

Add the following as Rule 28A :—

Rule 28A.—In all cases whether the money is paid into Court or into the Treasury, the person paying the money shall present to the Court in which the case is pending or decided one of the remaining two copies of the challan, and the copy so presented shall be filed with the record of the case. In the event of the person failing to present this copy, the Judge in charge shall be justified in refusing to comply with the requisition of such person until the copy shall have been presented.

Rule 50.—In cases dealt with under the last rule, the duplicate challan shall be returned to the payer duly endorsed with the certificate of the Court Inspector's transfer of the money, and the payment order duly receipted shall be retained in the custody of the Court.

At page 52 of the same Chapter, in the first two lines of Rule 50, for the words "the duplicate" substitute—one copy of the; and at the end of the rule add—the remaining copy of the challan, with the Court Inspector's certificate endorsed thereon, shall be filed with the record of the case.

Rule 67A.—(a).—In the case of deposits of rent under sections 46 and 47 of Act VIII (B.C.) of 1869, the Accountant shall, on checking the Treasury Advice List and on writing up the Deposit Register, notify the receipt of the deposits to the Courts concerned. The information shall be given in the following form, copies of which shall be filled in by the Accountant and forwarded daily to the several Courts in question.

(a) Civil or Criminal Deposits, including Rent Deposits.

Rule 9.—Judges will, as far as possible in their transactions with the public, avoid the direct receipt and payment of money under head (a) of Rule 5. Cash must, however, be received, (a) when the Court is bound by law to accept payment either absolutely or up to a given time (vide sections 306, 307, and 336, Act XIV of 1882), and in every such case the money shall be received even although tendered after the hour prescribed by Rule 15,—(b) when the proceeds of moveable property sold in execution (section 297, Act XIV of 1882) are realized after the hour prescribed in Rule 15, —(c) at out-stations, in the case of rent deposits under section 46, Act VIII (B.C.) of 1869.

Rule 19.—Any person desirous of paying money into Court, or in the case of collections made by any officer of the Court, the officer who has realized the money, shall be furnished free of cost with two forms of challan (Form No. 1), in each of which he must enter in the vernacular or English the particulars required from him. One of the challans herein called the original challan shall bear the court-fee stamp (if any required by law).

In the case of deposit challans, care must be taken to enter fully the nature of the deposit, the number of the suit or execution case (if any), the name of the person on whose behalf the money is paid in, and of the person to whom it is to be paid over, &c., &c.

To the explanatory note under Rule 19 of the same Chapter at page 40, ibid, add the following :—

In the sums deposited under section 14 (1) of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889), the deposit challans must show that the amount is deposited to the credit of the Judge.

Application for payment.

Rule 36.—Persons desiring to draw money deposited in Court and payable to them shall submit to the Chief Ministerial Officer of the Court mentioned in Rule 18 an application in Form No. 7, or in the case of a rent deposit in Form No. 8. One copy of such form shall be supplied free of charge. In this form the applicant shall enter all particulars necessary for the identification of the credit. If it is intended to withdraw more than a single item of deposit by one application, the amount of each item and the number of each deposit must be distinctly stated.

To Rule 36 of the same Chapter at page 46, ibid, add the following :—

The final order for payment of deposits under section 14 (1) of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889) must contain a direction to the Treasury Officer to pay the amount in stamps to the Nazir of the Judge to whose credit it was deposited, and to transfer the amount of deposit to Stamp Revenue.

The following are the conditions of sale :—

1.—The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2.—The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3.—The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M.; but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or, if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4.—Each lot shall contain five chests.

5.—A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M. in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of

DEPOSIT.
When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest
On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.
And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional, to the extent of Rs. 400.

Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6.—The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7.—The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M. if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8.—No tender of money, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the fifth day following the day of sale will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9.—The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10.—Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots, or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests originally required to be included in each certificate or order.

11.—No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12.—The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or Government Securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13.—With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14.—The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15.—In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16.—The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue:—No. 1, certificate of the opium advertised for sale; No. 2, report of the examination of such opium.

17.—The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazeepore Factory for the year 1889-90, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at the Patna and Ghazeepore Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue.

18.—Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

C. E. BUCKLAND,
For Offg. Secretary.

PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES.

RULES AND GENERAL MATTERS.

RESOLUTION.

The 12th December 1890.

READ—

Despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 190 (Financial), dated 28th August 1890.

RESOLUTION.—In this Despatch the Secretary of State deals with the recommendations made in the report of the Select Committee of the House of Commons on East India (Civil Servants). His Excellency the Governor-General in Council directs the publication of the decisions arrived at on such of the questions raised as can be disposed of without further reference.

2. In regard to the rate of exchange for payment of pensions, the Secretary of State has decided that all pensions granted in rupees, which are payable at the Home Treasury to residents in the United Kingdom, or which are payable to residents in any other country in which the standard of currency is gold, shall be paid, with effect from the 1st of April 1890, at the rate of exchange annually fixed for the adjustment of transactions between the British and Indian Governments, subject to the condition that the rate of one shilling and nine pence the rupee is fixed as the minimum rate at which the conversion into sterling shall be effected.

3. In regard to the recommendation of the Committee that some period of furlough should in all cases count as service for pension, the Secretary of State has proposed, and the Government of India has agreed, that one year's leave with allowances in 15 years' service and two years in 25 years' service shall be allowed to count as service for pension, provided that such leave is taken out of India.

4. The recommendation of the Committee that service should qualify for pension from the age of 20, instead of 22, has been accepted.

5. A list of amendments to the Civil Service Regulations is appended to this Resolution, showing the additions and corrections made in accordance with the foregoing decisions.

6. A further Resolution will issue subsequently dealing with the remaining questions regarding the leave and pension rules when they are finally decided.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to all the Departments of the Government of India; to all Local Governments and Administrations; to the Comptroller and Auditor General; to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers; the Director-General of the Post Office of India; the Mint and Assay Masters, Calcutta and Bombay; the Commissioner of Northern India Salt Revenue; and the Superintendent, Government Printing, India.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

Hooghly Collectorate, the 6th November 1890. MAHOMED ISRAIL, For Collector.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below, to the undermentioned estate, situate in the district of Moorshedabad, will be put up to sale at the Berhampore Collectorate on the 12th day of January 1891, corresponding with the 29th day of Pous 1297 B. S.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale :—

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1*st.*—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price, which will be fixed by the Collector at the time of sale. The purchaser of this estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, subject to the revenue fixed in perpetuity.

2*nd.*—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings, and by the laws in force, and purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3*rd.*—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rs 100, the whole amount to be paid down at once.

4*th.*—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale—

Notification

IT is hereby notified for general information that Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal Deo, late proprietor of the entire pergunnah of Ambicanagóre, in the district of Bankoora, has, by an ejarah lease executed in 1884, conveyed for 31 years whatever rights and interests he had in the minerals and metals of the entire pergunnah of Ambicanagore in the district of Bankoora, excepting a few villages which he has kept in his kash possession, to the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom in the district of Singbhoom.

As the entire estate of the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom, including pergunnah Ambicanagore, is now managed by the Revenue authorities of the Chota Nagpore Division under the provisions of the Chota Nagpore Encumbered Estates' Act, the Manager of the Dhalbhoom Estate alone, acting under the orders of the Commissioner of the Chota Nagpore Division, has the power of giving a lease of the minerals and metals of the pergunnah.

The lease recently executed by Rajah Sir Sourendra Mohan Tagore, KT., C.I.E., as purchaser of the proprietary rights of the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal, in favour of Mr. Palmer of Calcutta of the mineral rights in the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore is null and void, inasmuch as the said Rajah Sir Sourendra Mohan Tagore has purchased the proprietary rights of the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhal in the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore long after the execution of the ejarah lease in favour of the late Rajah Ram Chandra Dhabal Deo of Dhalbhoom. Instructions have accordingly been issued on the Manager of the Dhalbhoom Estate to take the necessary steps to oppose by all constitutional means any attempt that may be made by the aforesaid Mr R. G. Palmer to take possession of the minerals of the said pergunnah of Ambicanagore, or to begin mining operations within it. The Dhalbhoom Estate not only holds the aforesaid pergunnah of Ambicanagore by virtue of the ejarah lease referred to above, but also under a deed of mortgage executed by the said Rajah Nimye Charan Dhabal, simultaneously with the ejarah lease.

W. H. GRIMLEY,
Commissioner of Chota Nagpore.

Ranchi, the 26th November 1890.

LETTERS of Administration of the estate and effects of the late M. P. Gasper, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, have been granted by the High Court to Mrs. Alice Gasper, widow of the said deceased. Creditors of the said estate are requested to send in a statement of their respective claims, together with the particulars of securities, if any, which they hold to the undersigned at No 5, Hastings Street, Calcutta, on or before the 15th day of January 1891, and the debtors to the said estate are requested to pay their respective debts to the said Mrs. Alice Gasper.

GONESH CHUNDER CHUNDER,
Attorney for Mrs. Alice Gasper.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

BY DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first three volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses, both chemical and industrial; trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributions have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and G in 534 pages. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in six volumes by 1891; but a seventh volume may also be issued consisting of an index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary; and this as a work of reference, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India Rs. 30 and in England 2 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set. An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings respectively will be charged extra for the whole sets.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England, exclusive of packing and postage.*
